Letter from Commissioner Parker—How the Indians are to be Civilized—The Treaty System to be Abolished—Explanations from Secretary Boutwell.

Special Dispatches to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, Friday, May 28.

The advices from England by mail and cable, printed in the journals of to-day, (Friday,) are regarded here as favorable to the United States, and in official circles it is believed that the resumption of negotiations on the Alabama question by the English Government is not very far distant. In the opinion of a high official here, recent events in England, the tone of the Press, and the general ferment and excitement on Mr. SUMNER'S speech, shows that the conscience of England has been struck, and that the English Government begins at last to see their country as others see her. That an effort will be made by the British authorities to settle the pending complications with the United States may be judged from one or two facts. First—The London Press has been less bitter within the last few days, and it is believed here that the Government has given some of the leading journals to understand that the continuance of their tirades and diatribes against the United States tends to embitter the two peoples and to unnecessarily inflame public sentiment. Second—Much stress is laid on the tone of private letters which have been received here within the last few days from persons high in authority and influence in England. Third—It is conceded everywhere here that Mr. MOTLEY'S reception will be of the warmest and most cordial character. The proceedings of the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce are regarded as significant; and a fact more significant still, is that Lord HOUGHTON, immediately after Mr. MOTLEY'S confirmation as Minister to England, sent him a cable dispatch, inviting him to preside at the annual banquet of the English Press in London, on the 5th of next month. General BUTLER, in a conversation on this subject, which has been printed, gave it as his opinion one day after this dispatch was received, that Mr. MOTLEY would not be asked to eat any dinners, because his predecessor had eaten them all, and left none; but this invitation to our new Minister showed that at least one remained, and that the member from Essex County was not as well informed on the subject as he might have been. Mr. MOTLEY declined Lord HOUGHTON'S invitation, but it is believed, nevertheless, that his reception will be most flattering. Diplomats here hold that England's position is becoming weaker, and they point as evidence of what they say to her defensive attitude. The letter of LAIRD is commented on, and although it is but the communication of an individual, it is regarded as an apology of the whole party who cheered the Alabama on her voyage.

Senator GRIMES is very severely critised here on account of his letter to the London Times. It has given great offence in diplomatic circles, and his criticism on the members of the English Embassy is considered, if not impertinent, at least extremly distasteful. His statements in reference to Mr. SUMNER are absolutely untrue. The Massachusetts Senator made no request for the removal of the injunction of secrecy, and there was only one dissentient against the publication of the speech, namely, MCCREERY, of Kentucky. How much Mr. GRIMES knows of what actually occurred in the Executive Session, when the speech was delivered, may be judged from the fact that he was then much nearer to his present lodgings than he was to the Senate Chamber, having sailed for Europe about a week before. The expected result here of his attack on the English Legation will be the writing of a letter to Mr. THORNTON by Earl CLARENDON demanding an explanation. The British Minister is not a little annoyed at the insinuations of Senator GRIMES, and both himself and his Secretaries are at a loss to understand to what the Senator from Iowa alludes. The members of the Embassy have won golden opinions in Washington from every one who has had any intercourse with them, and their brethren of the Diplomatic Corps consider it extremely unpleasant to be subjected to such surveillance as the letter of Mr. GRIMES indicates they are and have been. They one and all hold that they are not to be held accountable for anything except what they do in an official capacity.

Letters continue to pour in on Mr. SUMNER from all quarters eulogistic of his speech. The President of one of the strongest Union leagues writes him that he considers it "a second declaration of independence;" and the richest American in France thanks him in a recent communication for his able exposition of the Alabama case, holding that there never can be a satisfactory settlement of it without a proper understanding of what we consider a full and just reparation. Mr. SUMNER'S correspondent thinks that he has fairly stated the case.

THE INDIAN COMMISSION.

The Board of Indian Commissioners have brought their first meeting to a close, and finished their labors for the present. All the members attended, except Messrs. TOBEY and DODGE. The organization was effected on Wednesday, by the appointment of Mr. WALSH, of Philadelphia as Chairman, and of Mr. BRUNOT, of Pittsburg, as Secretary. A summary of what they have done and what they propose to do is as follows: On Wednesday, in company with Secretary of the Interior COX, they waited upon the President and informed him of their readiness to coöperate with him in his views and with Congress in its views on the Indian question. The President, on his part, reciprocated their sentiments and pledged himself to carry out whatever policy they may indicate, which appeared to him calculated to secure a change for the better in the management of our Indian Department. He fully concurred in their views that the Indians should be placed on and confined to their Reservations, and agreed to forward with all the means at his disposal whatever measures toward civilizing them that they may recommend. He promised to issue a general letter of instructions to military officers in contact with the various tribes and to agencies having dealings with them, to carry out in every way they could the programme of the Commission. The War Department should give the Commissioners transportation, and the agents should furnish them all the facilities at their disposal. Among the subjects which came before the Commission for their consideration was the following comprehensive letter from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, General PARKER:

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON, May 26, 1869.

GENTLEMEN: You having been solicited by the President, under the provision of the fourth section of the act of Congress approved April 10, 1869, entitled, "An Act making appropriation for the current and contingent expenses of the Indian Department," &c., for the year ending June 30, 1870, for the purpose of enabling the President to exercise the power conferred by said act, and being authorized by the same to exercise, under the direction of the President, joint control with the Secretary of the Interior over the disbursement of the appropriations made by said act, or any part thereof that the President may designate, and having been convened in the city for the purpose of organizing for the execution of your duties, and believing that, in common with the President and other officers of the Government, you desire the humanization, civilization and Christianization of the Indians, I very respectfully, after consultation with the Honorable Secretary of the Interior, submit the following questions, which, with a view to proper and intelligent action in the future relation of the Government with the Indian, I deem it important should receive your early consideration and suggestion, viz.: A determination or settlement of what should be the legal status of the Indians; a definition of their rights and obligations under the laws of the United States, of the States and Territories and treaty stipulations; whether any more treaties shall be stipulated with the Indians, and if not, what legislation is necessary for those with whom there are existing treaty stipulations, and what for those with whom no such stipulations exist; should the Indians be placed upon reservations, and what is the best method to accomplish this object; should not legislation discriminate between the civilized and localized Indians and the united roving tribes of the plains and mountains; what changes are necessary in existing laws relating to purchasing goods and provisions for the Indians, in order to prevent fraud, &c.; should any change be made in the method of paying the money annuities, and if so, what. Great mischief, evils, and frequently serious results follow from friendly Indians leaving the reservations, producing conflicts between the citizens, soldiers and Indians. At what time and point shall the civil rule cease and the military begin? Is any change required in the intercourse laws by reason of the present and changed condition of the country? I should respectfully suggest that inspection should be made by your Commission of as many Indian tribes, especially the wild and roving ones, as the time of the honorable Commissioners will permit, and their conditions and wants be reported on, with any suggestions that each case may seem to require. Also, the accounts of superintendents and agents should be examined, and the efficiency or inefficiency of those officers should be reported upon. All suggestions, recommendations and reports from the Commission should be made to the honorable Secretary of the Interior, to be by him submitted, when necessary, to the President and Congress.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
(Signed.) E. S. PARKER, Commissioner.

The views of the Commissioner as embodied in the above letter were substantially carried out. The Indian country, by which is meant the entire territory occupied by Indians, was divided into three grand divisions, and sub-committees were appointed to visit and examine the condition of affairs, and report at a meeting to be held here prior to the next meeting of Congress. First—The Northern, which embraces all the Indians in Nebraska and Dacotah, which will be in charge of Messrs. WELSH, FARWELL and TOBEY. Second—The Southern, which includes the Indians in and south of Kansas and east of the Colorado in New-Mexico, and is assigned to Messrs. BRUNOT, BISHOP and DODGE; and third, the Western, which embraces all west of the former two, will be in charge of Messrs. CAMPBELL, STUART and LANE. The visitation will be made during the Summer. It was agreed that the first step toward the civilization of the Indians would be to confine them to their reservations. The subject of treaties was discussed, and the general impression seemed to be that the whole treaty system was wrong and ought to be entirely abolished. Some of the Commission were of the opinion that it would be a good plan to create two or three Indian Territories; give them a territorial organization and representation in Congress. The question of citizenship was also discussed, but as it involved the construction of statutes and of the Constitution itself, an opinion on that point was postponed for the present. They believed that it was a proper subject for legislation, and was out of their province, as stated above. The Commission will meet here some time in November and present their report.

EXPLANATIONS FROM SECRETARY BOUTWELL.

Secretary BOUTWELL stated to-day that the dispatches sent from this city within the last few days relative to the purchase of the three per cent. certificates, which created so uneasy a feeling in Wall-street, were entirely without his authorization, and that he has not for an instant thought of changing his financial policy. He does not wish to be held accountable for the rumors set afloat by interested parties, and will, when he meditates a change of policy, give due notice through the Press. The usual meeting of the Cabinet was held to-day, but the proceedings were unimportant and no subject of gravity was discussed.

MINISTER SANFORD.

It is stated on semi-official authority that Minister SANFORD'S resignation has been received at the State Department, and unless he can be induced to withdraw it his successor will be appointed in a short time. The Secretary of State gave a dinner this evening to the President and the members of the Cabinet.

Dispatches to the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Friday, May 28.

ISSUE OF BONDS TO THE CENTRAL PACIFIC RAILROAD.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company has complied with the act passed at the last session of Congress, requiring the deposit of a security for the completion of its portion of the Pacific Railroad, and fixing the junction of the Central with the Union at or near Ogden. The Commission appointed to examine the condition of both roads filed their report on Friday last. On the coming in of the report, President GRANT, upon consultation with his Cabinet, decided that a deposit of $4,000,000 of the Central first mortgage bonds would fully secure the completion and equipment of the Central as a first-class railroad. Mr. CHITTENDEN, the counsel of the Central, was advised of this decision yesterday. This morning, in company with Mr. HUNTINGTON, Vice-President of the road, he called on Secretary BOUTWELL and made deposit of the required security. The Secretary thereupon directed the issue to the Central Company of the full amount of bonds to which it was entitled by law. The amounts to be expended are required to equip and complete the road for through business. The report of the Commissioners was brought up to March 1, since which the Central has supplied many of the items required. The Company state that they intend to press forward the work until their road is brought to the required standard of efficiency. The subject of the security required from the Union Pacific Railroad has not yet been considered by the President, but will be in a few days, when the like security will be given.

THE MAY DEBT STATEMENT.

The receipts at the Treasury from Customs and Internal Revenue sources have been favorable for the present month so far, and will make the reduction of the debt even heavier than has already been stated. The duties on imports to the 27th inst. amount to about thirteen millions, while those from Internal Revenue are near seventeen millions, and will be heavier by the end of the month. The disbursements for the month are estimated at about twenty millions, so that the decrease will probably reach ten or twelve millions.

RECONSTRUCTION IN MISSISSIPPI.

Major WOFFORD, of Mississippi, who came here as a representative of a large portion of the people of that State, had a long interview with the President this morning. He stated that the desire for reconstruction was unanimous, and with the disfranchising and test oath, and unjust features of the militia clauses submitted to a separate vote, the Constitution would be adopted by an overwhelming majority. The general disposition is to support the President in the policy laid down in his inaugural address. The President said he was satisfied that Mississippi was quiet and orderly, and he repeated what he had said to others, that no order would be issued concerning Mississippi until after the Virginia election; but he thought the middle of August or the 1st of September would be a good time for the election in the former State, and that the disfranchising features, oaths, and the objectionable parts of the militia clause, and perhaps one or two others, would be submitted separately.

THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT.

One hundred dollars was received to-day by the Secretary of the Treasury from a man who says he wants to be honest. All the clerks in the Treasury are being paid off to-day. The new currency will be issued on the 1st of July. All the Treasury Agents have been appointed.

THE MACON, GA., ARSENAL.

The President to-day issued an order placing the Georgia Agricultural Society in possession of the building erected at Macon, Ga., by the Confederate Government as an arsenal, and now in possession of the Freedman's Bureau, for holding a State Agricultural Exposition next Summer.

ARMY.

Captain James D. Wharton, of the Fourteenth Infantry, has been appointed Aid-de-Camp on the staff of General Hancock, commanding the Department of Dakota, and ordered to report accordingly. Captain Henry Clayton has been relieved from the recruitng service, and ordered to duty in the War Department. First Lieutenant H. R. Williams, of the Forty-fifth Infanty, is relieved from duty in the Freedmen's Bureau, and ordered to join his regiment in the Department of the Cumberland, the order to take effect upon the completion of his duties as disbursing officer for the State of Mississippi. Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel Chas. B. Atchison, Captain Third Infantry, has been detailed on recruiting service, and ordered to report to the Superintendent of Recruiting Service at St. Louis.

NAVAL.

Lieutenant-Commander George B. White is detached from duty at League Island, Penn., and ordered to equipment duty at the Philadelphia Navy-yard. Ensigns Wm. Little and J. A. Pillsbury are detached from the Saginaw and placed on waiting orders. First Assistant Engineer G. M. L. Macarty is ordered to the Lancaster, and First Assistant Engineer George P. Hunt is ordered to the Boston Navy-yard.

HANGING IN MARYLAND.

Execution of the Negro Truman—Full Confession of the Murderer—Why the Crime was Committed.

FREDERICK, Md., Friday, May 28.

GEORGE TRUMAN, the negro who was convicted some time ago of the murder of an unknown white man on the 30th of last January, near Point of Rocks, this State, was hanged today at 12:30 o'clock. An immense crowd of people from Frederick and adjoining counties, and from the Virginia border, witnessed the execution from a field adjoining the jail-yard. TRUMAN has displayed the utmost indifference to his fate. A full confession was made previous to his execution, which is as follows:

I was born on the 17th of July, 1848, in Frederick County, Maryland, and have lived there ever since, except when I was in the army. I was married a few months ago, and for seven or eight months prior to my arrest I had lived with my uncle, HENRY HOPEWELL. On the 30th of last January, very early in the morning, I left home with HENRY HOPEWELL. I was told that a man had just gone out on the Frederick road, who had clothes for sale. An accessory, whose name I would not reveal, advised me to rob him. I immediately started after the stranger, my accessory taking another road to Ball's Hill. The stranger saw me coming and stopped; I caught up to him at NOTLEY THOMAS'. I asked him if he had clothes for sale; he said he had, and opened his carpet-bag and showed me what he had in it—a pair of soldier's blue pants, a pair of drawers, stockings, two shirts and a blue overcoat. I told him I would not give him what he asked. He locked his carpet bag and cut a stick to carry his carpet-bag on. I walked a little behind him, and we reached Ball's Hill, and met my accomplice. Unperceived by the stranger I picked up a stone, and, without a word of warning, I struck him a violent blow on the back of the head. He staggered and fell, dropping his carpet-bag. He immediately recovered and raised up, with the stick he had cut at NOTLEY THOMAS' grasped in his hand. He sprang to his feet. I then determined to silence and dispatch him. I seized the same stone with which I first struck him, and hit him in the temple. He fell senseless, the blood flowing freely from both wounds.

The man fell upon his back, and while he was lying there unconscious, I took off his boots and then his pants; picked up his hat and carpet-bag, and left him—not yet dead. I took off my shoes and put on the boots I had taken from the man. I then went on to my home at HENRY HOPEWELL'S. A short time afterward I went back to the mountain and hauled rails for Mr. KREMER until nearly dark. It then occurred to me that the man was not dead when I left him in the morning, and that I had better go and see what had become of him.

I quit work and went to the spot where I had left him. He was not there. I found him a short distance from where I left him. He was still alive, and had returned to consciousness, but was unable to move. He had lost much blood. He had either crawled or been moved by my accomplice since morning. He begged me to relieve him of his sufferings. He had laid there helpless from about 9 o'clock in the morning, enduring God only knows what agony. I knew it would not do for him to recover; I would be in danger.

I left him and immediately went home, got HOPEWELL'S gun, loaded it, and returned to where the man was lying. He was still lying upon his back. I went close to him, took deliberate aim at his head, and as he lay there, conscious but helpless before me, I fired! He never breathed again. The charge passed through his head and scattered his brains. His blood spirted on the pine trees and laurel when I shot him.

The same morning GEORGE HOPEWELL and I started for the Point. It was on our way to the Point that I told GEORGE HOPEWELL that I had struck the man he saw me with, and bled him for all he was worth. I do not know why I told him, unless because I could not keep my guilty secret.

The murderer concludes by saying that the above is a full statement of his crime, and that he bears no enmity toward the witnesses, jurors or Sheriff, adding: "The sands of a brief existence have nearly run; my eyes are about closing forever upon the beauties of this lesser world, to open, I hope and trust and pray, upon the splendor of a better. I bid all a last farewell."

GEORGE TRUMAN.

TRUMAN was a dark mulatto, 21 years old, and a native of Frederick County.

Letter from Rev. H. W. Beecher.

The Charleston (S. C.) Courier publishes the following letter:

BROOKLYN, April 21, 1869.

* * * You ask me, or rather you tell me, about the story afloat in Charleston, that at my visit there in 1865, I seized, and made off with the records of St. Michael's Church. What on earth does any one suppose I wanted of church records? I am not an Episcopalian, nor a historian, nor a collector of old books. No, I never took, touched or saw the records of St. Michael's, or of any other Saint's Church. Nor did I commit sacrilege in removing any article of church property. I have no taste for relics, and least of all for stolen ones. I took nothing away from Charleston but a heavy heart—that a city of my own country should be so utterly desolated by war! Yes, there was one thing that I brought away, now that I bethink myself. An officer of a colored regiment brought to my house and presented to me an old family Bible, which had been saved from a burning house on some plantation in the country. I entered the facts, as narrated to me on the flyleaf, thinking that after peace came the family might, perhaps, be happy to regain this venerable old book (printed in 1679.) I copy the entry verbatim: "Davis' plantation, near the Middleton plantation, on Ashley River, twenty miles from Charleston, saved from burning by an old negro. Presented to H. W. BEECHER by Lieutenant HOLLAND N. BATCHELLER, Charleston, April 15, 1865.

If the family, or any member of it, desires the book, it would give me great pleasure to return it to them—none the worse, I trust, for a short sojourn at the North.

If any good will come of it, you may print any, or all of this—which I suppose, accounts for the story that I stole church records.

Truly yours, HENRY WARD BEECHER.

Stabbing Affray by Boys.

Last evening, LOUIS STEMLER, a boy 13 years of age, residing at No. 163 Attorney-street, was playing with AUGUSTA SPRINGER, residing in the same street, when he became angry from some trivial cause and stabbed her in the back with a pocket knife, making a severe but not dangerous wound. She was removed to her home close at hand, and the boy was immediately arrested and locked up in the Eleventh Precinct Station-house.

ALEXANDER COHEN was last evening in the store of G. BRUNS, No. 437 Pearl-street, and seeing a boy engaged in pilfering some candy, informed BRUNS, who immediately ejected him from the store. In the scuffle the boy used his pocket-knife, cutting BRUNS in the fleshy part of the thumb. The boy seeing the damage he had done, immediately fled and escaped arrest.

Further Comments on the Lairds' Letter—The Irish Church Question—Pardon of Fenians.

LONDON, Friday, May 28.

The Times, this morning, in reviewing the Messrs. LAIRDS' letter of defence, denies any negligence on the part of the Government in permitting the Alabama to sail. The writer deplores the insufficiency of the law, and considers the precedent most mischievous. The question of liability between states for the incompleteness of the law is a doubtful one.

The Daily News says it will want good assurances that the new American Minister, Mr. MOTLEY, is empowered to express the opinions of the President and the Senate, and certainly of their sanction of a new treaty.

The Tories throughout the country are organizing meetings to protest against the disestablishment of the Irish Church.

In the House of Commons this evening, the Irish Church bill being up, Mr. GLADSTONE said that there was no intention of abolishing the system of national education in Ireland, but that amendments might be introduced.

Right Hon. Mr. MONSELL, in reply to Mr. CHARLEY, said he thought an appropriation of a loan for the Intercolonial Railway to pay the debts of Canada would not be illegal, considering the precautions taken to render the same available when needed.

Still Another Attempt to Escape from Sing Sing.

POUGHKEEPSIE, Friday, May 28.

Another daring attempt was made to escape from Sing Sing Prison to-day. A convict, whose name was not ascertained, by some means unknown procured a suit of citizens' clothes, with the exception of pantaloons, and making a pair from his bed quilts, coolly walked by the main guard-house. One of the guard seeing him and suspecting all was not right, called on him to halt. The convict, instead of obeying him, started on a full run up a bank, when the alarm was given and a number of the guard started in pursuit, firing shots from their carbines and revolvers at the retreating prisoner, one of which passed through his hand. He was finally overtaken about a quarter of a mile from the prison and conveyed back to his quarters.

FREE RELIGION.

The Boston Convention—Opening Address of Rev. O. B. Frothingham, of New-York—Speeches of Dr. Etlanger, Ralph Waldo Emerson, Mrs. Julia Ward Howe, Colonel Higginson and Others.

BOSTON, Friday, May 28.

A largely-attended meeting of the Free Religious Association was held in Tremont Temple to-day. Rev. O. B. FROTHINGHAM opened the meeting with an address in which he stated the position which the society occupied before the public—having no creed to propagate, differing very much in their belief, but all seeking after the truth. He referred to similar movements in other places, referring particularly to Germany, where meetings were held every year, which in nearly all their details were similar to those held here, and the report of which, if written out, might answer for the report of a meeting here in Boston. He stated that the movement was calculated to inaugurate an era of the absolute supremacy of human reason in spiritual matters. He then referred to similar movements in Switzerland, and to the vast proportions of this movement, which was not composed of a small band making its way through a trackless wilderness. The purposes of this Society were peace, harmony and unity, and yet in the attitude of the churches the word unity meant warfare. Religion was organized division, and not organized unity. One object of the Association was the study of scientific theology—not of theology, for that was anything but scientific. God is not a definition; He is the soul of things, and in Him we live and move and have our being. It had been objected that they did not call themselves Theists, Deists, Christians or Anti-Christians. They were anti-nothing. They made war upon no religion; they made war only on error. All that the world needs is light. Let it be pure, let it be sweet, let it be steady, and the world will be created anew. They were gathered to show a few beams of that light.

Dr. ETLANGER, of New-York, editor of the Jewish Times, was introduced, and read a paper on the Jewish faith, making an earnest appeal for truth—the truth of one God and one humanity, having carried the race to which he belonged through persecution in triumph. Judaism knew no distinction between man and man, but recognized the God who manifested Himself through man. He quoted from the Talmud to show the spirit of liberalism which breathed. He referred to the Bible as the first book of the greater Bible which shall contain the universal history of man.

Rev. JESSE H. JONES, of New-York City, desired to speak of Jesus in an orthodox light—that same Jesus who was despised eighteen hundred years ago, and who had been again rejected to-day; that same Jesus who taught the new law of moral action, the law of life; who broke through the law of selfishness, which before his time was the corner-stone of human life; who taught that the more a man had the more was he bound to serve others instead of the now universal theory that the more you had the more were men bound to serve you. Christ had placed the golden age in the future; all other leaders of religion had placed their golden age in the past. The world was dying with selfishness, and the Christians were bearing the chalice of love to the lips of the dying—the elixir of eternal love. Jesus Christ was the Sherman, and they were marching under his command to the sea. They invited all to join them in the grand march.

Rev. FRANCIS E. ABBOTT said they wanted to offer a platform in which every one could speak his own personal convictions. It was in that spirit that he wished to speak. Protestant Christianity, he claimed, was a compromise between Roman Catholicism and free religion, and he had come here to-day to throw all compromise behind him, and to stand up for free religion.

RALPH WALDO EMERSON was received with great applause. He opened by saying that we might now relinquish our strife in the theological world. He stated that the Author of Nature had not left himself without a witness in every sane mind, and that the moral sentiment speaks to every man the law after which the universe was made; that we find identity of design throughout nature; that there is a force always at work to make the best better and the worst good. St. Augustine said that that which is now called Christianity originally existed among the ancients. He believed that Christianity was not only as old as the creation, but more—that a man's religious susceptibility can find the same idea in numberless conversations. The religious can find religion wherever they associate; where he finds narrow religion he also finds narrow reading. We are all believers in natural religion; we all agree that the health and integrity of man is self-respect. Wise men wish their religion to go alone, only humbly bowing themselves before the source of wisdom which they have discovered within themselves. GEORGE FOX said that he heard the words of Christ and God. He knew them only in his own soul. It is the principle of our own Testament that its teachings go to the honor and benefit of our humanity. Let it stand, but do not attempt to lift it out of humanity in a sound frame of mind. We read or remember the religious sayings of religious teachers only for friendship and the social identity which they open to us; but these words would have no weight with us if we had not the same convictions already. Zealots eagerly fasten their eyes upon the difference between their creed and yours, but the charm was to find the identity between the two. In conclusion, he expressed his pleasure at seeing so many men of different views here, and made the remark that it was no wonder that there was a Christ, but that there was not a thousand.

After the conclusion of the remarks of Mr. EMERSON, the Chairman read a letter from LUCRETIA MOTT, who is sick and unable to be present.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the afternoon services Colonel T. W. HIGGINSON read the report of the Executive Committee, and also letters from Dr. A. H. QUINT, of New-Bedford; Rev. PHILLIP BROOKS, of Philadelphia; Rev. WM. H. H. MURRAY, of Boston; Rev. LYMAN ABBOTT, of New-York; WM. E. PARKS, of Lawrence, and Professor DIAMOND, of Brown University, all of which expressed sympathy with the objects of the Association.

Mrs. JULIA WARD HOWE then read an essay on the subject "Freedom and Restraint in Religion." True religion had come at last. It was easy to vote ourselves free, but not to make ourselves free. In speaking of the Church she said that each sect detected a narrowness in every other sect, and each might well devise a broader and more liberal platform. Speculation contained but little real religion, and in her opinion controversy was the great obstacle to freedom. A great many considered Christianity to mean superstition, and the study of theology the confession of natural religion. Religion encompassed our entire natures and unlocked the whole moral and intellectual elements of man; while natural religion was active in the few and very uncommon. Indeed, she held that the Free Religious Association had at least a tendency to correct the religious errors of the different sects and opinions. The tendency of the inquiring spirit of the age was to free ideas, free types, and make them aspiring and independent. Mrs. HOWE'S essay was a very abstruse and deep effort.

Colonel A. D. HIGGINSON denied that free religion was negative in its character and ideas, but that the sects were that made the charge. After giving instances of the inefficiency of Christianity as practiced, he said that the difference in man's religion depended on the spirit in which he accepted the code of virtue. In regard to the high moral purpose of the Association, it was noticed that many of the persons composing the Association were among the leading reformers in the most successful reforms of the day, while their opponents were among those in the sects who had always stood in the way of true progress. Natural religion was good enough for the people to live by and die by; in short, it was the hope of the world.

Mrs. MARY GREW charged upon Christianity all the libels that had ever been uttered against true religion. She arraigned the Church of high ecclesiastical crimes and misdemeanors, and that it had crucified Christ a thousand times since he had been crucified by the Jews. When theologians can prepare anything better than the Sermon on the Mount they had better repudiate Christianity. She had heard of no better system of Christianity than that of Jesus of Nazareth. The world was asking for spiritual food besides the dry husks of theology.

Rev. Miss GIBSON discussed the necessity of a religion that would know no sects and would recognize woman as the equal of man.

Rev. Dr. BARTOL, of Boston, said that Christ became a mediator and the voice of a moral sentiment, merely that Christ did not come to preach Christianity but the truth; and that we would be most like him when we preached in the spirit in which he spoke.

Rev. Mr. CORVELL said that the Association was well on the way to reconciliation, because clergymen of various denominations who had spoken on the platform sought to make their religion practical. It grieved him to see the name of Christianity disgraced by religious sects. He wanted to see a true theology of nature, and thought if there ever was one need greater than another it was to withdraw the name of the Saviour from view and look to the inner sense for purity of spiritual life.

After a few remarks by Rev. M. T. BLACKWELL, of New-Jersey, the meeting, at 6 o'clock, adjourned until 7:30 o'clock this evening.

EVENING SESSION.

Upon the reassembling of the Convention, Rev. DAVID A. WASSON discussed whether the province of social science was identical with religion. Religion was an inherent sentiment, but social science, if it existed at all, was undefinable. After discussing the relation of consciousness to freedom, he said there never was a civilization but that originated in religion. Science cannot take the place of religion, and that which is radical in history is radical in man's nature. Science is the product and garb of civilization; religion its base and sustenance. The functions in State and society were also considered. The State takes no cognizance of character; it takes from philanthropy [to give [to the miser.

Rev. ROWLAND CONNER, of Boston, thought religion that finds expression in the Church of to-day was rapidly dying out, and in all the transactions of life it was being coolly bowed out of society. The decay was in consequence of the superstitions of the Church and a neglect to work for humanity. True religion is the dream that ennobles humanity.

LUCY STONE BLACKWELL believed that there was implanted in the soul of every man a still small voice—the voice of God—which if heeded would develop true religion. God never sent a soul out on its helpless journey without giving it a witness within itself and a consciousness that it would live for ever. The world's true teacher is the mother, and the essence of true religion is in every soul, and woman is, by divine right, the world's instructor. Release her from hopeless drudgery and place her in her true position, morally and intellectually, and true religion would be better developed.

JOHN WEISS was the next speaker. He said that love was the tap-root of pure religion. Social science had the great function before it of abolishing disease and tyranny, but it was powerless to save the soul.

Mrs. CORA HATCH TAPPAN said that the Church of the day was the rostrum, not the pulpit, and that sectarian creeds were rapidly melting away before the truths of natural religion. It was not a new religion, but a broad one. Science, life and society do not tell us that we have religion; for the great keystone of religion is only touched by master minds. The divine parentage of God constitutes our relation to him, and the father and mother constitute the true teachers of the world. Mrs. TAPPAN closed with a beautiful peroration, and at its close the gas was almost turned off, when HORATIO SEAVER, editor of the Investigator, essayed to make a few remarks. Loud cries were made for more light, and he proceeded briefly, after which the Convention dissolved.

THE SHAKERS.

Convention at Boston—Interesting Addresses—Explanation of the Shaker Belief.

BOSTON, Friday, May 28.

A Convention of Shakers, numbering about sixty delegates of both sexes, met in the Meionaon to-day. They represented the Communities of Mount Lebanon, of Watervleit, N. Y.; Harvard, of Shirley, Mass.; Hancock, of West Pittsfield, Mass.; Canterbury, at Enfield, and the Community at Fredericksburg, Mo. There was a large attendance of spectators. Presiding Elder FREDERICK W. EVANS, of Mount Lebanon, welcomed the brethren and spectators, and said that the meeting was for mutual consultation and investigation, and he hoped all would be profited.

Addresses, interspersed with singing, were made by Elder HENRY CUMMINGS, of Enfield, N. H.; Elder WM. LEONARD, of Harvard, Mass.; Sister HARRIET BULLARD, Brother ALBERT LOOMIS, of Watervleit; Sister PAULINE BATES, and other ladies of the sect. Elder LEONARD, in his remarks, considered that the Shakers occupied a different plane from the mass of Christians. The plane of life occupied by the others was well enough; but the Shakers deemed that the Christian Scriptures require an abandonment of the worldly and animal instincts and passions. He quoted two or three Scripture texts to prove that purity of life was the special thing required by Christ. They knew of no salvation upon other considerations than a pure and upright life.

Brother LOOMIS said the Shakers recognized the equality of all persons without distinction of race or sex. He announced that while they regarded marriage as a proper and honorable institution, it was not specially a Christain institution. It belonged to the order of Adam but not to the order of Christ, and as disciples of Christ, seeking to live the angel life now, they felt called upon to forbear entering upon matrimony. He thought that many of the practices of popular clergymen were not patterned after the unworldliness of Christ. He discussed the question of marriage as a Christian ordinance, and affirmed the Scripture was against it. The benediction of the ministers could not sanctify it if the Master did not by his example and injunctions. He argued in general that spirituality of life was the essential requirement of Christ's teaching.

Sister PAULINA BATES testified to the spiritual satisfaction which she had found in the life of a sister of the Shaker fraternity during a period of upward of forty years. The kindness of the brethren toward her and the other sisters, and their honorable and exemplary lives, she bore witness to, and expressed the belief that the Spirit of God had appointed that His children should walk in this way the Christian life.

The Convention will continue its session to-morrow.

THE NEW-ORLEANS CONVENTION.

The Last Day's Proceedings—Resolutions Regarding the Improvement of the Mississippi.

NEW-ORLEANS, Friday, May 28.

The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock. The meeting was delayed in consequence of many members having spent the early part of the day in visiting the grain elevator and ice manufactory. The following resolutions were offered by General VANDEVEER, of Iowa, seconded by Mr. J. T. TUCKER, of Louisiana, and adopted:

First—That the President of the Convention be requested to telegraph to the Secretary of War the request that the Government dredge-boat, the Essayous, now at work at Pass l'Outre, at the mouth of the Mississippi, which, in the opinion of the New-Orleans Chamber of Commerce, has already deepened the channel at said Pass from eleven to seventeen feet, as per report of the Committee to the Convention, be permitted to still remain at work at the mouth of the river to benefit the commerce of this whole valley by effectually deepening the channel on the bar at Pass l'Outre, and keeping it to the depth, and to convey to the Government the hearty thanks of this whole valley, represented by this Convention, for the aid extended to and the benefit rendered it by the work done so far, and to say that they believe that the necessities of the commerce of the whole West and South demand the continuance of the work by the Essayous and that the changes deemed necessary by the engineer in charge be made in her machinery.

Second—That this Convention most heartily appreciates the efforts made by the General Government during the past three years for the improvement of the Mississippi River, and that the thanks of this Convention are hereby tendered to the engineers in charge for their earnest efforts to this end.

Third—That the thanks of this Convention be tendered to the Central Committee on River Improvements of the St. Louis Convention for their earnest and successful efforts in this behalf.

The Committees of Foreign Commerce and Postal Subsidies, and Gulf Harbors, submitted lengthy and interesting reports with accompanying resolutions. The report of the Committee of Foreign Commerce and Postal Subsidies favored the creation of ports of entry at all the principal cities of the Mississippi River and tributaries, and such revenue regulations as will insure the prompt and speedy transmission of foreign imports received at New-Orleans, or any other outlet port, and consigned to the interior. It recommended that the canal at the falls of the Ohio be enlarged and completed by the National Government; that the National Government should confer upon the constituency of this Convention an equal share of the postage subsidies granted by Congress so as to establish lines of steamers between the outlet port of the Mississippi River and the principal commercial ports of Europe and America. The report also embodied a resolution that Congress be memorialized in the names and on behalf of the States interested, to make the necessary appropriation to complete the survey ordered by Congress in 1850, with a view to the ultimate construction of a ship canal across the peninsula of Florida. Also that the construction of a canal and other interoceanic ways of communication across the Isthmus of Central America, cannot but be regarded by the Convention as of great incidental importance to the commercial interests of their constituents.

The report of the Committee on Gulf Harbors urged immediate action for the improvement of the harbors of Mobile and Galveston.

The report of the Committee on Immigration, which was adopted, was quite lengthy and interesting.

A resolution was adopted that 3,000 copies of the proceedings of the Convention, with the reports of the Committees, be printed in pamphlet form, under the supervision of the New-Orleans Chamber of Commerce, for distribution among the constituencies represented.

In accordance with the resolutions, President FILLEY announced the members of the sub-Committee who are to continue the investigation of the subjects before them, and report to the Louisville Convention on Oct. 10.

Mr. RUDD, from the Kentucky delegation, presented an invitation to all the delegates of the present Convention to attend the Commercial Convention at Louisville in October.

A resolution of thanks of the officers of the Convention to the New-Orleans Chamber of Commerce, and the citizens of New-Orleans, for their liberal hospitalities, the various railroad and steamboat lines, and the Western Union Telegraph Company, for courtesies extended, was unanimously adopted.

The Chairman, Mr. FILLEY, made a brief speech of thanks on behalf of the Northwestern delegation, for the hospitable reception, and extending a cordial invitation to the Southern and Southwestern men to visit the West and Northwest.

The Convention then adjourned sine die, having been entirely harmonious and successful in its objects, and as to the character of its representatives, being composed entirely of the active members of the commercial, manufacturing, shipping and agricultural interests.

THE INTERNATIONAL RACES.

The Challenge of the London Rowing Club to the Harvards—An Open Offer—Generous Proposition of the Club.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

BOSTON, Saturday, May 29.

The following challenge has been received from the London Rowing Club, and we are sure that their kind offers of hospitality will be fully appreciated on this side of the water:

LONDON ROWING CLUB, PUTNEY, S. W.,
6th May, 1869, SURREY, England.

To the Captain of the Harvard University Boat Club:

SIR: As some members of your Club purpose visiting England this year, with the intention of rowing a match against the members of Oxford University, with the view of proving which country can produce the better oarsmen, the London Rowing Club consider that it might be prejudicial to your claim of championship of the world were you to return home as victors without having tried your strength against its members, as they at present hold the symbols of the most important matches in this Kingdom, viz.: Harley Grand Challenge Cup for eights, Stewards' Challenge Cup for fours, and Diamond Sculls, as well as the Metropolitan Champion eights, four pairs and sculls, and in addition the Wingfield Sculls, the amateur championship of the Thames. The London Rowing Club, at a general meeting held at Putney on the 1st of May, unanimously resolved that I should send your Club an open challenge from ours to row a match against the members of your University at any time you may think proper, and over any distance on the Metropolitan championship course, in eights, fours, pairs and sculls, or either, as may be most convenient to you. As you so far honor our country as to come so great a distance to promote international aquatic sport, we gladly leave all other conditions in your hands, trusting to you to fix equal and sportsmanlike terms. The London Rowing Club have much pleasure, whether or no you accept their challenge, in offering your crew the honorary membership of their Club, and the free use of their boats, boat-house and club-room, and any other services they can render which may make your stay more agreeable. Sincerely hoping that this challenge will be received in the spirit in which it is sent, viz., the promotion of aquatic sport and of good feeling between our two countries, I await the honor of your reply and remain, yours faithfully,

T. S. GULSTON, Captain L. R. C.

The Virginia Colored State Convention—Resolutions Adopted.

RICHMOND, Va., Friday, May 28.

The Colored State Convention adjourned to-day after adopting a series of resolutions requesting General CANBY to give colored men representation upon the benches of the Courts; urging Republican voters to vote for the Constitution framed by the late Convention; pledging the Convention to support the Wells ticket; thanking the people of the North for their benevolence in furnishing means for the education of colored children in the South, and hailing the appointment of General CANBY with joy.

Dr. HARRIS, the colored candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, addressed the body, and expressed his suspicion that some of the white Republican voters intended striking his name from the ticket on account of his color.

Kentucky Politics—Proceedings of the Republican State Convention.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Friday, May 28.

The Courier's special dispatch from Lexington says: The Republican State Convention met yesterday, and nominated E. RUMSEY WING for State Treasurer. The resolutions regard the inaugural message of President GRANT as wise and sound, and pledge the party support to him; they also recommend the speedy ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment as conducive to the welfare of the country; they advocate the payment of the national debt and the recognition of the claims of the colored population to the right of testifying in all cases upon the same footing with the whites.

Heavy Storm at Wheeling, West Va.

WHEELING, West Va., Friday, May 28.

About 3 o'clock this afternoon the most terrific rain and hail storm ever known in this vicinity passed over this city, lasting about twenty minutes. The hail-stones were as large as eggs, and some were as large as a man's fist. The number of panes of glass broken are estimated by thousands. The losses of two hotels alone amount to $2,000. The vineyards on the island and the hills surrounding the city are greatly injured, and the fruit and shade trees are torn up by the roots or completely stripped of their foliage. The iron roof of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Depot was blown off. Many accidents are reported but no lives were lost. The belt of the storm did not extend more than a mile above the city. The loss is variously estimated from $20,000 to $50,000.

Small-pox at Quarantine at San Francisco—Destruction of the Village of Georgetown—Loss of Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, Friday, May 28.

The French gunboat Samoethe Piquet has gone into quarantine, two of her officers having been taken sick with small-pox soon after the ship left Panama. No one else contracted the disease. The men were convalescent, and removed to the small-pox hospital in this City.

The appointment of HENRY A. PIERCE Minister Resident to Honolulu, is regarded with satisfaction by the Americans here having interests with the Sandwich Islands.

Georgetown, Cal., was nearly destroyed by fire to-day, and many lives were lost.

Murder of Buffalo Hunters by Indians.

MANHATTAN, Kansas, Friday, May 28.

News from Shirley, Cloud County, says four men, out of a party of six buffalo hunters, were killed by the Indians on Monday, near White Rock, twenty-four miles west of Shirley.

THE "REFORM LEAGUE" AND ITS PRINCIPLES.

Boston Meeting—Revenue the Policy of the Government—The Protective Tariff Produces Most Revenue—Moonshine Resolutions—The West Sets up for Itself.

THE BEECHES, Friday, May 21, 1869.

Some friend has been kind enough to send me the Boston Journal, with the proceedings and principles of the Reform League. I am very much obliged to him for this document, that I may know exactly what they mean and what they propose. It is not probable that I shall help them, or that I shall belong to their party. I love freedom, but I love my country more than I love any one element of administration. I am an American and not a Briton nor a Frenchman. I don't take my ideas from British writers, nor do I think that the school of European economists is equal to that of our own American statesmen. It is not from ignorance I say this, for, without improper egotism, I say that the schools of European economy and the history of American statesmanship are known to me. I prefer the doctrines of HAMILTON, of JACKSON, of CLAY, and of LINCOLN, to those of any British writer whatever. JOHN BRIGHT is a very good thinker, and WM. E. GLADSTONE an accomplished political mountebank; but I don't agree with those gentlemen, and am not likely to agree any better with them on account of free-trade meetings in Boston and New-York. Well, since we are to separate, I wish to give the reasons which induce that separation. They are few and simple.

1. With a debt of two thousand five hundred millions of dollars, I hold that in reference to the laying of a tariff, the first duty and policy of the Government is to get the largest revenue possible from the Customs tax. Now we have a wide and long experience of how different kinds of tariffs operate. The Democratic Party, on coming into power in 1844, proceeded to lay a horizontal tariff, and the country was apparently prosperous under it, and the shipping interest especially prospered immensely; but the iron and the wool regions did not prosper, and after a few years of this hot-bed culture, the merchants of the country were brought up with the commercial convulsions of 1854 and 1857. Soon after that, the tariff was raised something and the system of discriminations recommenced. Now, what was the actual result of these two systems on the revenue?—for by that test I propose first to try them. Take the following table:

| | Importations. | Customs. |
|---|---|---|
| In 1856 | $314,639,942 | $64,022,863 |
| In 1857 | 360,890,149 | 63,875,905 |

Thus we have an average of $64,000,000 collected on $330,000,000 of imports, in which a great many articles are admitted free, and the average on the residue about 19 per cent. Now take this table:

| | Importations. | Revenue. |
|---|---|---|
| In 1867 | $411,733,309 | $176,417,810 |
| In 1868 | 373,409,448 | 164,464,599 |

Now here is $170,000,000 per annum collected on $392,000,000, or an average of 44 per cent. Now, mark and inwardly digest! The imports of the country, under what these gentlemen are pleased to call a prohibitory tariff, have increased $62,000,000 per annum. The rate per cent. of the tariff has increased 125 per cent., and the rate of the revenue collected has increased about 162 per cent. Imports have increased; revenue has increased in a larger proportion than has the tariff! Can you tell me what better result you can hope for or desire? Is that a prohibitory tariff? Did the horizontal tariff produce more revenue than the protective one—if it be protective? Don't the people of this country at this time want the greatest revenue possible? Don't they want it raised in the easiest manner? Well, will a horizontal tariff raise more revenue, or can it be raised easier by a direct tax on lands?

2. But these Reform Leagues profess to want revenue and want manufactures, but they profess unutterable detestation of protection. What is protection? The only protection given is by a discrimination in the duties on different articles. There is no alternative to this but a horizontal tariff, and I think the facts I have given above show that a horizontal tariff will not raise as much revenue as a discriminating one. But, whether it does or not, I am in favor of discrimination on all articles by which aid and comfort can be given to American manufactures. Why not? Let me tell these gentlemen that Government exists for no purpose but protection of our rights, interests and principles. That is the sole object of its existence. Does it not protect the inventor by patent rights? the author by copyrights? the citizen against foreign attacks or domestic rebellion? Rev. HENRY WARD BEECHER lately wrote a novel; didn't he get a copyright for it? What right has his publisher to be protected against any other publisher? And how beautiful a gentleman looks, who has just got a copyright for a book, in presiding over a free-trade meeting! Gentlemen, I am for protecting, aiding and comforting every American manufacturer in his interests quite as much as I am for protecting authors and inventors.

But I wish to give a sample of these gentlemen's ideas of truth and justice in their own words. Let them speak for themselves. They begin a set of resolutions thus:

> "That every man is entitled to the results of his own labor, and to exchange the same at pleasure, wherever he can do so to the best advantage.
> That all interference of Government by which he is made to receive for his efforts a less quantity of the objects of his desire than he might otherwise obtain, is an infringement of natural rights, to be justified only by a clear public necessity."

Now let me say to the writer of that, and the Boston meeting, that unless they mean to repudiate all taxes, city, State or national, the above paragraph is perfect and absolute nonsense. It applies to one tax just as much as another. Don't the State of Ohio, when it taxes my farm $100, make me get "a less quantity of the objects of my desire" by just so much? The principle thus laid down, if true at all, is simply a denial of all right of taxation, and it is exactly to that end that their doctrine tends. I said before, and I say again, that every movement of all these reform parties tends, if they do not mean it, toward repudiation.

"Every man is entitled to the results of his own labor!" Do you know a man, woman or child in these United States who can't get the results of their own labor? Do you know any act of the National or State Governments which interferes with any man's labor? I confess I do not know a single instance of such interference. I make a suggestion to the free-trade, revenue, horizontal tariff people (it is the same old cat under any name,) that if we are to discuss the revenue, free-trade questions in future, that it would be just as well to get rid of this Sophomore style. We mean neither to be humbugged, nor permit others to be humbugged; nor do I believe that the American people, in this day of public schools, can be humbugged in any such way.

I said that, call this Reform League by what name they would, it was the same old cat under the meal! Hear Mr. ESTES HOWES, President of the meeting:

> "Let us by the clear logic of facts show them that the most extensive and thorough system of free trade in the world is that which prevails between the States of this Union, and perhaps they may gradually come to consider that there is no good reason why free trade with Vermont or Maine is a benefit that does not equally apply to free trade with Canada or New-Brunswick."

Free trade, then, is the object; and, while the cry of Boston to-day may be a reciprocity treaty with British America, to-morrow it will be free trade with all nations. I read the speeches made and, throughout, it is the cry of Boston; but I say that, in all fairness, Boston has as much right to be considered, and legislated for, as Cincinnati or St. Louis. But, does Boston want the duties taken off from cottons and woolens? The tariffs of 1828, 1832 and 1842 built up fortunes all over New-England, and gave Boston all the prosperity she has had in thirty years. Lowell, Lawrence, Nashua, Manchester, and similar places, are the feeders of Boston, and are they prepared to say they want no duties on cottons and woolens? Now, let us understand one another. If you take off the duties from iron, coal and wool, which are the direct interests of Pennsylvania, New-Jersey and Ohio, then I tell you we will take off the duties on cottons and woolens, and fight it out on that line. But nothing of the sort is possible; for the whole West and South are now interested in manufactures. We are bridging the Ohio, at various points, and are going to unite the whole Valley of the Mississippi and the Southern Atlantic with the most magnificent system of railroads. It is our interest to raise up American manufactures, and to protect them when necessary. And, you may rely upon it, it will be done. The gentlemen in Cincinnati, who make about three dozen all counted; the gentlemen in Boston, who make a few dozen more, and the German Infidels, who make a few thousand, will ring the changes, no doubt, on repudiation, free trade and free lager; but they have waked up the wrong passenger, and they will have to walk up a long hill before they arrive at the height of their ambition.

A VETERAN OBSERVER.

MAGAZINES.

—Lippincott's brings this month a thoroughly good table of contents. It seems to be getting hold of writers of the right stamp, and does not make the impression of provincialism which, despite its neat typography and workmanlike construction, was certainly its earlier character. Mr. OWEN'S "Beyond the Breakers" opens the number, being embellished with a rather stiffly drawn but brilliantly engraved illustration. Two new versions of the great "Dies Iræ," the former the better of the two, simply add in numbers, we think, not in new suggestions, to the many already in existence. That grand old hymn has yet to be adequately put into English—if, indeed, it ever can be. "The Englishman on the Continent," by GEO. M. TOWLE, is severe but enjoyable. It is, perhaps, too comically good a portrait to be a timely one just now, when everything tends to mutual exasperation between us and "our transatlantic cousins," but it is too capital to be ignored. "Our Possession," by Mrs. ANNIE S. DOWNS, is a delicious little bit of pre-Raphaelite painting—having the beautiful fidelity without the livid unnaturalness of that school of art; nothing but the description of a piece of swamp—but don't fail to read it. "Harneyhow's Hummock" is a strong story by Mrs. AUSTIN. HUGH DAVIDS says much worth pondering "On Expression in Architecture." Mrs. ELLET tells the romantic tale of DEBORAH SAMSON, the Revolutionary heroine. WALTER WELLS concludes his admirable paper "On Using Strength with Economy." There are quite a number of other good articles which we have no space to mention. But we must congratulate Lippincott's at having found some rather more poetical poetry than it has had. HOWARD GLYNDON'S verses, called "The New World Exile in Italy," breathe the very langour and odorous air of that delicious clime; though even these might have been curtailed with advantage.

—The Catholic World is good, in its matter for June, but not quite up to its usual mark. "Spiritism and Spirits" ascribes Planchette et id omne genus to the agency of His Satanic Majesty & Co. A readable article on "Good Old Saxon" and its use in English literature, two articles apropos of Spain, talk about "The Approaching Council of the Vatican," a paper on "The Philosophy of Immigration," a labored array of authorities showing the probability of the Apostle Peter's having been "First Bishop of Rome," a chat about "Roses," one or two interesting translations, a few tales and some little poems, form, with the Literary Notices, the table of contents.

—Our Young Folks. The conductors of this excellent juvenile magazine have been very fortunate in their serial stories. "Afloat in a Forest," "Cast Away in the Cold," "A Summer in Leslie Goldthwaite's Life," were deservedly popular among young readers; and "The Romance of a Bad Boy," by T. B. ALDRICH, which will occupy the opening pages of the magazine during the present year, bids fair to surpass them all in youthful interest. No boy can read unmoved the story of the assault and defence of the snow fort on Slatter's Hill, given in the present number. Besides the romance, there is "Laurence at a Coal Shaft," with illustrations, chapter V. of "Gardening for Girls," the second part of the illustrated article on "Candy-making," "The Last Voyage of René Ménard," an amusing account of some tame crows, &c., &c.

—The Eclectic Magazine offers its well-selected compendium of foreign literature, science and art with a large variety this month. The most notable articles are Professor HUXLEY'S now well-known paper on "The Physical Basis of Life," a review of Professor TYNDALL'S "Lectures on Sound," an article from Blackwood on "The Northman, Heathen and Christian," and one on "Physical Education"—one of the topics of the day—from Macmillan. Besides, there are stories, poetry, miscellaneous and social essays, literary talk and all the many elements that go to make up a real wide-awake magazine.

—The Riverside Magazine for June is full of interesting stories and poems and articles on subjects that have an interest for young readers. The number opens with the first chapters of a serial story, called "First School Days of a Little Quaker." Then comes the story of JOAN of Arc, which never seems to grow too old for readers of any age, illustrated with wood-cuts. There is also a pretty sketch by HANS ANDERSEN, the peerless writer for children, called "The Comet," with a pretty illustration by Miss MARY L. STONE. These are the principal articles in the number, but little readers will find none of the pages dull.

—Onward for June contains its accustomed store of stories, two of them illustrated with full-page engravings. The specialty of this number is the commencement of the treatise on the fascinating game of Croquet—a topic with which the writer shows familiarity and a pleasant skill in putting his knowledge into readable shape. No more attractive feature for the Summer months could be found, if the essayist can keep up the chirrupy interesting style of the first chapters. It will not do to go at Croquet in the style of the ordinary "Chess Department."

—The Workshop, a beautiful monthly journal, devoted to progress of the useful arts, appears with its elegant letter-press treating of various topics within its proper scope, and its ten or twelve large pages of the finest wood-cut illustrative plates, giving models and working plans of many kinds, and fully sustains its high character. To the skilled workman or designer in industrial art it must be an invaluable resource.

—Demorest's Illustrated Monthly appears in all the gorgeous pomp of fashion plates and with all the endless circumstance of stylish suggestion in matters of the feminine toilet. Besides, it gives many pages of stories, poems and general talk about everything current.

American Association for the Advancement of Science.

From the Boston Transcript, May 27.

The American Association for the Advancement of Science will hold its eighteenth meeting at Salem in August next, beginning on Wednesday, the 18th. On the afternoon of the first day of the meeting the association will be invited to participate in the dedication of the Museum of the Peabody Academy of Science, followed by a levee in the evening. In making arrangements for this meeting the Local Committee, in order to give encouragement to the general and increasing interest in the use of the microscope, have decided to furnish rooms for the display and comparison of microscopes, objectives, accessory apparatus of all kinds, test objects and objects of scientific and popular interest. It is intended to have as complete a collection as possible of instruments of both American and foreign manufacture. Those who are possessed of microscope stands, objectives, or accessory apparatus in any way remarkable for excellence of performance or design, are requested to bring them to the meeting. The objects of this exhibition will be to assist the progress of scientific research by social intercourse and a full comparison and discussion of whatever is new and important in microscopical investigation, and to encourage the manufacture and use of this valuable instrument.

Reception at the Five Points House of Industry—Proposed Enlargement of the House.

The reception of the Five Points House of Industry was continued yesterday afternoon. Quite a number of the clergy of the Presbyterian Church were present. The children, about 300 of whom were on the platform, went through a variety of interesting exercises, the singing of the A B C roundelay by 26 little girls, each representing a letter of the alphabet, "Crooked Amperzand" being represented by a little boy, and a system of calisthenics, the various movements of which were made to music. The children showed considerable proficiency in geography, and answered the questions in mental arithmetic with considerable precision. A class of adult Chinese—two men and a woman—were then introduced. They have been under the instruction of Mr. and Mrs. RAILSBACK for some time, and have now learned to read and recite with a tolerably good accent. The woman, having more time for study, probably, showed herself to be much more proficient than her companions. About fifty Chinese attend the evening school at the House of Industry, and are said to be apt and willing students, having a great desire to be able to read and comprehend the Bible. The pronunciation of the English language they find to be very difficult.

After the exercises had concluded Mr. HALLIDAY, the Superintendent, said that the trustees had lately received donations amounting to $20,000 with which it is intended to enlarge and improve the institution. A chapel will be opened on the ground floor, with an entrance from the street, and will be used for general mission purposes. The school-room will be enlarged, and dormitories constructed above it. On the top of the building will be an inclosed play-ground for the children. Mr. HALLIDAY also spoke of the efforts being made to educate the Chinese in this City. He considered this a most important movement, for the time is coming when a great influx of these foreigners may be expected, and it is greatly to be desired that they should be met by a number of their instructed and Christianized countrymen. Mr. HALLIDAY invited the public generally to attend the Sunday services at the House, which commence at 3 P. M.

ARE THE POLICE BRUTAL?

A Famous Case Before the Police Commissioners—Daley vs. Policemen Taylor and Burford—Reflections by the Commissioner on the "Sun that Shines for All, Price Two Cents."

At trials of policemen yesterday, before Commissioner MANIERRE, the complaint of most interest was that against Roundsman JOHN J. TAYLOR and Patrolman WILLIAM BURFORD, each of the Fourth Precinct, who were charged with clubbing DENNIS DALEY on St. Patrick's Day. The complaint was made immediately after the occurrence, but as DALEY'S term on the Island, to which he had been sentenced for what he did at the time of his arrest, did not expire until the 20th of May, the case was necessarily adjourned to receive his testimony. It was supposed that Messrs. W. H. HOTCHKISS, JOHN WILLIAMS and THOS. W. KNOX, connected with the Sun newspaper, would be the principal witnesses for the prosecution, but they did not appear.

Mr. Dennis Daley, residing at No. 17 James-street, Brooklyn, deposed that he came to New-York on St. Patrick's Day to see the procession; it was at the Park gate, opposite Frankfort-street, and Officer Burford kept punching him with the end of his club and ordered him to keep back, but he could not get back any further on account of the crowd; the officer gave him a shove and witness' hat fell off; witness went to pick up his hat, when the officer hit him in the head with his club, knocking him down; then witness caught the club and hit the officer with it; four or five officers came and beat witness.

On cross-examination, witness said he could only remember of one officer hitting him; that was Taylor; was not sober at the time, but could recollect what occurred; Burford helped hold him down in the cart and choked him; one of the officers put his finger in witness' mouth; if witness could have caught hold of it, would have bit it off. Attention was called to scars on the forehead of witness. He said he did not receive them on this occasion, but in a fight he had with policemen at a picnic at Leffert's Park, last Summer.

Mr. Robert D. Holmes deposed that he was in the Dispatch office at the time, about one P. M., and on looking out saw, at a little distance up Frankfort-street, Officer Burford bleeding profusely; his club had been taken from him; women were inciting the men in the crowd, crying, "Kill the bloody Peelers," as fast as the officers overpowered Daley, parties would rush in and rescue him from the Police; after the officers had succeeded in getting Daley in the cart he had still strength left to throw the officer out; had the officers not acted with firmness, had they wavered, there would have been a riot.

Mr. Mark Wilkes deposed that he was also looking from the Dispatch office window, and saw a terrible row; the prisoner and Officer Burford were on the ground; they raised the prisoner, and no sooner had he reached the bottom of the cart than he struggled with tremendous desperation, caught the officer and threw him from the cart; never witnessed such an exhibition of strength; it was at the time and continued to be the conviction of witness that no more force was used on the part of the officers than was absolutely necessary; thought they were very forbearing indeed.

Mr. Robert Patterson, an old and well-known resident of the Ninth Ward, who saw the occurrence, deposed: I could not help but admire, at first, the forbearance of the Police; but when I saw the tremendous struggle of the parties resisting the officers, I began to change my views considerably; I was surprised that they forebore so long; the crowd was surging this way and that, and the cart was backed up twice before they got the prisoner into it; I saw the policeman fall to one side, the prisoner at the same time having both his hands in the officer's hair, and attempting, two or three times, to bite him; I said, "Why don't you use your clubs?" with that, some one, I don't know who, struck him.

Q.—Do you think that blow was necessary? A.—I should have given it long before.

Q.—Do you think the officers used more violence than necessary? A.—No, Sir; I do not think they used enough; I saw him strike the officer two or three times; I think the prisoner must be gamey, particularly when he has got plenty in.

Patrolman Orevilling deposed that he saw Daley strike Burford; witness wrenched the club out of Daley's hand.

Mr. John Riley deposed that he saw Daley take his club from the officer and strike him; the blood was streaming down over the officer; witness was going to the bank with money at the time, and, being in a hurry, did not stop to see anything further.

Mr. Lewis Ferris, residing at No. 82 Tillery-street, Brooklyn, deposed that he saw the transaction from first to last; Daley was under the influence of liquor, and first tried to raise a muss on the opposite side of the street; afterward Daley was in front of the crowd; the officer requested him to keep back, and finally was obliged to push him back; was certain he did not push him with the end of his club, but with the side; while the officer was pushing Daley the latter snatched the club and struck the officer; was positive the first blow was struck by Daley.

Captain Leich and Patrolman Spellman, of the Forty-ninth (Brooklyn) Precinct, deposed that Daley hit and kicked officers when arrested on last Fourth of July. He was then sentenced to the Penitentiary. The testimony all concurred as to the ferocity and almost superhuman strength of complainant, and it was deemed unnecessary to take the testimony of Captain Jacobs and others, who were ready to be sworn on that point.

Dr. Morris Frankel deposed that he saw the prisoner at the Station-house; examined and dressed his wound; it was a slight scalp wound; Officer Burford's wound was twice as large, and far more serious; he was much worse beaten than the prisoner.

Commissioner MANIERRE, turning to Commissioner SMITH said, "What shall we do with this case?" Mr. SMITH replied, "I should be in favor of sending DALEY up for thirty years if we had the disposition of him."

Captain THORNE deposed that he made the complaint on account of an article that appeared in the Sun newspaper on the 18th of March, charging brutality on the part of his officers toward DALEY on this occasion. He sent for a surgeon, and on the evening of the same day of the occurrence invited the Sun reporter to accompany the surgeon and examine the prisoner, who was in the cell. "The reporter," continued witness, "said he was very sorry for the result of the examination, as it had spoiled a very good article for the next morning's paper." But it appeared that it did not spoil it from what I read in the columns of the Sun the next day.

Mr. MANIERRE said he was sorry the gentlemen connected with the Sun had failed to appear. The Sun at the time took a great deal of interest in the case, and manifested a great deal of sympathy for DALEY. Some of the most respectable citizens who saw the affair justified the officers in every respect. He trusted the department would be sustained by the Press when it was proved, as in this case, that it was clearly in the right. The case was referred to the Board.

SUSPICIOUS CASE OF DEATH.

Sudden Death of Mrs. Ann D. Clark—The Body to be Exhumed for Examination—Foul Play Charged.

Mrs. MARY ANN DORR CLARK died in a very sudden manner on the 21st inst. at her residence, No. 344 West Fifty-first-street. Dr. H. THATCHER SEARS, of No. 257 West Fifty-second-street, was called in to attend the deceased in her last hours, and after her death he gave a certificate, in which he stated that death had resulted from acute meningitis. The certificate also stated that a post-mortem examination had been held over the remains, when meninges of the brain was discovered with congestion, and that a few spots of lymph were visible. The Board of Health granted a permit for burial on this certificate, and the remains of the woman were duly interred in Green-Wood Cemetery. Yesterday Dr. HARRIS, Sanitary Superintendent for the Board of Health, notified Coroner FLYNN that a sister of Mrs. CLARK had applied to him for assistance in the matter, that she had stated that she had good and sufficient cause for suspecting that her sister's death had been produced by poison administered by certain persons who are interested in the distribution of property left by the deceased. The case as stated by this sister is rather mysterious; but as Dr. HARRIS has expressed a belief that the statement had some foundation in truth, the Coroner will, under the permission and suggestion of the Board of Health, proceed to exhume the remains, in order that a searching examination and analysis of the internal organs may be speedily had. Deputy Coroner SHINE proceeded yesterday to the cemetery and superintended the removal of the remains, and will report progress in the case to-day.

Velocipede Matters—Testimonial to Frank Rivers.

Mr. FRANK RIVERS, the popular manager of the Jersey City Velocipedrome, will be the recipient of a complimentary testimonial this evening. Mr. RIVERS, with commendable enterprise, has renovated his riding hall within a few days. The central position of the floor, which has been heretofore devoted to parlor skating, has been removed, and the entire surface will hereafter be devoted to velocipede riding. New machines have also been procured, and other improvements made which will add to the comfort of those patronizing the Velocipedrome. The entertainment offered this evening is the most varied and attractive yet put forth, and should insure Mr. RIVERS a crowded house.

SAD CASE OF HEARTLESSNESS.

Cruel Desertion of a Mother by Her Only Daughter—An Incredible Story.

On Thursday evening Officer DUNN, of the Twenty-sixth Precinct Police, discovered an old and insane woman named C. A. SEAMAN, wandering aimlessly about the streets. The officer took the unfortunate woman in charge, and escorted her before Inspector JAMESON at Police Headquarters. The Inspector ascertaining that Mrs. SEAMAN had a daughter residing on Washington Heights, telegraphed to the Thirty-second Precinct Police orders to inform the daughter that her helpless and insane mother had come into the hands of the Police. The Police of the Thirty-second Precinct imparted the information transmitted, and yesterday morning forwarded the following dispatch to Police Headquarters:

"Mrs. SEAMAN'S daughter says send her mother to the Island."

Mr. KENNEDY becoming naturally much indignant at such a request from the daughter of an insane woman, immediately sent the following reply:

"If the relatives do not attend to the case of Mrs. SEAMAN, and have her taken in charge, respectably, we can do nothing else than to have her disposed of as a vagrant. They had better come over at once, and attend to the case."

An hour or so after this dispatch had been sent over the wires, Captain WILSON forwarded the following answer:

"They say they do not want anything to do with her. Send her anywhere so she won't trouble them. This is from her only daughter."

The Police having no other alternative will reluctantly send the unfortunate lady to the Tombs Police Court to-day, before Justice DOWLING, who will, at their request, commit her to the care of the Commissioners of Charities and Correction. The case is one of the saddest that has come under the notice of the Police for some time, and presents a shocking instance of cruel treatment of a helpless parent by her unnatural and unfeeling offspring.

Sunday School Missionary Union.

The fifty-third anniversary of the 140 different Sunday Schools of the New-York Sunday School Missionary Union took place yesterday. Among the celebrations was that of the school comprised by the New-York Juvenile Asylum, on the corner of Tenth-avenue and One Hundred and Seventy-sixth-street. The 445 boys and 80 girls were ranged in order in the main school-room, at 3 o'clock, and the exercises began with a hymn, a reading of the Scriptures and a prayer. Addresses were subsequently delivered by Rev. B. W. CHIDLAW, of the Lancaster Reform School, Ohio; Rev. Dr. LUDLOW, Rev. J. B. DAVIS, Mr. GEO. J. MINGINS and Rev. R. J. THORNE. These were interspersed with singing, and were admirably calculated for the entertainment of young persons. Mr. THORNE was pathetic, and affected many to tears. He spoke of President LINCOLN and of a speech made by him before the Five Points Mission, in which he showed a great power of adapting himself to his youthful hearers. He then pointed to a framed extract of a letter from Mr. LINCOLN, saying, "Tell the boys of the New-York Juvenile Asylum that they must follow truth, justice and humanity, if they wish to become useful and honorable men." Mr. CHIDLAW recited amusing anecdotes of his boyhood in the wilds of the West, where he once gave four pounds of butter for a spelling-book. Mr. MINGINS was bucolic. He liked to come into the country, where the flowers laughed, where the girls were all plump and rosy, and where the feather beds tickled the ribs. Mr. A. R. WETMORE, President of the Society, addressed the assemblage briefly, and the proceedings closed.

Among the pieces sung were a few by two members of the HUTCHINSON family. The institution is now in its seventeenth year, and has a branch in Thirteenth-street, near Sixth-avenue. It is intended for the reformation of truant children, and those unmanageable at home, whose parents may have applied for their admission. Dr. J. D. BROOKS is the Superintendent. Parents who can afford to pay for their children's support are charged $10 a month, but only about $2,500 a year is received from that source. The last annual report shows an expenditure of $98,369 63 during the past year, or $140 for each child, comprising all charges for food, teaching and clothing, without reckoning interest on the cost of the buildings. The institution has an agency in Chicago, where the inmates are sent after an average of five months' probation, and from there transferred to families in the West.

The Fisher-Bevins Case—Sudden Collapse of a Serious Charge.

A great concourse of people assembled yesterday afternoon at the Essex Market Police Court, whither they had been attracted by the announcement that the examination in the case of Miss KATE FISHER, the actress charged with larceny by Mrs. ELIZA J. BEVINS, would take place before Justice SHANDLEY. Complainant and prisoner were each attended by counsel, and by a retinue of such earnest friends that the proceedings of the day promised to escape the reproach of dullness. The gathering was so large, and the session seeming to give promise to be protracted, the examination room up stairs was dusted out and made ready for use, whereupon the crowd rushed eagerly up stairs to witness the expected sport.

When order was at last restored, the counsel for the accused called the complainant to the stand for cross-examination. The second question asked her, which related to her identity, she refused to answer, and Justice SHANDLEY thereupon dismissed the charge against Miss FISHER, who was thereupon discharged from custody. The disappointed crowd was soon gone, and the wonted quiet reigned again in the Court room.

Coroners' Cases.

The body of an unknown man, aged 40, five feet nine inches in height, was found yesterday in the North River, near Pier No. 27. The remains were taken to the Morgue for identification and inquest.

Mention was made in yesterday's TIMES of the explosion of a kerosene oil lamp at Fifty-sixth-street and Fifth-avenue, on Thursday evening, when Mrs. BLAUM and her three children were terribly burned. The Coroners were yesterday notified of the death of Mrs. FRANIKER BLAUM and her daughter CLARA, aged 3 years, at St. Luke's Hospital. The messenger also informed the Coroners that the husband and father of the deceased was in the habit of retailing adulterated kerosene oil to his neighbors. Coroner SCHIRMER will hold the necessary inquest. The other two children are not expected to live.

Coroner KEENAN held an inquest yesterday at No. 237 East Thirty-seventh-street over the remains of FREDERIKA KEHN, a German woman, whose sudden death was found to have resulted from consumption.

The body of an unknown woman was found in the water yesterday, Bedloe's Island, in a state of advanced decomposition.

Daring Attempt to Rob an Office Safe.

As officers ACKERMAN and MARCHAY, of the Twenty-third Precinct Police, were patrolling their posts at 3 o'clock yesterday morning, they discovered that a gang of burglars had made a felonious entrance to the office of H. G. SILLICK, coal dealer at the corner of Third-avenue and Seventh-ninth street. On making an investigation of the premises, the officers discovered that the thieves had left behind them two large jimmies, a sledge hammer, a cold chisel and a few other tools. The burglars must have remained undisturbed in the office for some time, as they had made a strenous but unsuccessful attempt to force open the safe, and they had seemingly abandoned the effort on the approach of the Police. Mr. SELLICK'S safe only contained $100 in money, but it is supposed that the thieves were aware that he had a few days ago sold some real estate and received therefor several thousand dollars, which they supposed to have been placed in the safe.

Fatal Kerosene Lamp Explosion.

On Thursday night a kerosene lamp in the house No. 139 Meadow-street, Hoboken, exploded, burning to death a boy, and severely injuring several others. The explosion took place in the room occupied by MICHAEL HALSE, in which, at the time, there were three persons, MICHAEL, AMELIA and GUSTAVE HALSE. AMELIA was fatally burned, having died shortly afterward, and the two others were so severely injured that they had to be removed to the hospital.

LAW REPORTS.

UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

THE CASE OF THE SIREN—MR. JUSTICE NELSON'S DISSENT—THE GOVERNMENT NOT LIABLE FOR THE TORTIOUS ACTS OF ITS AGENTS OR OFFICERS, HENCE THE PRIZE WAS SUBJECTED TO NO LIEN BY THE COLLISION.

The Steamer Siren and Cargo and the Union Horse-Shoe Company vs. the United States, and the Steamer Siren and Cargo, &c., Henry S. Racket et al. vs. The United States. Appeal from the District Court for the District of Massachusetts. Mr. Justice NELSON dissenting.

I am unable to concur in the opinion just delivered. The steamer Siren having been captured by the United States steamship Gladiolus, a Government vessel of war, jure belli, became the property of the United States, subject only to the right of the claimant to have the question of the legality of the capture determined by the Prize Court to which it was sent for condemnation. Captures made by Government vessels belong to the Government, and no title exists in the captors, except to their distributive shares of the proceeds after condemnation. (10 Whea., 306; the Augsburgh Bl. P. C., 635; 8 Cr., 226.) I agree that the Siren, while on her way, after capture, under the charge of the prize-master, was in fault in the collision with the sloop Harper, on her passage from the East River into the Sound, and that, if she had belonged to a private owner, she would have been liable, in the Admiralty, for all the damages consequent upon this fault. Nor do I make any question as to a lien for the damages against the vessel in such a case, and which may be enforced by a proceeding in rem.; or may be by a petition to the Court against the proceeds in the registry, if, for any cause, the offending vessel has been sold, and no prior lien exists against these proceeds. But if the owner of the offending vessel is not liable at all for the collision, it follows, as a necessary legal consequence, that there can be no lien—otherwise the non-liability would amount to nothing. It would be idle to say that the owner was not liable for the wrong, and at the same time subject his vessel for the damages occasioned. In this case, therefore, before a lien can be established or enforced against the Siren by a proceeding in rem. for the fault in question, or, which is the same thing, before it can be applied to the proceeds of the vessel in the registry, it must first be shown that the United States, the owner, is legally liable for the collision. In saying legally liable, I do not mean thereby legally liable to a suit; but legally liable upon common law principles in case a suit might have been maintained against the Government; in other words, legally liable for the wrongful acts of her officers or public agents. That, in my judgment, is the turning point in this case, and the principle is as applicable to the proceeds of the Siren in the registry as to the vessel itself. If the Government is not responsible upon the principles of the common law for wrongs committed by her officers or agents, then, whether the proceedings in the Admiralty are against the vessel or its proceeds, the Court is bound to dismiss them. Now, no principle at common law is better settled than that the Government is not liable for the wrongful acts of her public agents. Judge Story, in his work on Agency, states it as follows: "It is plain," he observes, "that the Government itself is not responsible for the misfeasances, or wrongs, or negligences, or omissions of duty of the subordinate officers or agents employed in the public service; for it does not undertake to guarantee to any persons the fidelity of any of the officers or agents whom it employs, since that would involve it in all its operations in endless embarrassments and difficulties and losses, which would be subversive of the public interests." When we take into view the multitude of public officers and agents, which the Government is obliged to employ in conducting its affairs, the soundness, propriety and even necessity of this principle becomes at once apparent. In our judgment the present case falls directly within it. In all these cases of wrongs committed by public officers or agents the legal responsibility attaches to the actual wrongdoer. It is supposed that the liability of the Government property for salvage or general average contribution, for services or sacrifices, in cases of impending danger to the property, afford some authority for the judgment in the present case. We are unable to perceive any analogy to the principle we have been discussing. There a portion of the property is taken, or appropriated, as a compensation for saving it from a peril that threatened the loss of the whole. The cases involve no principle concerning the liability of the Government for the tortious acts of its public officers. Great stress is laid also upon the circumstance that the United States is the libelant, and has brought the offending vessel or its proceeds into Court, and that the proceeding against the fund in the registry is not a suit against the Government. But the answer to this is not that the proceeding may not be taken against the fund in the registry, although there is certainly some difficulty in distinguishing between that and a proceeding against the vessel itself, but that the fund which belonged to the Government is not liable at all for the wrongful acts of its officers, which wrongful acts lie at the foundation of the judgment rendered in the case. It is for this principle I contend, and for which I am compelled to dissent from the judgment.

TOWAGE—AUTHORITY TO EMPLOY TUG.

Elizabeth M. Blake vs. The Tugboat James A. Wright—Clarence A. Blake et al. vs. The Same.—These were libels by the owner of the barge Arctic and of a cargo of coal on board of her, to recover damages for the loss of the barge and her cargo, which was cut through by the ice and sunk while being towed by the tug on Dec. 27, 1867, from Newburg to New-York. The libels alleged that the barge was taken in tow by the tug without any authority, and that the loss occurred by negligence on the part of the tug. The answers set up that the towing was authorized by one Dodge, as master of the barge and in command of her, and exercising control over her navigation; that Dodge agreed to take the risk of the ice; that the barge on the voyage sprung aleak by striking ice, and sunk because she did not have a proper pump; and that the loss did not happen through fault, negligence and want of care of those on the tug.

Held by the Court.—That it appeared from the evidence, that the barge was taken in tow on the 27th of December, and that Dodge was discharged as master on the 24th of December, but on the same day was told by the owners of the cargo, who were the agents of the owners of the barge, to bring the barge and her load of coal to New-York if he got a chance; that the master of the tug told him that there was ice in the river and that it would not be safe to take the boat down, and that he said he would take the risk himself; that when the barge was about to be taken in tow the master of the tug was notified that he must not move her, because Dodge had no authority; that Dodge said he would take the risk, and the barge was then taken; that the ice was choked up at West Point and could be seen before it was reached, and that the barge had a good pump. That upon these facts Dodge had no authority, on behalf of the libellants, to take for them the risk of going into and through the ice choked up at West Point, at a time when the master of the tug expressly told him that it was not safe to take the boat down. The tug taking the barge in tow under the circumstances, took all the risk of her safe towage, and it was negligence on the part of the tug to drag the barge into the choked ice so that she could be, and was, cut through and sunk.

Decrees for the libelants in both cases, with costs, with references to compute the damages.

For libellants, Beebe, Donohue and Cooke. For claimants, D. and T. McMahon.

CHARGE OF FALSE REPRESENTATION—EXCESSIVE BAIL DEMANDED.

The People vs. Jenks Budlong.—The defendant in this case was arrested on complaint of Clinton Gilbert, Vice-President of the Greenwich Savings Bank, who charges him with conspiring with another party to defraud him out of $35,000, he having loaned that sum to prisoner in 1856, and taken a mortgage on prisoner's farm in Ohio, which Gilbert alleges was mortgaged again to another party before the first mortgage had been recorded.

Prisoner was brought before Judge MCCUNN on certiorari Thursday afternoon, and yesterday the Judge delivered the following opinion in the case:

MCCUNN, J.—After a critical examination of the complaint on which the prisoner was committed, I confess myself at a loss to ascertain the precise charge preferred against him. The complaint is extremely elaborate and argumentative, and is evidently intended to embrace any and every offence which may possibly be constituted by the circumstances recited. In this characteristic it is obnoxious to censure, for every person arrested on an accusation of crime has a right to be informed plainly and explicitly of the charge against him, and when accused of a distinct and direct allegation of a specific offence committed by the accused, the prosecutor phrases his complaint artificially and ambiguously and alternately, so that if the circumstances in one aspect exhibit no offence, they may be viewed in another light and construed to constitute another and entirely different crime. The inference is that no crime at all has been committed. Ostensibly, the complaint here charges the petitioner with a conspiracy to defraud, but that is a mere misdemeanor, and if his guilt were perfectly apparent, would not justify holding him to bail in the exorbitant sum of $70,000.

If it be said the accusation is obtaining a signature by false pretence, and it be conceded that the circumstances are strongly against the petitioner, still the exaction of $70,000 is a flagrant instance of requiring excessive bail.

The amount of bail is never proportioned to the magnitude of an alleged liability from the defendant to the prosecutor, but to the enormity of the offence and the weight of evidence by which it is supported.

But, in my judgment, no fact is stated in the complaint to constitute the crime of false pretence. The only false pretence alleged, which begins to satisfy the legal requirements, is that the petitioner gave a mortgage purporting to cover certain property which in legal operation it did not cover. But clearly this is not such a false representation "of a bygone or existing fact" as by all authorities is essential to constitute the crime. It is not pretended that the mortgage was fictitious, nor that the petitioner did not own the land to which it related, but it is alleged only that the mortgage did not cover the property. And apart from this consideration, the complaint is defective in not showing an intent to defraud on the part of the petitioner. It admits, on the contrary, that the petitioner, before the commencement of these proceedings, reimbursed the prosecutor an indefinite portion of the sum which the prosecutor had paid as indorser for the petitioner—a circumstance strongly negative of an intent to defraud.

Evidently there is no sufficient statement of facts on the face of the complaint to constitute the crime of false pretence under the statute.

If the petitioner be guilty of any offence of which there is no particle of proof beyond the affidavit of the complainant, between whom and himself there are reciprocal claims of indebtedness; if he be charged with any offence, it is simply the technical offence of conspiracy, which is a mere misdemeanor.

To hold him to bail on this charge and under these circumstances in the enormous sum of $70,000 is shocking to every sense of justice, as well as plainly repugnant to law.

The criminal Courts are constituted to punish crimes against the State, not to be employed as the instruments of coercing the collecting of private debts by the term of imprisonment and the oppression of excessive bail.

The bail is reduced to $5,000, which, indeed, I think is too much, but which, as it is offered, I will require in the meantime. I direct an examination before the committing Magistrate; and if he decline to give such examination promptly, I then direct that such examination be conducted before myself.

THE MANICE WILL.

Wm. B. E. Lockwood, Administrator, &c., vs. William De Forest Manice et al.; Francis J. Manice Smith vs. The Same; Wm. De Forest Manice et al., Executors, &c. vs. Catharine Maria Manice, and Wm. De Forest Manice vs. De Forest Grant, who, by supplemental complaint, is made defendant.—These actions were brought to set aside the will, or more properly speaking, certain portions of the will of the late De Forest Manice. It appears that the testator left property which is now valued at about $2,000,000. Of this property he gave, in legacies, &c., bequests to his children about seven hundred thousand dollars. The remainder, which was left in a residuary clause, was given to the executors in trust during the lifetime of his wife to pay to her and others certain sums out of the income, and if the net income exceeded a certain amount, to accumulate one-half of the excess during her life, and also to pay thereout $5,000 to Yale College, to be accumulated to $30,000; and on the further trust, on the death of his wife, to cause an appraisal of the estate, and then divide it in certain shares, and to hold each of such shares for one of his children during his or her life, and during the minority of their children the shares of their parents to the grandchildren, with cross-remainders to the grandchildren.

This residuary portion, it is claimed, is bad, as suspending the power of alienation for more than two lives in being, and particularly for the accumulating clauses. It was insisted that these latter were so much a part of the residuary provision that their illegality would invalidate the whole provision.

On the other hand, it was claimed that clauses could be erased and the law would provide for what the will intended to be accumulated without affecting the frame work of the trust, hence the trust should stand.

The Court took the papers and reserved the decision.

THE FOWLER-BULL CONTROVERSY—WHO IS JUSTICE IN THE EIGHTH DISTRICT?

The People ex rel N. Hill Fowler vs. William H. Bull.—This is an action in the nature of proceedings quo warranto, commenced by the plaintiff Fowler against Mr. Bull, because he holds over and refuses to deliver up the appurtenances, emoluments, &c., of the office of Justice of the Civil Court of the Eighth Judicial District of this City. The particulars of this litigation have several times been published, but for the present we may say that the Legislature of the State, by an act dated March 24, 1866, declared that the term of office of the Justice of the Eighth Judicial District of New-York should be extended to the 31st of December, 1869. It was furthermore provided by this act that at the charter election to be held in December, 1869, there should be elected a Justice of the Eighth District. At the election held on the 4th of December, 1866, Mr. N. Hill Fowler was a candidate for office of Justice in the Eighth Judicial District. There was a ballot-box in the Third Election District of the Twentieth Ward. Mr. Perkins, a witness called for the plaintiff, testified that he was an Inspector of Election in the Third Election District of the Twentieth Ward; there were three other Inspectors besides himself; there was a ballot-box there in the morning of the day in question; that box was marked "Justices No. 9." As Inspector the witness said he knew that there were from fifty to seventy-five ballots deposited in this box up to 1 P. M. of that day; at about that time two Police officers came and took away the box; the officers said they took the box by virtue of orders from Superintendent Kennedy; no returns of these votes were ever made; they were not counted; it was admitted that they had been destroyed.

When the plaintiff rested his case, Mr. Vanderpoel, in behalf of defendant, moved to dismiss the case, on the ground that the act of 1866, chap. 217, extended the term of Justice Bull to the 31st of December, 1869. The Supreme Court, he said, had already decided that this act of the Legislature is regular and constitutional. The question had been discussed, and not only Mr. O'Gorman, the Corporation Counsel, but Judge Ingraham had decided the vital points in this case.

After considerable argument the Court decided to direct a verdict for the defendant, subject to the opinion of the General Term.

A BURGLARY.

Thomas D. Spear, of Pier No. 35 North River, where he has an office, made complaint yesterday against Charles W. Lowe for burglary, in having broken into the office through a window, and stealing a small amount in revenue stamps. When the prisoner was arraigned before the Magistrate, John Canty, of No. 167 North Moore-street, and a private watchman on the pier, testified that he had detected Lowe in the act of emerging from the premises of complainant. The prisoner was fully committed for trial. He is a native of Philadelphia.

ALLEGED FALSE PRETENCES—THE COMPLAINANT INSULTS A MAGISTRATE.

Officer Hill, of the Tombs Police Court Squad, arrested, yesterday morning, one William W. Migonigle, on a warrant issued on Thursday by Justice DOWLING, at the instance and complaint of William P. Sheldon, an inmate of the National Hotel, in this City. Sheldon accused Migonigle of having, in the month of January, 1866, introduced himself to the complainant, and under pretence that he was a counselor-at-law, stated that he (Migonigle) had received information that a man named Francis Palmer was slandering Mr. Sheldon. Migonigle offered to institute a suit for damages against Palmer, and agreed that the proceedings would not cost Sheldon more than $200. Sheldon consented to the action, and up to the 21st of May, 1869, he paid Migonigle the sum of $3,000 in various instalments, under the supposition that he was attending to the case. He, however, ascertained a few days ago, that the prisoner never commenced the suit as promised, and that the transcript of judgment which Migonigle had given him as coming from the office of the County Clerk was a base forgery. The accused had nothing to say in answer to the charge, so was remanded for trial. He is a native of New-Jersey, resides at No. 3 Roosevelt-street, and says he is an attorney and counsellor at law.

Soon after the officer had left the Court-room with his prisoner for the purpose of seeing him safely locked, the complainant returned to the Court-room, and in a stage whisper implored the Magistrate "not to release Migonigle on straw bail." Had the Magistrate been made of straw himself he could not have blazed up any quicker than he did at this unmerited and gratuitous insult. It is needless to repeat the indignant language of Judge DOWLING as he proceeded to give Mr. Sheldon an idea of the outrage he had committed on the reputation of the Court; suffice it to say the astonished complainant narrowly escaped being locked up himself for contempt of Court, and on being permitted to leave with a fierce reprimand, he retired in considerable confusion. It may be well to remark, that the Magistrate had refused to allow his warrant being used as a means of satisfying private malice, as Mr. Sheldon wished to have Migonigle arrested over night and compelled to sleep in a cell. As it stands the complainant stands in no enviable light in the case.

FELONIOUS ASSAULT.

John Williams, of No. 18 Roosevelt-street, caused the arrest of John Watson yesterday, on a charge of felonious assault, he having, on Thursday night, assaulted him in Cherry-street, near Oliver, with a pocket knife, and stabbed him in the shoulder. Watson resides at No. 102 Cherry-street, and despite his denial of guilt, he was fully committed for trial.

FEMALE PICKPOCKET.

Officer Thompson, of the Twenty-seventh Precinct, arrested Emma Williams at the Jersey City Ferry yesterday, on a charge of picking the pocket of Mrs. Ellen J. Walker, of No. 178 Grand-street, Jersey City, when she obtained possession of $4, which was contained in a wallet. The prisoner dropped the wallet after her arrest. When arraigned before Justice Dowling, Emma was held for trial.

GRAND LARCENY BY A CHILD.

Mrs. Margaret Sullivan, of No. 9 Mulberry-street, lost $104 in money, which was taken from her trunk on Thursday, while ill in bed. Her son saw Mary Munay, aged 10, take the money, and, on her arrest by Officer Riker, she was found in possession of $53 in money, and a quantity of dry goods which she had purchased. Justice Dowling held the child for examination.

Jefferson Market—Dodge, Justice.

A DISCORDANT AFFAIR.

Henry A. Pullman, a member of the firm of Pullman, Tyler & Co., music-dealers, No. 569 Broadway, appeared on Thursday afternoon with a badly-damaged countenance, and made an affidavit stating that on the preceding evening, while he was seated at his desk in the store, he was approached by Alfred D. Hynes, a former member of the firm, and, before he was aware of the purpose of the intruder, Hynes dealt him a powerful blow with his fist, and then attacked him with a knife, making an ugly wound. Dropping the knife on the floor, Hynes, it is alleged, then hastily left the store before he could be secured. Upon this affidavit a warrant was issued, and Hynes, having been arrested by Officer Leaycraft, was arraigned yesterday and was held to answer the charge.

DISHONEST SERVANT.

A complaint was made by Mrs. Elizabeth P. Gardiner, No. 7 West Twenty-fifth-street, stating that about the 15th inst. Catharine Gardner, a servant employed in the house, stole from her a lot of sheets, pillow-cases, towels and other articles valued at $75. The accused was arrested by Detective Blackwood, of the Ninth Precinct, and upon being arraigned pleaded guilty, and was committed in default of $1,500 bail for trial at the General Sessions.

FRIDAY, May 28—P. M.

The sales of Gold to-day show a little more firmness than on Thursday, opening at 139¼ and advancing to 139⅜@139½ ₱ cent. There was a fair support to the Bull side of the market, but no decided buoyancy of speculation. There is no export demand for American Gold Coin, and no immediate prospect of such demand, as Exchange continues to rule at about 109⅜ ₱ cent. on London, or nearly 1 ₱ cent. below the point at which it would pay to ship Gold Coin. The demand for Bills for the steamers of Saturday was fair to-day at 109 to 109¼ ₱ cent., less a brokerage to the buyer. Most of the business in standard names was at 109⅜ ₱ cent. net.

The demand for Money from the Brokers was readily supplied at 7 ₱ cent. per annum, and some balances were left upon the Public Funds at 6 ₱ cent. The Discount Brokers continue to pass very prime Merchant paper, of short date, at 7@8 ₱ cent. ₱ annum.

On the Stock Exchange there was an improved market in nearly all departments, and the speculation was especially buoyant in the railways, most of which in the afternoon dealings were at an advance on yesterday's late prices—and some of the Westerns, like Michigan Southern, full 2@2½ ₱ cent. higher. The Bearish movement inaugurated on Wednesday, and more fully developed yesterday, appears thus far to be at fault and no money made. The season of the year, the steadiness in Money and the prevailing confidence and temper of speculation among most of the Railway cliques on the Street, as well as their stockholders and followers outside, are all against lower figures and in favor of a June rise. Besides, the suspicion is current on the Street that this Bear demonstration is led by the "Erie Ring," who, having brought down their own stock to the lowest depth of discredit, so that they are no longer able to sell, however ready to make the attempt with new issues or reissues of Stock, are more than willing, of course, to demoralize even the best of the New-York and Western Roads to the same level. The mere rumor that these are the men now engaged in bearing the general market, excites the sympathies of the Street against the movement, and renders its success, in the absence of very disturbing elements in the Money market, of which there are no present threatenings, more than doubtful.

The Public Funds were rather quiet through the forenoon, at the full rates of Thursday night, and later in the day became decidedly firm, and in some descriptions scarce, or limited in the sums offered. This was especially marked in the old 5-20s, coupons, of 1862, which were wanted for Europe. The other 5-20s were stiff in prices, and the long 6 ₱ cents of 1881 also in demand at full rates. The State Bonds were weaker on Tennessees, new, owing to the continued signs of bearish contracts on the calculation or chances that the July Interest may not be promptly provided with the Fourth National Bank.

In the Railway Shares, the prominent or special features in the market were the large advance, alluded to above, in the Michigan Southern and Lake Shore Stocks, to 112@112½@113¼ ₱ cent., and the sales of New-York Central, in the Afternoon, free of the Dividend of $3 20 ₱ share, (or 4 ₱ cent. on the 80 ₱ cent. Scrip Certificates,) deferred by injunction since last February, but now legalized and paid in Cash to-day. The sales ex-dividend were at 190@190¼@190½ ₱ cent., equal to 193⅝ ₱ cent. with the Dividend included. Another Dividend of 7.20 ₱ cent.—4 ₱ cent. on the old Stock and 4 ₱ cent. on the 80 ₱ cent. Scrip—is to be deducted in the course of a few weeks, before which time the Scrip will probably be capitalized under the recent act of the Legislature. The Northwest Stocks were both firm in price and active in demand, and Fort Wayne, Wabash, the St. Pauls and Reading steady.

After the late Boards broke up the following quotations were made in the Long Room and on Broad-street as compared with Thursday night. The Public Funds closed on the basis of 119⅝@¾ for the 5-20s of 1867; the Railways firm in prices and generally buoyant in demand:

Internal Revenue Decision.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF INTERNAL REVENUE,
WASHINGTON, May 20, 1869.

SIR: I reply to your letter of the 18th instant, that No. 2 blank of the Western Union Telegraph Company, a specimen which is enclosed by you, is held when signed by the sender of the message, to be liable to a five cent stamp as an agreement.

No. 1 is considered merely a notice, not requiring a stamp. Very respectfully,

J. W. DOUGLASS, Deputy Commissioner.

J. P. MURPHY, Esq., Assessor Internal Revenue, Lockport, N. Y.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

☞ SEVEN PER CENT. GOLD BONDS OF THE LAKE SUPERIOR AND MISSISSIPPI RAILROAD COMPANY FIRST MORTGAGE SINKING FUND BONDS, FREE OF UNITED STATES TAX, secured by 1,632,000 acres of choice lands and by the railroad, its rolling-stock and franchises, and yielding in currency nearly TEN PER CENT. PER ANNUM.

We recommend these bonds as a desirable investment for persons collecting MAY COUPONS. Holders of 5-20 BONDS can exchange at a profit of nearly TWENTY PER CENT., besides receiving one per cent. in gold additional income.

A limited amount for sale, and full particulars furnished, by

JAY COOKE & CO.

☞ FIRST MORTGAGE SIX PER CENT. GOLD Bonds of the St. Louis and St. Joseph Railroad, of Missouri.

We are now closing out the balance of these desirable bonds at the very low price of 87½ and accrued interest, in currency. Total issue is limited to less than $14,000 per mile, and secured by mortgage on the whole road; equipments and entire property of the company valued at least at three times the amount of the bonds, thus making the security first class in every respect, and one of the most profitable for investment now in the market. The price of these bonds is about 33 per cent. less than United States five-twenties, and pay the same interest, while the security is equally good. The reason that we can recommend this bond so highly is:

First—The amount of bonds per mile is only about one-half that on most of the roads in the country.

Second—The stock subscription furnishes nearly all the means to build the road.

Third—These bonds are secured by a mortgage on the whole road, roadway, rolling stock, depots, machine shops, warehouses, lands, &c., and all the property of the Company.

Fourth—For the satisfaction and security of the bondholders, the mortgage is made to the "Farmers' Loan and Trust Company, (of New-York, who are the Trustees,") where the principal and interest is payable.

Fifth—The bond money is drawn by the Railroad Company from the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company at the rate of about $10,000 per mile only as the road is actually completed.

Sixth—This road completes the last link of the only direct route from St. Louis to Omaha, also connecting with several of the principal lines from the East, thus forming a direct through line from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

Seventh—The country through which this road runs is the most populous as well as the richest agricultural district in the State of Missouri, which will furnish local business enough to make it self-sustaining; while the through business which must necessarily be very large, will make it one of the best paying roads in the country.

Eighth—The general principle on which these bonds are issued is such that we can recommend the same to our friends and the public as a security, which is all that could be desired as to safety and profit to investors.

TURNER BROTHERS, Bankers,
New-York.

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

HOWES & MACY, BANKERS,

30 Wall Street, N. Y.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST ALLOWED ON DEPOSITS.

The business of this house is the same as an Incorporated Bank.

Persons keeping accounts may deposit and draw as they please, the same as with the City Banks, and will be allowed interest on their daily balances at 4 per cent.

Collections made on any part of the United States or Canada.

Orders for the purchase or sale of the various issues of Government and other Stocks, Bonds, and Gold, promptly executed for the usual commission.

☞ SAFES TO LET BY THE NATIONAL PARK BANK IN THEIR BURGLAR AND FIRE-PROOF VAULT.

Parties who are occupying, or who may occupy, safes in the BURGLAR-PROOF vault of this Bank, are informed that two capacious safes, 6x8 feet, are set aside for the gratuitous storage of silver ware and other valuables while the owners are absent from the City.

To those desirous of obtaining the greatest security for their valuable papers, we would state that there are still a few safes to be rented in the safe deposit vault of this Bank.

☞ BANKING-HOUSE OF KISSAM & CO., NO. 36 Wall-st.—We offer for sale on favorable terms Brooklyn City Seven per Cent. Bonds "Public Park Loan." These bonds are for $1,000 each, have forty-six years to run, and interest payable 1st January and July.

ASHES—Continue quiet, including Pots at $7 75@$8, and Pearls at from $9 25@10, ₱ 100 lbs.

COFFEE—The market has been dull to-day, and prices have been little more than nominal—buyers having had any existing advantage. We quote: Java at 23c.@25c.; Maracaibo, 15½c.@19½c.; Laguayra, 16½c.@18½c.; Rio, 8½c.@12½c., in bond; Native Ceylon, 17c.@19½c.; Jamaica, 14½c.@16c.; St. Domingo, 15½c.@16c.; Singapore, 20c.@22½c.; Mocha, (in bales,) 26c.@28c.; Costa Rica, 16c.@19c.; Manila, 16c.@18c.; Mexican, 16c.@18½c.; Curacoa, 15c.@17c.; Angostura, 15c.@18c.; Savanilla, 14½c.@18c., gold, ₱ lb.

COTTON—There has been a rather less extensive business transacted in Cotton to-day, but holders have not been eager to sell, and prices have been well supported. The main inquiry has been for lots wanted by spinners. Sales have been reported, since our last, of 1,519 bales, including 1,190 bales to spinners, 260 bales to shippers, and 69 bales to speculators. The receipts have been 271 bales; exports 265 bales. Messrs. Cornwall & Zerega are quoting as follows, in their circular for the current week, the FEATHERS—Have been in fair demand at 87½c.@95c. for Live Geese ₱ lb.

FOREIGN LIQUORS—Have been lightly dealt in at unchanged figures.

FIRE CRACKERS—A moderate call has been noted for No. 1 Canton at $3 ₱ box.

FISH—There has been a fair inquiry for the leading kinds, including Dry Cod at $6 75@$7 75 ₱ cwt.; No. 1 Mackerel, $27@$29 50; No. 2 do., $19 25@$25; No. 3 do., $10 50@$12 50 ₱ bbl.; Pickled Herring, $5 75@$8 50 ₱ bbl.; Smoked Herring, 40c.@45c., scale, and 33c.@35c. for No. 1 ₱ box.

FLOUR AND MEAL—State and Western Flour has been less freely offered, and has been in good demand, particularly the low grades, which have been in most request, mainly for export, at a slight improvement in prices. Sales have been reported, since our last, of 11,650 bbls., in lots, including very inferior to choice Superfine State and Western at $5 25@$5 65; very inferior to good Extra State at $5 95@$6 35; good to choice genuine Spring Wheat Extra State at $6 35@$6 70, and poor to good shipping brands of round-hoop Extra Ohio at $6 10@$6 50 ₱ bbl. Included in the sales have been 3,500 bbls., chiefly Extra State, for export, at $6@$6 35, partly to arrive, ₱ bbl. We quote:

|---|---|
| Superfine State and Western | $5 25@$5 65 |
| Extra State | 5 95@ 6 70 |
| Extra Illinois, Indiana, Michigan, &c. | 5 85@ 9 50 |

| Extra Ohio, trade and family brands | 6 50@ 9 50 |
| Extra Genesee | 6 80@ 9 50 |
| Common to Fancy to Extra Missouri | 6 90@12 50 |

Southern Flour is inactive and heavy; sales have been reported since our last of 380 bbls., at $6 45@$7 for very poor to fair ordinary, and $7 05@$13 for fair ordinary to very superior Extra, ₱ bbl. California Flour is in demand at $6 50@$9 50 for Extras, ₱ 196 lbs.; sales, 425 bbls. and sacks. Rye Flour has been in moderate request, at $4 65@$6 75 for very inferior to very choice, ₱ bbl.; sales, 225 bbls. Cornmeal continues inactive at $4 25@$4 65 for Western, $4 25@$4 35 for Jersey, and $4 60@$4 65 for Brandywine, ₱ bbl.; sales, 150 bbls.

GRAIN—The Wheat market opened more firmly for Spring, with an active inquiry, chiefly for export; but closed tamely and less buoyantly. Winter Wheat has been in quite moderate demand at somewhat irregular prices; sales have been reported, since our last, of 147,000 bushels, including Amber Canada in bond, at $1 50½; White Western at $1 64½@$2, the latter rate for very choice Red Western on private terms; No. 1 Spring at $1 46, delivered; No. 2 Spring at $1 40½@$1 43, chiefly at $1 41@$1 41½, closing at about $1 41 as the best bid; No. 2, to arrive, on private terms; and White California at $1 65@$1 70½ ₱ bushel. Corn has been in liberal supply and active request at, however, a further reduction in prices of new. Sales have been reported since our last of 86,500 bushels at 75c.@87c. for damp to very dry new Mixed Western; 50c.@75c. for damaged and heated Mixed Western; 95c. for old Mixed Western, in store; 96c.@97c. for old Mixed Western, delivered; 87c.@88c. for Yellow Western, and 89c.@90c. for White Western, ₱ bushel. Rye has been dull and irregular. Barley has been neglected and nominal. Barley Malt has been lightly dealt in at $1 75@$1 85 ₱ bushel. Oats have been in much better demand, partly on speculative account, and have advanced sharply. Sales have been reported since our last of 81,000 bushels Western at 76c.@77½c., closing buoyantly at 77½c. afloat, and 77c.@77½c. in store ₱ bushel. The export clearances have been confined to 16,050 bushels Rye for Bremen. The Albany Argus says: "List of boats which passed Fultonville during 24 hours prior to 1:30 P. M., May 26, 1869:

Oats—Margarette, Buffalo.

Plaster—M. C. Mercer, Fayetteville.

Lumber—Margarette, Buffalo; A. F. Burke, Buffalo.

Our Fultonville correspondent writes us as follows: 'The aqueduct broke away yesterday at Yatesville. It is now repaired, and boats will be moving eastward to-morrow, probably.'"

GUNNY BAGS AND BAGGING—Have been in moderate request and held with more firmness since our last at 16c.@17c., and 22½c.@23c., respectively.

HAY—Bale Hay has been in good demand at from 55c.@65c. for shipping, and 95c.@$1 25 for Poor to Choice, for local use, ₱ 100 lbs. Straw is in request at 70c.@$1 10 for Long and Short, ₱ 100 lbs.

HOPS—Have been salable and steady, including American at 5c.@10c. for New, and 2c. @5c. for Old, ₱ lb. We quote in detail thus: New-York State, 6c.@10c.; Eastern, 5c.@8c.; Wisconsin, 5c.@8c.; Michigan, 5c.@8c.; Yearlings, all grades, 2c.@5c., ₱ lb. The receipts were 473 bales; export clearances, 86 bales.

HEMP—Has been quiet, but generally quoted steady, including American at $170@$200 for undressed, and $275@$330 for dressed, ₱ ton; Jute at 4¾c.@5¼c., gold, ₱ lb.; Manilla, 12¾c.@13c., gold, ₱ lb.

HIDES—Have been rather more freely dealt in at irregular prices.

HONEY—Cuba continues inactive at 65c.@67½c., gold, in bond, ₱ gallon. Stock 269 tcs. and 176 bbls.

LEATHER—Sole has been quite actively sought after, including Hemlock, Buenos Ayres, Heavy, 27c.@28c.; Hemlock, Buenos Ayres, Middle, 29½c.@30c.; Hemlock, Buenos Ayres, Light, 30c.@31½c.; Hemlock, California, Heavy, 26c.@27c.; Hemlock, California, Middle, 30c.@31c.; Hemlock, California, Light, 30c.@31c.; Hemlock, Orinoco, &c., Heavy, 25c.@26c.; Hemlock, Orinoco, &c., Middle, 29½c.@30½c.; Hemlock, Orinoco, &c., Light, 29½c.@30½c.; Hemlock, Good Damaged, all kinds and weights, 24c.@27c.; Hemlock, Poor-Damaged, all kinds and weights, 20c.@23c.; Hemlock, in the rough, 35c.@39c.; Oak Slaughter, Heavy, 38c.@45c.; Oak Slaughter, Middle, 38c.@43c.; Oak Slaughter, Light, 36c.@40c.; Oak Slaughter, Cropped, Heavy, 40c.@42c.; Oak Slaughter, Cropped, Middle, 42c.@45c.; Oak Slaughter, Cropped, Light, 42c.@46c.; Oak Slaughter, in the rough, Heavy, 38c.@44c.; Oak Slaughter, in the rough, Middle, 38c.@42c.; Oak Slaughter, in the rough, Light, 38c.@44c.; Oak Slaughter, Bellies, 22c.@23c. ₱ lb.

METALS—Business continues tame in all articles, without any very notable changes in prices. There has been only a jobbing trade in Copper, Lead and Tin, which have been quoted about steady; 50 tons Tennessee Copper sold, for export, on private terms. There has been some call for Pig Iron, the reported sales of which include 50 tons No. 1 American at $40; 50 tons No. 2 American at $38; and 50 tons Scotch Pig on private terms, ₱ ton. We quote Ingot Copper at 23¾c.@24c., ₱ lb.; No. 1 American Pig Iron, $39 50@$40; No. 2 do., $37 50@$38; American Forge, $36@$37; Scotch Pig, $40@$45; English and American Bar Iron, Refined, $82 50@$90, ₱ ton; Pig Lead, $6 25@$6 87½, in gold, ₱ 100 lbs.; Foreign Spelter, $6 30@$6 37½, in gold, ₱ 100 lbs.; Domestic do., $11@$12 50 ₱ 100 lbs., in currency; Straits Tin, 31¼c.@31¾c., in gold, ₱ lb.; Banca Tin, 34¼c.@34¾c., in gold, ₱ lb.; English, 30c.@30½c., gold, ₱ lb.; I. NAVAL STORES.—A very moderate movement has been noted in Spirits Turpentine, on the basis of 46c.@46½c., chiefly at 46½c., for merchantable lots, ₱ gallon; the aggregate dealings having been 345 bbls. mainly at 46½c. ₱ gallon. There were 295 bbls. received; no export clearances reported. In Crude Turpentine there was no business of moment reported, and prices were altogether nominal. Tar was quiet and depressed in price. A sale of 100 bbls. Wilmington was mentioned at $3 30 ₱ bbl. For Resin, there was but little call, though the offerings were comparatively free at about yesterday's quotations. The receipts of Resin were 1,324 bbls. The sales included 200 bbls. Strained at $2 45, with $2 42½ as the basis of the bidding for round lots; 180 bbls. Good Strained at $2 50; 400 bbls. low grade No. 2 at $2 60; 120 bbls. good do. at $2 75@$2 87½; and 350 bbls. No. 1 and Pale at $4 75@$6 50 ₱ 280 lbs. The export clearances of Resin included 1,453 bbls. by the ship J. N. Cushing for Antwerp, 463 bbls. by the steamship Deutschland, for Bremen, and 391 bbls. by the steamship Borussia, for Hamburg. We quote Spirits Turpentine at 46c.@48c., chiefly at 46½c. for merchantable, ₱ gallon; Crude at $4; Resin at $2 42½@$11 50 ₱ 280 lbs., the latter rate for choice White; Tar at $2 50@$3 40; Pitch at $3 ₱ bbl.

OILS—Continue in moderate request at about steady rates. We quote: Crude Whale, $1 02@$1 05; Bleached Whale at $1 15@$1 17½; Crude Sperm at $1 98@$2; Unbleached Sperm at $2@$2 05; Lard Oil at $1 45@$1 47½; Red Oil at 90c.@95c.; Linseed Oil chiefly at $1 08@$1 10, in casks and barrels; Olive at $1 45@$1 50 ₱ gallon.

PETROLEUM—The inquiry for Crude in bulk has been on a restricted scale, and buyers have been unwilling to pay over 14c. for even job lots as a rule, while holders of large lots have been asking 14¼c.@14½c. ₱ gallon. For barreled Crude the demand has also been limited, with 19c. as the bidding price, in most instances, and 19½c. the general asking rate, ₱ gallon. There were no receipts of Crude acknowledged here. The arrivals at Philadelphia were 1,960 bbls., and for the week, 8,830 bbls. No clearances were reported to-day. In Refined the reported transactions in this market have been unusually extensive, but the very free offerings of Oil depressed prices, which closed decidedly weak on the basis of 30c. for Standard White, ₱ gallon. Sales were reported here of 40,250 bbls., including 3,250 bbls. Standard White, for prompt delivery, nearly all at 30c.; 3,500 bbls. do., first half of June delivery, at 30c.; 500 bbls. The purchases were partly for export, but largely on speculative account. In the Philadelphia market, a comparatively liberal business was also reported, but at easier prices, the aggregate of the reported sales having been 13,000 bbls., including 4,000 bbls. Standard White, deliverable the first half of June, at 30c.; 5,000 bbls. do., deliverable last half of June, at 30c.@30¼c.; 2,000 bbls. do., July delivery, at 30½c.; 1,000 bbls. do., August delivery, at 31c.; and 1,000 bbls. do., November and December delivery, (500 bbls. each month,) at 32c. ₱ gallon. The receipts of Refined Petroleum here were 1,885 bbls.; at Philadelphia, 2,860 bbls., making the total arrivals there for the week, 15,770 bbls. No export clearances were reported to-day. Naphtha was dull at about 9c.@9½c. ₱ gallon. Residuum was neglected, the nominal quotations having been $6@$6 25 ₱ bbl.

PROVISIONS—Pork has been in light supply and rather better request at firmer rates. Sales have been reported of 900 bbls., in lots, at $31@$31 25, closing at $31 25 for New Mess, $31 for Old Mess, $30 for Thin Mess, $28 25@$28 37½ for Prime Mess, and $24 50@$26 for Prime and Extra Prime, ₱ bbl. Cut Meats continue in limited request at former rates. Sales have been reported of 150 packages at 12½c.@13c. for Dry-salted and Sweet-pickled Shoulders, and 15c.@15¼c. for Dry-salted and Sweet-pickled Hams, ₱ lb. Bacon has been in moderate demand at about former figures: sales 300 boxes ice-cured on private terms. Lard has been more active and much firmer; sales have been reported since our last of 800 tierces and barrels at 17¼c.@19¼c. for No. 1 to choice Kettle rendered, chiefly at 17¾c.@18¼c. for City, and 18¾c.@18¾c. for prime Steam, ₱ lb. Sales were also made of 3,000 tierces prime Steam, seller and buyer June and July, at 18¾c.@19¼c. ₱ lb. Beef continues in demand from $11@$16 for Plain Mess; $12@$18 for Extra Mess, and $8@$11 for inferior grades of barreled Mess Beef; sales reported, 175 bbls. Tierce Beef has been inactive, including New Prime Mess at $20@$26; Indian Mess at $26@$32 ₱ tierce. Beef Hams continue in moderate demand at $25@$32 ₱ bbl.; sales 165 bbls. ### MISSOURI VALLEY R. R.

INTEREST PAYABLE AT THE CITY OF NEW-YORK IN FEBRUARY AND AUGUST. PRICE 92½, AND ACCRUED INTEREST IN CURRENCY.

This road commences at Kansas City, in the State of Missouri, traverses the fertile and populous valley of the Missouri River via Atchison, Leavenworth and St. Joseph, and thence passes through the Valley of the One Hundred and Two River to the Iowa State line. Its whole length is 130 miles, 90 of which are already completed and in active operation, and the balance under contract. It has valuable railroad connections, is already doing a prosperous business, with prospects of an early and large increase.

We recommend these bonds as a cheap and safe investment.

More detailed information will be given on application at our office.

OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF THE AMERICAN MERCHANTS' UNION EXPRESS COMPANY,
NO. 113 BROADWAY,
NEW-YORK, May 27, 1869.

At a meeting of the Directors of the American Merchants' Union Express Company, held at their General Office, No. 113 Broadway, New-York, May 27, 1869, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, On the 30th of November last the consolidation of the American Express Company and the Merchants' Union Express Company was notified to the shareholders of the last-mentioned Company by a circular of that date, and by the same circular notice was also given of the call of five per cent. upon their shares made at the time and for the purpose of such consolidation;

And whereas, After such consolidation the great body of the shareholders in said Merchants' Union Express Company have from time to time exchanged their stock for stock in this Company, paying in all cases the said call of five per cent. pursuant to the terms of consolidation, leaving however at the present time about one-sixth in number and interest who have not so exchanged and converted their stock;

And whereas, The time has long since elapsed within which the said stock ought to have been so converted, and the said call paid pursuant to the terms of the consolidation agreement, and it is manifestly unjust that the delinquent shareholders should withhold such payment indefinitely, and yet have the right for an indefinite period of time to become stockholders in this Company by the conversion of their shares, and it has become essential to know who are the shareholders, and what is the limit of the stock of this Company;

And whereas, A large number of the stockholders of this Company have justly insisted that the books shall be closed against future conversions of stock on reasonable notice being given; therefore,

Resolved, That at the close of business hours on the 30th day of June next the books of this Company will be closed against further conversions of the stock of the Merchants' Union Express Company into the stock of this Company, and will thereafter be opened only in favor of those shareholders in said Merchants' Union Express Company, who on or before that day shall give notice in writing to the Secretary of this Company of their intention and wish to make such conversion of their stock, and shall within the same time deposit their certificates of stock, with the sums due from them respectively, upon such call, in the principal office of this Company in the City of New-York; such deposit to be returned unless the conversion shall be actually and lawfully made.

Resolved further, That interest will be charged, from and after this date, on all sums payable, and hereafter paid on account of the said call.

Resolved further, That this Company will waive the right to demand a forfeiture of the shares of stock in said Merchants' Union Express Company, belonging to those who elect, within the time aforesaid, not to unite their interests to this Company, and will pay to them in money the value of their respective interests in the capital, property and effects which, at the time of the said consolidation, were transferred by the said Merchants' Union Express Company to this Company.

Resolved further, That the Secretary of this Company cause a copy of these resolutions to be published in not less than two of the daily newspapers printed in the City of New-York, and to be transmitted as a circular to all shareholders of the said Merchants' Union Express Company who have not surrendered and converted their shares.

In conformity with the requirements of the last of the foregoing resolutions, they are now published for the information of the parties in interest.

By order of the Board.

MEDICAL.

OPTHALMIC AND AURAL INSTITUTE,
NO. 46 EAST 12TH-ST., BROADWAY.

Dispensary for Eye and Ear diseases; open from 1 to 2 o'clock daily.

NEW-YORK, Oct. 17, 1838.

DR. HUNTER—DEAR SIR: AT THE request of a friend, who has lately been liberated from the fangs of affliction, by the aid of your inestimable RED DROP, I address you. He tenders his sincere thanks and gratitude for the blessings he has received at your hands, having been radically cured, by magic, as it were, (using only part of a phial,) of a dangerous disease, to which he had rashly exposed himself in an unguarded hour. But having received both a cure and a lesson, he is, indeed, truly grateful for the one, and hopes to receive a salutary benefit from the other. I myself who witnessed its effects can testify to its merits, and, as a Christian philanthropist, most sincerely wish that the public may be made acquainted with its utility.

O pour thy balm, upon a wounded world
And let the banner of disease be furled;
Life's embers reillume—while yet one spark's alive
And bid the kindling glow of health revive;
Extend thy arm—the sufferer's pang appease
While groaning 'neath the demon of disease—
And grateful hearts shall all thy care repay,
When stern Affliction's chains are burst away
Defenceless youth!—if Passion's firm control
Has placed thee where dark waves of anguish roll,
Where sorrow reigns, and storms of Suffering fall,
Where Mercy's ear ne'er heeds thy piteous call—
Then flee to him who kindly holds for thee,
Those precious Drops that soothe and set thee free
And when thy just afflictions once are o'er,
Go, rescued "child of wrath, and sin no more."

Yours, respectfully,
E. G. PAGE.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

EUROPE.

Commenting upon the elections the official journals of France declare that old parties are now extinguished, and "the liberal Empire is opposed by only a few revolutionary candidates."

At the Epsom races, yesterday, the b. f. Brigantine won the Oaks Stakes, Morna was second and Martinique third. The betting was three to one against Brigantine.

It is now announced that ISABELLA has declined to abdicate in favor of her son, by advice of her friends.

Six hundred volunteers for Cuba sailed from Cadiz yesterday.

Serious outbreaks are reported at Malaga and Seville against the Provisional Government, but no particulars are given.

GENERAL.

The rebel iron-clad Atlanta, which was sold at private sale by the Government authorities at League Island, has been thoroughly overhauled at Philadelphia, and, it is said, is now nearly ready for sea. A Philadelphia paper reports that she is to receive a formidable battery of English guns and a good supply of stores and ammunition, and then is to be sent to Cuba for use by the insurgents. Rumor has it that she will sail ostensibly for a short sea-test, when ready; but once outside, will raise the Mexican flag, and, when two days at sea, will run up the Cuban colors.

The Kentucky Republican State Convention, held at Lexington, on Thursday, adopted resolutions pledging the support of the party to President GRANT, recommending the speedy ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment, advocating the payment of the national debt, and favoring the recognition of the right of the colored people to testify in all cases on the same footing with the white. E. RUMSEY WING was nominated for State Treasurer.

Intelligence has been received at Quebec of the total wreck in the Gulf of St. Lawrence of two ships, the Zetus and the Margaret, both of Aberdeen, at Caribou Island, with the loss of all on board, save the mate of the Margaret.

During a thunder-shower, at Providence, R. I., on Wednesday evening, a house in Washington Village, belonging to a Mr. FRANKLIN, was struck by lightning, as was also the house of his sister, a Mrs. HATHAWAY, living at Searle's Corner, a number of miles distant. Mrs. HATHAWAY suffered considerable injury from the shock, but her brother escaped unharmed.

The negro murderer TRUMAN was hanged at Frederic, Md., yesterday. Previous to his execution TRUMAN made a full confession, which shows that the murdered man was butchered for a bundle of old clothes.

It is stated that nothing more will be done toward the construction of the proposed bridge across the Niagara at Black Rock until a new grant is obtained from the Canadian Parliament. When this is secured work will be begun without delay.

A Convention of Shakers, composed of delegates from the principal communities in the country, met at Boston yesterday. Speeches were made by prominent Shakers of both sexes, and interesting explanations of the Shaker religion were given.

Another attempt was made to escape from Sing Sing yesterday. A convict in citizens clothes, which he had procured in some mysterious way, walked by the main guard-house, outside the prison walls. A guard, recognizing him ordered him to halt; but instead of so doing, the fellow ran. An alarm was then given and a number of guards gave chase, and fired several shots at him. At length, wounded slightly, he was overtaken and captured.

The late Dr. JAMES RUSH, of Philadelphia, who died at his residence in that city on Wednesday morning last, left the bulk of his estate to the Philadelphia Library Company, including an entire block or square of ground on Broad-street, between Christian and Carpenter. Upon this broad site his will proposes the erection of a magnificent structure, all the details for the construction of which are specified in the document.

A bill is before the Canadian Parliament respecting seduction. It provides that a seducer, under promise of marriage, of an unmarried female of previous chaste character, shall be punished by fine or imprisonment, or both, at the option of the Court, but shall not be condemned on the sole evidence of the female.

A monument to the Confederate dead was unveiled at Cynthian, Ky., on Thursday, before a large crowd. An oration was delivered by W. C. BRECKINRIDGE.

A singular disturbance occurred in a court-room at Greensburg, Ind., a few days ago. A Mr. EWING, a lawyer of that place, in arguing against a new trial in a bastardy case, used language that was distasteful to the Judge, whereupon the latter assaulted the former, inflicting dangerous if not fatal injury. The Judge, BONNER by name, was arrested, and is now in jail awaiting the result of EWING's injuries.

The Grand Jury of Cleveland, Ohio, report that the Metropolitan Police of that city are in the habit of employing persons as irregular or secret detectives who have the reputation of being "notorious thieves;" and that frequent arrests have been made of persons charged with crime when the parties were not prosecuted, being released on the payment of money; and they declare their belief that there would have been fewer criminal indictments but for the loose manner in which police matters are conducted in the city.

A fight occurred among the inmates of a wretched tenement-house in Philadelphia, on Thursday afternoon, during which a half-intoxicated man, who began the trouble, it seems, by insulting some of the women, was chopped and horribly bruised and so much injured that his life is despaired of. A mother and daughter were arrested as the principals, and are now in jail awaiting the result of the man's injuries.

The directors of the Pennsylvania Central, and of the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Companies, have signed a contract by which the road of the latter Company is leased in perpetuity to the former. Philadelphia is now in direct railroad communication with Chicago.

The Convention of Free Religionists assembled in Boston yesterday. Rev. O. B. FROTHINGHAM presided, and in opening the sessions made a long address. Quite interesting addresses followed from Dr. ETLANGER, the editor of the Jewish Messenger, RALPH WALDO EMERSON, Mrs. JULIA WARD HOWE, Colonel T. W. HIGGINSON, Rev. D. A. WASON and many other well-known reformers.

The two boxes of silverware noticed in yesterday's TIMES, as sold at the City Hall vestibule under Sheriff's execution, did not belong to Mr. JOSEPH I. WEST, as erroneously stated. He had no interest in, or knowledge of, the same. The silverware was the property of WM. J. REE, and was sold under the execution of ALBERT R. MATHEWS.

The most important business before the Old School Assembly yesterday was the report of the labors of its Committee among the Freedmen, which presented a highly gratifying result. In the afternoon both Assemblies participated in the communion service at the Brick Church.

The charge of larceny made against Miss KATE FISHER, the actress, was yesterday dismissed by Justice SHANDLEY, and she was honorably discharged.

An anniversary celebration of the Sunday School Missionary Union took place yesterday at the New-York Juvenile Asylum, on One Hundred and Seventy-sixth-street, near Tenth-avenue. Rev. B. W. CHIDLAW, Rev. Drs. LUDLOW and J. B. DAVIS, Mr. R. J. MINGINS and Dr. PIERCE delivered addresses.

The Five Points House of Industry is to be enlarged by the addition of a chapel, dormitories and playground.

Thirteen sections in the Stafford wooden pavement in State-street, opposite the Customhouse, three feet long and two feet wide, were yesterday taken up and replaced, and the street left in perfect order, in forty minutes. The work was witnessed by a large number of interested persons.

Miss ANNA E. DICKINSON lectured at Cooper Institute last evening on Woman's Suffrage.

The body of a man, supposed from papers found on it to have been named NEWMAN, was found floating in East River off the foot of Thirty-fourth-street last evening, and being secured was taken to the Morgue, where an inquest will be held by Coroner KEENAN.

Cotton was firm though not active yesterday. Breadstuffs were freely purchased at stronger prices for Flour, Wheat and Oats, and easier rates for Corn. Provisions have been in better request. Pork and Lard were dearer. A very brisk business was reported in Refined Petroleum, but at lower figures. Groceries were quiet. Freights active and stronger.

Positive Philosophy Applied to Finance.

Mr. BOUTWELL is a Secretary so much after the Tribune's heart, that it is encouraged to familiarize him with the mysteries of its financial philosophy. In what he has done, it catches a glimpse of what he may do, the particulars whereof are thus prophetically sketched:

> "The great point to be gained is the funding of our bonded debt in a new American consol at a lower rate of interest; if possible in a non-taxable bond paying four per cent. interest—one per cent. each quarter of a year. To float such a bond a little over par, we must make gold plentiful and bonds scarcer and scarcer in the open market, until such a consol as we have indicated, having forty to sixty years to run, will command a small premium. We must still persist in collecting at least fifty millions per annum more than our current outgoes, interest included, and with the surplus buy up at least one million of our bonds each week. Now let the Treasury resume specie payment, offering to each holder of greenbacks coin or consols therefor. Of course, he will choose the consol, so long as it is the least fraction above par, provided he chooses to part with his greenbacks at any rate. We thus have resumption without pressure, with no run on the Treasury, with no convulsion of any kind."

We will do the Tribune justice: it has at least modified one of its cherished absurdities. Not long ago it was the apostle of immediate resumption. All reasons for delay it scouted as iniquitous; all allusions to difficulty it derided as the invention of knaves. "To resume, we have but to resume," was its favorite answer to all comers. From this folly it is now one degree removed. It gives up the dogma of immediate resumption. It admits that there are some points to be attended to before renewing specie payments; and we gratefully accept the admission for what it is worth.

Touching the required preliminaries, our contemporary's mind is, as ever, muddled. "The great point to be gained" at the start is the funding of the debt at a lower rate of interest. But the funding of the debt will not be possible until after resumption. The holders of a six-per-cent. security will not voluntarily exchange it for one bearing four per cent.; and before the Secretary can compel the exchange, he must be in a position to make redemption in coin the alternative. The higher the premium on the present bonds be forced, the less inclined will their holders be to surrender them for a less valuable bond. A certain coercion is indispensable, and coercion is impracticable so long as the Treasury is not prepared to redeem outstanding securities at par in coin.

The Treasury, again, cannot hope for resumption until it shall have attained to a condition of strength in its specie reserve. Before it can think of "offering to each holder of greenbacks coin or consols therefor," its stock of gold should be large. Nothing will reconcile the possessor of greenbacks to keep them after the offer of coin shall once have been made, except a conviction that coin may be had on demand. A Treasury stripped of gold will not inspire this confidence. To proclaim resumption under such circumstances would be to invite the "run" which the Tribune deprecates, and to precipitate a convulsion of the worst kind.

Now, one of the most serious objections to Mr. BOUTWELL's policy arises out of its tendency to render resumption remote, if not impossible. He sells the gold which he should keep, and by selling it neutralizes the effect of any other measure looking toward resumption. There may be reasons for gold sales in the state of the market, influenced as it is by an unhealthy financial system, or there may be reasons connected with the state of the currency balance. But these considerations are exceptional. Apart from them, the acquisition of a large gold reserve is a necessity with a view to resumption. No probable reserve would be too large, seeing that besides preparing for a "run" by individual holders of greenbacks, the Treasury is required to prepare for the demand which, simultaneously with resumption, will be urged by the national banks. Mr. BOUTWELL's plan imparts weakness precisely where there should be the greatest strength.

The gradual appreciation of the currency, moreover, is the true criterion of an approach to specie payments. Tell us what the national currency is worth, and there will be no difficulty in determining the improvement or decline of the public credit, without reference to the price of bonds. Judged by this standard, Mr. BOUTWELL's measures have not been a success. The currency is more depreciated than when he began his work; and this single fact outweighs columns of partisan praise.

Christianity and the Chinese.

In the Monday session of the New School Presbyterian Assembly, the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Missions, Rev. Dr. HEACOCK, of Buffalo, offered a resolution which undoubtedly represents the feelings of the religious community on the Eastern coast. As a member of so important a Committee, it was his duty, in presenting the foreign work of the Board, to indicate what were the great obstacles to the Christianization of pagan nations. In considering the field of Chinese missions, he was led at once to the main obstacle which all returned missionaries report as blocking the progress of Christian truths among the great Oriental people; that is, the statements of the returned Chinese of what they have seen and felt of the results of Christianity in the United States. It is well known to all experienced in the matter, that the intelligent Chinese merchants who go back from California, and the lower class of laborers, detail the incessant abuse, insult and wrong to which they have been subject in the Pacific States.

The reasoning which they spread abroad in China is something like this: "We have had already a divine teacher in China—CONFUCIUS, who everywhere taught and exemplified in his life that 'all men were brothers.' Following his instructions, we are accustomed to treat our fellow-men, of whatever color, with deference and courtesy; we certainly allow no foreigners to be plundered, abused and insulted. Under the teachings of your philosopher, we have found your countrymen oppressive, tyrannical, cruel and insolent; we have been pelted by crowds, robbed of our just earnings by thieves, struck, insulted and spit upon; many of our people have been murdered; we have had no safety for life or property, and even your Courts have not protected us, on the ground that we did not believe in the same Deity that you believed in; and yet not one of our bitterest enemies can accuse us of ever having broken your laws or injured one of your faith. If these are the fruits of your boasted philosophy of Christianity, we prefer the teachings of CONFUCIUS, and our common people the humane maxims of CSAKYA MUNA, the founder of Buddhism!"

All returned missionaries, and many travelers conversant with the Chinese, report some such state of mind among the masses who are familiar with the Chinese returned from California. Some missionaries have gone so far as to say that Christianity could never make any headway in China till its followers in America had obeyed better its teachings in regard to the Chinese there.

Dr. HEACOCK, feeling the full force of this, and having something of that noble "enthusiasm of humanity" which led the early Church always to stand on the side of the weak and the oppressed, offered in the Assembly the following resolution:

> Resolved, That it is with unspeakable pain and humiliation that we read of the outrages committed on the Chinese on our Western coast—conduct at once at war with all the history and traditions of our people, and in shameless antagonism to the whole spirit of our laws and our religion; and we call upon our civil authorities to bring to punishment the authors of these outrages, and to repress with the strong arm of the law these demonstrations of hostility toward an industrious and unoffending people—strangers, indeed, among us, but members of a common race, and subjects of a common and divine redemption.

It is evident to all who are conversant with the spirit of the age that when the Church ceases to feel something of this chivalrous sympathy with the wronged and oppressed classes of humanity, it will have lost one of its great holds over the feelings of mankind. No human mind can ever measure the loss which the American Church endured in the weak position which many of its branches took in our early struggle with slavery in this country. The skepticism spread abroad by that period of timidity—when, in many religious bodies, to be generous and humane, was to be associated with the unbelieving and the infidel—can never be fully estimated.

This resolution is mainly important to the world as an expression of feeling of a large ecclesiastical body upon a great public wrong. As such an expression, it will have its deep influence on the Pacific coast community. It was adopted at first, but after a lively debate and much protest from the California delegates, was subsequently dropped—perhaps wisely, as a religious body could hardly call on the political authorities to remedy such evils, without calling on them to right many other wrongs in the country. The great object gained was to arouse the conscience of the Churches to those wrongs on an unoffending people, and to express public opinion.

The defence of the California delegates against these charges was singularly weak and inconsequential.

Elder HUBER urged that the Chinese had "one of the finest edifices in San Francisco as a temple," and were undisturbed in their religion.

The accounts given by visitors and travelers of this wretched edifice do not agree with this statement, nor, if it were true, does it meet the point that the Chinese are abused and are not protected by the laws.

Rev. Mr. BRIER admitted the outrages, but urged that they were committed by "Irish Catholics," which may be a consolation to bigoted Protestants, but hardly to Chinese.

No delegate ventured to touch on the worst wrong of all—the fact that no Chinaman's testimony is received in a California Court of justice, while that of the most murderous Mexican and abandoned white ruffian is always admitted.

The best course for all Californians is to admit these abuses and labor strenuously for their reform. The General Assembly have very clearly manifested its opinion of them.

The Lairds' Defence.

The Messrs. LAIRD, of Birkenhead, have come out with a letter, it seems, aiming to vindicate themselves from the charge of violating the municipal law of England in building the Alabama. This defence we may safely leave Englishmen to examine—it concerns them more than us. By as much as the responsibility for the Alabama becomes less an individual one, by so much it becomes the more a national one; if, therefore, Englishmen are pleased with the logic of the LAIRDS, Americans have no ground to complain.

But this is not the first time the builders of the Alabama have taken up this line of defence. It is really an old story. In the House of Commons, the senior partner of the Laird firm once declared, in an elaborate speech upon this same subject, that "from the day the vessel was laid down, to her completion, everything was open and above board in this country." He added:

> "I also further say that the officers of the Government had every facility afforded them for inspecting the ship, during the progress of building. When the officers came to the builders, they were shown the ship, and day after day, the Customs officers were on board, as they were when she finally left, and they declared there was nothing wrong. They only left her when the tug left."

Such an authoritative statement should be sufficient to stop the diffuse discussion over laches, and the repeated hypothesis of English papers that "the Government officers didn't know about the Alabama's character." Why do they recur to this excuse so often? Obviously, because they cannot see how those officers could have acted as they did, with full knowledge of the Alabama's character. When Mr. LAIRD made that speech the English Press, we remember, was really astounded, for the moment. It has since been partly forgotten; but now, it appears, Mr. LAIRD has come out with a similar vindication of himself—and, as we have already said, we of America must thank him for this flank attack, as it were, in our favor. The English journals see the unintended result of the new diversion. The Star says that though "the Messrs. LAIRD may be guiltless," England herself "cannot escape the penalty." The Standard declares that "Messrs. Laird's vindication condemns the Government; the inadequacy of the law is an insufficient excuse for a breach of international obligations." The Star and Standard represent opposite poles in English politics—but on this irresistible conclusion they cannot but be at one. We repeat, therefore, that the Messrs. LAIRDS' defence is our attack; and, under this cross-fire we may possibly make another step toward securing what we are after, namely, payment of the Alabama claims.

Woman's Right to Education.

We see no reason why the girls educated at our public schools should not be entitled to the same privileges as the boys in the "College of the City of New-York"—which is maintained at the expense of the State for the advantage of those pupils who, having graduated at the public schools, are desirous of prosecuting their studies in such higher branches of knowledge as may be considered requisite for intellectual development or for utilitarian purposes. If the State, having assumed the right of establishing a public-school system in which the elements of education are taught independently of sex, has also assumed the right of maintaining an institution in which education is carried a step beyond the initial stages, why should one-half of the elementary pupils be debarred from its privileges because of their sex? If a girl in the lower school has attained the necessary proficiency to enter the higher, why should she be precluded from further advancement because she is not a boy? What right has the State, which teaches rudimentary mathematics to both sexes indifferently, to carry one sex into higher mathematics while it refuses to carry the other? Why should it offer boys the opportunity of learning Greek while it refuses to give girls the chance of learning French? Why should it instruct males in chemistry and not females in botany? And why should not a member of one sex as well as of the other have an equal claim to the opportunity of studying fluxions and French, Greek and geology, the laws of matter or of mind, the laws of society or of morals, and, in short, whatever branches of study may be embraced in the curriculum of the public institution known as the College of New-York? We say the State has no right to make such discriminations. It has no right to knock the ground from under the feet of an aspiring girl, while raising an elevation upon which an ambitious boy may mount.

We know that, in writing on this subject, there are certain collateral questions that are embarrassing. But we do not propose to discuss these. We desire at this moment simply to consider the claim put forth in behalf of the girls as a question of right in itself. And, so considering it, we must confess that the argument is in favor of those who ask equal rights for the sexes in the matter of State education. It will be observed that there are important differences between the present claim and the demand sometimes put forward for the admission of women into other colleges and universities. The latter may possess special rights and regulations as independent incorporated institutions, established for special purposes, maintained by special interests, and governed by laws that are not under the public control. But the College of New-York is a part of our public-school system, is under the direct control of the State, and is supported by public taxation,—a portion at least of which is drawn from the property and the labor of women. This last-mentioned fact, if no other, should be sufficient to prevent the exclusion of girls from the College.

This whole question has been under consideration by the Workingwomen's Association, and a Committee, consisting of two highly educated and intelligent ladies, (Mrs. CHARLOTTE LOZIER, M. D., and Miss O'CONNELL, who is the Principal of one of our public schools,) has been appointed to devise means and carry out measures for securing the right of girls to their share in the privileges of the College. We presume their past exclusion has only been because the matter has been entirely overlooked; and we have no doubt that when the question is brought before the Board of Education, it will be decided as it ought to be.

Queen Isabella of Spain Refuses to "Abdicate."

The Queen of Spain, we are told, refuses to abdicate in favor of the Prince of ASTURIAS, and has been induced to take this course by the advice of friends. We should have thought that, under the circumstances, "abdicate" was not quite the word to be used by a monarch who was driven from the throne without being able to rally supporters enough to make one decent fight. And we should scarcely think that the abdication of his mother would have increased the prospects of the youthful Prince of ASTURIAS very materially, or that her refusal to abdicate will exercise much influence on the course of events in Spain. But there undoubtedly is a certain party in Spain which would gladly see the old dynasty restored in some shape or form, and it is, we suppose, in deference to the advice of the leaders of that party that Queen ISABELLA declines to renounce her personal claims to the throne. She must be thoroughly imbued with the Bourbon inability to learn or to forget, however, if she thinks that the adherents of her dynasty can ever restore it. It is true that it seems impossible at present to manufacture a King out of any foreign princeling, that there are difficulties in the way of electing a born Spaniard to the throne, and that the majority of the Spanish people are still averse to the idea of a republic. But it by no means follows, because of all this, that Spain is prepared to revert to ISABELLA, or accept any puppet that might be put up in her name. We rather fancy that Queen ISABELLA's refusal to abdicate is of just about as much political importance as her abdication would have been—and no more. In one respect, supposing her to be actuated only by a sincere desire to preserve the dynasty, her decision is scarcely complimentary to the Spanish people. The Prince of ASTURIAS, at least, has hitherto preserved an unblemished character, and has not practically exhibited any utter incapacity for government. And yet, Queen ISABELLA considers herself likely to prove the more popular candidate of the two.

More Labor-Reforming.

Not content with the prodigious amount of reforming which it administered to labor on the first day, as we described yesterday, the New-England Labor Reform League pursued its purpose during a second day with so much vigor as to threaten, in Hamlet's phrase, to "reform it altogether."

As before, the great point evidently was to find out what to do, and how to do it. A reverend gentleman thought the true idea was to "stand fast and fear not;" but Miss COLLINS said the main thing was for the workingman to "shake the dew of strength from his lion's brow, and take the woman to the ballot-box." Mr. T. J. DURANT remarked that "the great thing was to abolish wages;" but Mrs. E. L. DANIELS avowed that the main thing was "to abolish interest." Mrs. JULIA ROCKNOW thought what was wanted was "more time—more leisure for education;" but Mr. CUMMINGS, the shoemaker, declared that "to make an eight-hour system practical, you must break down the necessity that compels the laboring classes to work ten hours." Mr. PHILLIPS made some wandering reference to "the Chinese;" and Senator SPRAGUE sent on a most mystical and mixed telegram, saying, "By the force and weight of the measures, I have intended to scatter the powers now warring on the people. * * Be not deceived, and let your deliberations be bold and confident."

Somehow, it occurred to a Mr. GREENE to suggest that there was "want of harmony" in ideas; but Mr. WARNER thought that was the beauty of it—"it was absurd to attempt anything that required of all unanimity of thought." Miss PHELPS said "free land" was at the bottom of the whole matter; Mr. GRAHAM criticised Mr. GREELEY, and Miss COLLINS lashed WENDELL PHILLIPS for "seeing nothing save under a black skin." Mrs. SYME advocated (1) the submission of all laws directly to the votes of the people, (2) the abolition of interest, (3) our currency, (4) the division of land among the people and the abolition of caste. But a farmer with the expressive name of MOODY, declared despondingly, that "the whole difficulty comes from the lust that war within the human breast."

The irrepressible FOSTER got up a trifling passage at arms, to enliven the proceedings, and a Democratic politician made a slight bid for votes; but the real practical work was what we have already indicated. Surely no one can question the tremendous influence which these proceedings will exert on the labor question.

MINOR TOPICS.

It will be seen that the Pope was very sharply assailed yesterday in the New School Assembly, and a committee was appointed to act in conjunction with an Old School Committee, for the purpose of drawing up a reply to his "proclamation" inviting Protestants to enter the Catholic fold. It is evident that there is no chance of the Presbyterians accepting the invitation of the Holy Father; for not only is he denounced in the resolutions, but Dr. LORD spoke of him in the most contemptuous manner, and Dr. COX prayed Heaven to "condemn the Pope out of his own mouth, and annihilate and demolish both him and his Church." This is very different language from that used by the Patriarch of Alexandria, who spoke of his adversary as the "Most Blessed Pope of Old Rome."

How many more people will have to be killed and maimed, and how much more property destroyed, before our authorities take measures to enforce the law for the prevention of the sale of explosive kerosene?

There is a constant, though not very large stream of wealthy Cubans coming to this country, on account of the revolutionary troubles, and, on the same account, there is a constant efflux of Spanish families from the island back to old Spain. The Cubans are afraid of the present vengeance of the Spaniards, and the Spaniards are afraid of the future vengeance of the Cubans.

Admiral PORTER is desirous that the young officers of our navy should engage in aquatic sports, not only because they will thus find excellent amusement and healthful exercise, but because it will give them some knowledge of the boats, the tactics and the muscle of the foreigners whom they may engage in friendly contest, and whom they may some day have to fight. It would gratify him at all times to hear that our cutters had beaten other men-of-war boats, and he has started several boat-clubs at the Naval Academy, which, he thinks, could compete successfully with any that row on fresh or salt water. The Admiral's letter on the subject to the Army and Navy Journal is full of vivacity and gayety, and he talks like a genuine old-fashioned sea-dog or horse-marine who would enjoy a friendly contest of wide-awake and muscular young fellows quite as well as a stiff fight with the enemy.

It is hardly possible to credit the "sad case of heartlessness" narrated elsewhere from the Police records of our reporter. Mrs. SEAMAN should be kindly treated by the authorities.

At last, brains are to be employed in the discussion of the question of Women's Suffrage. On the one side, Dr. BUSHNELL will soon publish a book bearing the significant and expressive title: Women's Suffrage; the Reform Against Nature; and, on the other side, JOHN STUART MILL will soon publish a book bearing the significant title, (we believe,) The Suppressed Sex. As neither of these writers are blatherskites, but men of sense, reason and justice, we may expect to see the question well argued on both sides.

We copied from a Western paper yesterday a notice that the papers of General ARTHUR ST. CLAIR were offered for sale by his heirs. A communication in the Cleveland (O.) Herald states, in reference to his claims on public consideration, that during our revolutionary war, while the army was marching on its Western expedition, it was left without supplies and without money, and that

> "General ST. CLAIR, a man of large fortune, furnished the funds to supply the army for weeks from his own private purse, and by so doing literally impoverished himself, and that not one cent was reimbursed to him to the day of his death, and that he died in abject poverty in a hut on the mountain side."

If this statement is true, the matter deserves the prompt attention of the Government as well as of the public at large. We fear such instances of the gross ingratitude and injustice of our Government are by no means rare;—but it ought to be a matter of pride with every American to remedy them as promptly as possible.

When Queen VICTORIA's royal sons desire to travel in peace, they should go outside of Her Majesty's dominions. The Prince of WALES was received in this country with immense honors, and nobody attempted to "hurt a hair of his head." But when his royal brother, Prince ALFRED, visited the Colony of Australia, he made a narrow escape from murder, and was at least wounded by O'FARREL's gun. Prince ARTHUR got away safely from Ireland during his late visit; but the untimely eulogy of O'FARREL by the Mayor of Cork was expressive of a bad state of things, and showed the danger in which the Prince had been placed. The Prince of WALES has returned from a tour that extended as far as Egypt, and no attempt was made to harm him; but he would never think of moving as freely on the banks of the Shannon as he has moved on the banks of the Nile.

It seems that the London Times is not read by everybody in England. In the recent trial of the Saurin case in London—one of the most exciting cases before an English Court for many years—the counsel drew the attention of the Lord Chief-Justice to a leading article on the case which "appeared in this morning's Times." His Lordship replied that he had not read the article; and after a few moments, the foreman of the jury said that none of the jury had read the article.

If half the reports are true about BUTLER threatening to open his batteries on GRANT unless he does this or that, we should think it would be better to have him begin operations at once. It would be well for him to remember the result of his past strategic movements in war and politics before he commences the next battle.

The appointment of TURNER (colored) as Postmaster of Macon has aroused the anger of the Georgians, who said little or nothing about previous colored appointments. A delegation has waited on GRANT to protest against it; and a dispatch from Macon alleges that all parties, black and white, are opposed to it. They say that TURNER is a bad character, and a presumptuous, ignorant fellow. We fear, however, that the opposition mainly arises from his color.

The American Journal of Mining of a week ago, has a characteristically clever ripping up of a long self-laudatory speech made by Mr. SCOTT RUSSELL, the English ship-builder, before the London Institution of Naval Architects. Mr. RUSSELL was pluming himself hugely upon the engineering difficulties he had overcome in carrying trains of cars across the Bodensee, or Lake of Constance, in Switzerland. And the Journal of Mining, in its quietly sarcastic way, quotes paragraph after paragraph of Mr. RUSSELL's speech, and with an appropriate word or two, shows how each point made by the builder of the Great Eastern, as a "new invention," has been made and in practical use in America for twenty years. Putting tracks and trains on steamboats was done for a long time at the crossing of the Chesapeake by the Philadelphia and Baltimore road at Havre de Grace. An engine for each wheel is a common thing on our Western waters. The floating bridge, balanced by heavy weights, to meet the boat at higher or lower elevation, according to tide or load, is as common as ferries can make it, in America. And Mr. RUSSELL's cumbrous use of the English system of shouts and howls for instructing the engineers to "go ahead" or "back her," has been superseded for a generation by the American system of gongs and bells. Altogether, it is very funny reading.

The most furious quarrels take place between those who have most in common—blood, language, literature or industry. No two people could "tackle" each other more heartily and volubly than the English and ourselves, as may be seen by the flurry produced by such a speech as Mr. SUMNER's. That individual Senator had only to bite his unofficial thumb, and Gregory, so to speak, begins to "remember his swashing blow." The London Daily News is too hard on "bullying and quarrelsome words." They have their use. They cleanse the bosom of the perilous stuff that weighs upon the heart, and having "fired off all their cannons" in that way, people, after the manner of Puff in the "Critic," are often the more disposed for "soft music."

AMUSEMENTS.

Musical and Theatrical.

ANNOUNCEMENTS OF THE DAY AND EVENING.

There are to be matinée entertainments at all the City theatres to-day, except at Niblo's, where the first performance of "Sinbad" this evening, will be prefaced, we take it, by a final rehearsal of that piece. Without noting the attraction at each house, we may intimate that at Booth's "Othello" will be enacted for the last time, that at the Grand Opera House the first day representation of "Patrie" will be given, and that at the Fifth-avenue Theatre Mlle. TOSTEE will appear for the last time as Boulotte in "Barbe Bleue." In the afternoon, Brooklyn lovers of music may attend the regular Plymouth organ concert, at which Mr. EUGENE THAYER, organist in the Hollis-street Church, Boston, will play.—There will be no lack of evening entertainments. We observe, by a reference to the list, that "La Vie Parisienne" will be sung at the Theatre Francais by Mr. GRAU's full troupe, that "Monsieur Landry" and "Monsieur Choufleury" will be repeated at the Fifth-avenue Theatre for the farewell night of Mlle. TOSTEE; and that Mlle. IRMA and M. DECRE will give "Les Dragons de Villars" at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. The change of performance at Niblo's has been alluded to above. The burlesque, we may add, is quite new, as well as the scenery and some of the artistes.

SIGNOR MANZOCCHI'S CONCERT.

The annual complimentary concert to Signor M. MANZOCCHI, a very accomplished musician, will occur at Irving Hall on Monday evening next. Additional interest will be given a very attractive entertainment, by the first appearance in public of Mlle. ADELAIDE MANZOCCHI, pianiste, daughter of the bénéficiaire, and a pupil of Mr. S. B. MILLS.

NOTHING UNREASONABLE.

A Lecture by Miss Anna E. Dickinson on Woman's Suffrage.

A lecture was delivered last evening at the Cooper Institute by Miss ANNA E. DICKINSON, under the auspices of the National Woman's Suffrage Association. A large and highly respectable audience filled the hall. On the platform were a number of well-known literary persons.

Mrs. STANTON introduced Miss DICKINSON to the audience in a brief but eloquent address.

Miss DICKINSON, who was warmly applauded on coming forward, said, A criminal arraigned, tried and convicted, has the privilege of speakng in his own defence. It was not, therefore, unreasonable for her to demand why she was condemned to a political death, why excluded from a share in the councils of the nation. This Government by its own showing is a usurpation and despotism. Condemned by a law to which she had never assented, taxed without the right of representation, she maintained that she was deprived of her inalienable rights. There were women present to-night who believed they had been deprived of their rights, and they were not women to be trifled with. When JOHN BRIGHT and his Queen, the HOWITTS, PHILLIPS, the BROWNINGS, J. STUART MILL, and Mrs. STANTON man the guns, look out for a heavy cannonade, and no child's play. Miss DICKINSON then referred to the fact that these women's meetings were attracting notice everywhere, and occupied more space in the newspapers than almost any other subject. Those who opposed woman's suffrage said, wait until every woman demands suffrage, wait until all want to go to the polls. Did the Colonies wait until every citizen demanded redress of their wrongs? There were beings too lazy to think, too ignorant to know that they are wronged. Never mind, you are not to vote, nor to sit in the jury box, nor to take any part in politics because we don't like it. But if women are to sacrifice their rights because it pleases men that they should do so, what are they to get in return? Are women always pleased with the habits of men, with their tobacco chewing, smoking and spitting, their late hours and their surly manners? She thought not. Men should be as desirous that women should obtain their rights as women themselves are, for irresponsible power invariably injures those who wield it. The lecturer then referred to the legal position of women at the present time. She admitted that the laws were being modified, that women had more legal rights now than last year, and more last year than they had twelve years ago. Yet this was but a proof that woman had hitherto been wronged. Speaking of the influence of women over man, she said that Pompadours and Du Barrys and Neil Gwynes had governed the Kings of France and England, yet women had gained no political or social equality through that. The favorites had gained their own rights, but had cared nothing for the rights of their sisters. Men claimed to be the natural law-makers of the universe—but what kind of laws had they produced? Slavery and polygamy, murder for murder, wars of devastation, crime rampant in our streets, and our prisons filled with criminals was the result of man's legislation. Women, too, were compelled to sin and then punished for sinning. These were some of the things our national lawgivers were responsible for. Speaking of the differences between men and women, she said that neither she nor any other consistent advocate of woman's rights desired to ignore them The sexes were intended to live together, and to help each other, the one making up for the deficiencies of the other. Of politics she said that, as she understood it, the word meant the science of government, but men ran about to town meetings and conventions and caucuses and such things, and then they cried, What, shall women do such things as these? God forbid—she would have neither men nor women do these things. They were not politics. At the present day men seemed to think that politics ment a scramble for office—every one for himself and the devil take the hindmost.

Miss DICKINSON then drew an affecting picture of the miseries suffered by the drunkard's wife. Surely, she said, it was not unwomanly for the women to interfere in legislation relating to temperance, to the erection of school houses and penitentiaries, to the public health, &c. Yet men said they should have nothing to do with these things. Miss DICKINSON then paid her respects to the newspapers, and referred to their comments on the late Woman's Suffrage Convention. She had read most of them, and she would far rather be the subject of their comments than the composers of them. The reporters, also, came in for a share of the lecturer's rebukes. She had no doubt, she said, that they turned up their reportorial noses at Miss COZZENS and others, yet she would just like to find any of them worthy of holding a candle to Miss COZZENS.

Miss DICKINSON concluded her lecture by drawing a comparison between the behavior of women in convention and men, greatly to the advantage of the former, and by roundly abusing the editors of most of the leading newspapers. The lecturer was listened to with attention and frequently applauded.

In another column will be found a statement, under the signature of the President of the New-York Safe Deposit Company, setting forth the advantages of that institution as a place of security for the deposit of bonds, plate, jewelry, and other valuables.

THE ECUMENICAL COUNCIL.

Plenary Indulgence and Remission of Sins—Letter from the Pope to All the Faithful.

To all the Faithful who shall see this Letter—Pope Pius IX., health and the Apostolic benediction:

No one can be ignorant that we have decreed the opening of an Ecumenical Council in our Vatican Basilica on the 8th of December next, the day consecrated to the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin, Mother of God. Since that time we have never ceased humbly to pray with fervor, and to supplicate "the Father of lights, from whom cometh down every best gift, and every perfect gift," to send down "the wisdom that sitteth by His throne," to remain with us, to work in us, that we may know what is agreeable to Him. That Almighty God may deign to listen to our prayers, and incline His ear to our supplications, we have determined to excite all the faithful to greater piety and devotion, in order that by uniting their prayers to ours we may obtain the aid of His all-powerful arm and the heavenly light, so that we may establish in this Church all that can contribute to the salvation of Christians, and to the greater glory, happiness and peace of the Catholic Church. And as prayers are more agreeable to God when they ascend with a clean heart—that is, from a soul purified from all stain—we wish on this occasion to open with apostolic liberality the celestial treasury of Indulgences, of which the dispensation is confided to us, so that, encouraged thereby to true repentance, and purified from all sin in the sacrament of penance, the faithful may approach with greater confidence the Throne of God, and obtain by this opportune assistance His mercy and His grace.

With this intention we announce to the whole Catholic world an Indulgence in the form of a Jubilee. In the name of God most powerful and most merciful, supported by the authority of the holy Apostles St. Peter and St. Paul, in virtue of the power of binding and loosing with which our Lord has invested us, however unworthy, we grant a Plenary Indulgence, and remission of all their sins, as it is granted in the year of Jubilee, to all the faithful of both sexes, either dwelling in our much loved city of Rome, or having come within her wall, who shall, between the 1st of June, and the day of the closing of the Ecumenical Council convoked by us, visit the basilicas of St. John Lateran, the Prince of the Apostles, and St. Maria, Majore, or at least visit one of them twice and devoutly pray there for some time for the conversion of sinners, for the propagation of the faith, and for the peace, tranquility and triumph of the Catholic Church; who, in addition to the accustomed fast of the Ember days, shall fast for three days, even not consecutively, that is to say, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday, and who, in the course of time, shall have confessed their sins, reverently received the Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist, and given some alms to the poor according to their power. To all not living in Rome, we grant the same Plenary Indulgence and remission of their sins, on condition of their visiting within the given time, the churches which shall be pointed out by the Ordinary of the place, or the Vicars to whom the charge of souls is committed, and fulfilling the conditions already spoken of. This Indulgence is applicable to the souls in purgatory.

Travelers by land and sea may gain it by fulfilling the conditions and visiting twice the cathedral or parish church of the place where they are.

As to the regulars of either sex who live in monasteries, and all persons, whether lay or clerical, secular or regular, who are detained in prison, for any cause deprived of their liberty, or prevented by sickness or other obstacles, shall find it impossible to comply with the conditions, we grant to any confessor approved by the Bishop, the power of commuting the works of piety for some others, or of postponing them to a future time not distant, or of prescribing such things as these penitents may be able to perform. Confessors may also dispense from communion those children who have not yet made their first communion.

Also, to all the faithful, secular and regular, of whatsoever order or institute they may be, we grant the power of choosing a confessor either secular or regular, provided they choose one approved by the Bishop. This permission is extended to all religious novices and others, provided the confessor is approved by the religious, and these confessors shall have the power, for this time only, to absolve and release, in foro conscientiæ, from excommunication and other ecclesiastical censures a jure or ab homine.

* * * * * * *

In virtue of holy obedience we exhort and command most rigorously the Ordinaries of each separate place, or, in the absence of their vicars, whoever has the charge of souls in their place, that as soon as they shall judge it to be convenient after seeing this letter, they shall publish or cause to be published, in their churches and dioceses, provinces, towns and villages, the church or churches which are to be visited in order to gain the Indulgence.

* * * * * * *

We also ordain that from the 1st of June next, to the close of the Ecumenical Council, all the priests of the Catholic world, secular or regular, shall add every day to their Mass the prayer to the Holy Ghost, and that besides the accustomed Mass, the Mass of the Holy Ghost shall be said every Thursday, except on a double of the first or second class, in all the parish churches, basilicas, or collegiate churches in Rome, and in all cathedrals and college chapels throughout the world, by their respective cannons, also in every church served by the regulars and bound to say a conventual Mass.

This Mass of the Holy Ghost binds under no obligation regarding the application of it.

Given at St. Peter's in Rome, under the Ring of the Fisherman, the 11th of April, 1869, the 23d year of our Pontificate.

N. CARD. PARACCIANI CLARELLI.

THE TURF.

The Epsom Races—Third Day—Brigantine Winner of the Oaks Stakes.

LONDON, Friday, May 28.

Much rain has fallen throughout England during the past few days, and the weather is still very wet. The attendance at the Epsom Races to-day was consequently quite small, and the track was heavy. The first race was for a renewal of the Oaks stakes of 50 sovereigns each. Closed with 193 subscribers. Fourteen horses started. The race was won by Mr. COOKSON'S b. f. Brigantine, beating Sir J. HAWLEY'S Morna, second, and Sir R. W. BULKLEY'S Martinique, third. The betting was three to one against Brigantine, two to one against Morna, and eight to one against Martinique.

Time, 2:48½.

The second race was for the Great Surry Foal stakes of ten sovereigns each, with 100 added for foals of 1866. The race was won by Mr. JOSEPH DAWSON'S ch. c. De Vere, beating Mr. NORMAN'S c. Ægean.

The third race was for the Epsom two-year-old plate of 200 sovereigns, 55 entries. The race was won by Count F. D. LAGRANGE'S Roquefort, beating Mr. S. W. REEVES'S Pate, second, and Mr. F. ELLIOTT'S c. Elferon, third. Ten started. The betting previous to the race was 2 to 1 against Roquefort, 4 to 1 against Pate, and 10 to 1 against Elferon.

The Buckeye Races at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Friday, May 28.

The races over the Buckeye Course to-day commenced with a selling race, for $200; a dash of two miles; horses entered to be sold for $1,500 to carry their own weight; for $1,000, allowed five pounds; for $500, allowed fourteen pounds; for $300, allowed twenty-one pounds; the winner to be sold at auction immediately after the race. The following is the result:

|---|---|
| Gray horse Tom Porter, by Lightning, dam Chestnut | 1 |
| Chestnut mare Phœnix Bell, by imp. Australian, dam Dolly Carter | 2 |
| Gray filly Mermaid, by imp. Australian, dam Ardelle | 3 |
| Bay filly Betty Bay, by imp. Australian, dam Betty Ward | 4 |

Time—3:59¼.

SECOND RACE.—Sweepstakes for three-year-old colts and fillies, two-mile heats, $25 entrance, p. p., the winner of the mile-heat stake for three-year olds to carry five pounds extra; the Club to add $400. The following is a summary:

| | | |
|---|---|---|
| Richards Kilgour's ch. f., by imp. Mickey Free, dam Blonde, by imp. Glencoe | 1 | 1 |
| John Harper's ch. c. Exchange, by Endorser, dam Nantara, by Brannon's Eclipse | 2 | 2 |
| J. W. Ford's b. c. Tom Paine, by Doneraile, dam Parodi, by imp. Glencoe | 3 | dis. |
| H. Blandy's ch. c. John McIntire, by Frank Boston, dam Buckeye Lass, by Admiral | 4 | 3 |

Time—3:56¼, 3:59¼.

The track was very heavy, the weather warm, and the crowd immense.

The Great Trot on the Prospect Course To-day—Latest Betting.

The trotting meeting of the Prospect Park Fair Grounds Association closes to-day, and if the weather is favorable, the attendance is sure to be unusually numerous, on account of the great contest for the $5,000 purse between such celebrated fast horses as George Wilkes, Rhode Island, Bashaw, Jr., Lucy, American Girl and Goldsmith Maid. In the pools sold at Mitchell's Hotel last night by JAKE SOMERINDYKE, Goldsmith Maid had the call, selling for $100; George Wilkes, $70; Lucy, $40; American Girl, $40; and the other two stallions coupled, $30. A capital trotting contest is confidently looked for, as all the horses are doing and going remarkably well.

The Hicks-street Homicide.

The Coroner's jury, in the case of the Hicks-street homicide, rendered a verdict that JOHN MULADY came to his death from a pistol-shot wound inflicted by JEREMIAH DACY in self-defence. DACY was taken before the Coroner yesterday afternoon and examined formally as to his connection with the shooting. His statement was substantially what has been already published, setting forth that the act was done in self-defence. He was held to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Morning Star Sunday School.

An entertainment was given last night, at Apollo Hall, in aid of the Morning Star Sunday School, of which Dr. R. P. PERRY is Superintendent. Mr. W. C. VAN METER addressed the large crowd assembled, and Dr. PERRY afterward explained that the school was organized in October, 1868, as a Union Mission for the instruction of children and the dissemination of the gospel among the people at large. It was not, he said, connected with any Church organization, and for the efficient prosecution of its work a permanent home was necessary.

THE QUESTION OF PEACE.

Discussion of the Subject by the Quakers—Interesting Proceedings and Speeches.

The Orthodox Society of Friends held a public meeting last evening at the Twentieth-street Meeting-house, for the consideration of the subject of peace. BENJAMIN TATHAM, on motion, took the chair, and AUGUSTUS TABER was appointed Secretary. The former opened the meeting by giving a sketch of the progress of peace principles among Friends, and spoke of their importance at the present time, when we are threatened with war against the Indians and with England.

Prof. CHASE, of Haverford College, Penn., was then introduced, and said that if any intelligent man could be brought face to face with the spectacle of war, who can doubt but that he would shrink from it with revolted feelings.

If the deeds of war are compared with the principles of Christian revelation their incompatibility is evident. Yet if a point of national honor is raised, we are ready to declare war at once, and devote money and lives to carrying it on. The prevalence of war was due to the supineness of the Christian churches, whom the speaker arraigned as unfaithful to their trust in not opposing it. To abolish war, we have but to arouse the Church from her lethargy, and by public meetings, the Press, and every other legitimate means, to draw public attention to the subject. There will be no difficulty in finding other and better remedies for settling disagreements, if this is done, such as candid discussion and conference, arbitration or a congress of nations.

Dr. NICHOLSON, of North Carolina, was the next speaker, and began by describing the contrast between the relations of the Friends with the aborigines in the colonial history of that State, and those of others who did not profess peace principles. He referred to the sacrifice of Friends during the late war from loyalty to their principles. He was glad to say that in the new Constitution of North Carolina their scruples against bearing arms were legalized.

DANIEL HILL, of Ohio, followed, and spoke of the grave importance of the subject of peace, and the necessity of agitating for the abolition of war. He read some statistics of the effect of war. 14,000,000,000 of lives, he said, have been destroyed since the creation of man, an average of 2,000,000 annually, or 6,000 per day!

He recapitulated the size of the present standing armies of Europe, which include in all 7,000,000 soldiers, at a total expense of 6,000,000,000 francs. The speaker also alluded to the hindrances which war is to the propagation of the Gospel in heathen lands.

FRANCIS J. KING, of Baltimore, was the next speaker. He described the progress of public opinion upon the question of peace, and the slow but steady development of a higher feeling, which the Reformation, discovery of the printing press, and other causes, had effected. He paid a tribute to the Press on account of its agitation of the peace question. He concluded by stating that the surrender of JOHNSON'S army to SHERMAN at the close of the war took place at a Friends' settlement in North Carolina, where peace principles had been maintained for over two hundred years.

The Chairman, in a few remarks, paid a high tribute to the illustrious author of the noble words, "Let us have peace;" and spoke of the wickedness of considering even the idea of exterminating the Indians, which some persons have advocated. He praised the moral character and capacity of the latter, and said that by the Declaration of Independence we were bound to give them equal privileges with ourselves. The meeting then adjourned.

A BANK CHECK FORGERY.

A Very Singular and Complicated Case—Respectable Parties Involved by a Shrewd Operator, who makes his Escape.

A man named DAVID MARSH was arraigned before Justice DOWLING, at the Tombs, on a charge of complicity in the forgery of a bank check. The details of the case are quite complicated. It appears that about a fortnight ago MARSH called at the store of DAVID W. CORNWELL, at No. 88 Vesey-street, and in the course of conversation introduced his companion as Mr. JAMES HAYWARD, and remarked that they were about forming a copartnership. They then left the store, and Mr. CORNWELL thought no more of the matter until Monday last, when HAYWARD made his appearance in the store and stated that he wished he had some responsible person to introduce him to the officers of any good bank in the City, as he wished to deposit several thousand dollars before going into active business. Mr. CORNWELL gave HAYWARD an off-hand introduction to Mr. JAMES DONNELLY, of No. 416 Washington Market, who in due course of time introduced HAYWARD to the teller of the North River Bank, when HAYWARD deposited a check of $7,500, purporting to have been drawn by Messrs. LIVERMORE & WHITNEY on the Fourth National Bank, in favor of HAYWARD or his order. As the check appeared to have been properly stamped and certified in the Fourth National Bank, the teller of the North River Bank had no hesitation in receiving it, and at once placed the amount therein until called for, to Mr. HAYWARD'S credit. The next day, or May 25, HAYWARD called a second time at the bank and drew on his own check the sum of $1,000, and during the same afternoon he again presented a check for $4,200, for which he asked payment. The teller became suspicious of such rapid business, and declined immediate payment for the second check until some inquiry could be made. HAYWARD then left the bank and has not since been found. Investigation into the case resulted in the discovery that the check deposited by HAYWARD was an utterly worthless one, and the stamp and certificate thereon was a forgery. In the continued absence of HAYWARD, the bank officer called upon DONNELLY for an explanation, and he in turn called on Mr. CORNWELL. The latter mentioned MARSH, and as he could make no proper explanation, his arrest followed as an accessory to the fraud and forgery. The Magistrate yesterday committed the accused for trial, having occupied two days in his investigations. MARSH denies that he had any knowledge of the forgery or the fraudulent intent or proceedings of the missing man HAYWARD. The disinterested spectator in Court could not help believing that he had been in some way made the dupe of the missing criminal.

LIQUOR LICENSE FEES.

Important to Dealers in Ardent Spirits—The New Rates of License Adopted by the Board of Excise—Large Reductions in the Tax.

The Metropolitan Board of Excise will soon issue a circular, in which will be presented to the liquor dealers of the District, a statement of new rates of license, adopted on Wednesday last. For licenses issued under forms Nos. 1 and 2, (the first permitting liquors to be drank where sold, and the second permitting the sale only,) excepting hotels and restaurants, $125, which is only one-half of the former rate.

Hotels and restaurants will be charged from $125 to $250, according to the amount of business done.

For licenses under forms Nos. 3 and 4, (the first permitting the sale and drinking of beer on the premises, and the second permitting the sale only,) from $50 to $100—whereas the old rate was $100 in each case.

The Board has determined not to increase the number of licenses, materially, and further, not to renew a permit after it shall have been revoked, for violation of the law.

The announcement of the fact that the new rates would date from the 1st inst., led to a rush of the liquor dealers to the Board's rooms on Thursday and yesterday—some to make application for licenses, and others who had already paid for them, to ask for a return of the amounts overpaid to the Board. The latter-named class were disappointed, however, as the Board will not be prepared to refund the amounts paid in excess until the latter part of next week, it being necessary, first, to have a large number of blanks printed, and several books prepared for the work. It is thought that the new rates will lessen the annual revenue of the Board at least forty per cent.

The croquet grounds will be open for play on Wednesday and Friday of each week, from 1 P. M. till sundown during the season.

The Saengerbund.

The delegates of the Northeast Saengerbund held a meeting at the Germania Assembly Rooms last night, when Mr. VOGEL presided. The preparations for the Eleventh Saengerfest at Baltimore were discussed, and the Corresponding Secretary was directed to make certain arrangements with the Baltimore Fest Committee in reference to the Convention of Singers on that occasion. The Finance Committee submitted a detailed report in reference to the late Whitmonday festival, from which it appeared that the receipts amounted to $1,963, and that a surplus of about $1,200 was gained.

The School of Design for Women.

The annual exhibition of works of art by the pupils of the Cooper Union School of Design for Women was open yesterday during the day and evening, and was visited by a great many people. In the evening the throng was very great, and a band of music added to the interest of the occasion. The statuary seemed to attract especial attention. Dr. RIMMER expresses great satisfaction with the progress which his pupils have made in the School of Sculpture. He expected, he says, that they would take readily to painting, because of the taste in matters of color which women so generally evince, but he was not prepared for their quick apprehension of the rules of form and dimension, especially in studies for which they had so little opportunity to perfect themselves. The statuary is all modeled upon original designs, in accordance only with the teachings concerning the human anatomy which they have received in the school. They have had no living models like those whose works theirs rival. The paintings and drawings also attracted great attention, and many of them most deservedly. The exhibition will be open to-day till 4 P. M., and then closes. The school remains closed during the Summer, and reopens on the 1st of October.

HORRIBLE STORY OF SUFFERING.

A Man Nine Days Without Food in the Hold of a Ship.

A negro named JAS. WILSON, 25 years of age, arrived here on Tuesday evening, 25th inst., in the steamer Rising Star, from Aspinwall, who had existed during the entire passage without eating. He was employed at Aspinwall in receiving the cargo, and after supper on the 17th inst. fell asleep in a secluded part of the lower hold. At 1 o'clock on the morning of the 18th the vessel sailed. The man, on awakening, perceived that she was at sea, but the hatchways being closed he was unable to make himself heard from the depth where he was situated. The cargo in his proximity consisted of wool, India rubber, mother-of-pearl shells, and hides, and offered no means of sustenance. The hold was by no means crowded with goods, and he enjoyed locomotion, but weakness and the confined air finally overcame him, and he slept profoundly until the hatches were reopened on Wednesday morning after arrival. The fresh air revived him, and, as the stevedores descended, he was discovered, but was unable to stand. He had been nearly nine days without eating. Tea was administered, but he could not retain it. Sherry wine was tried with better success, and he gradually became able to absorb food. He was taken to the Colored Home, at the foot of East Sixty-fifth-street, and will be returned to Aspinwall after recovery by the Commissioners of Charities and Corrections, in whose charge he remains.

Panorama For Sale.

Our advertising columns announce for sale a moving panorama of the war, containing forty admirable painted views of its more striking and remarkable incidents, by artists of ability and reputation. They were exhibited in this City within the past year, and were highly esteemed by all who saw them. It strikes us that this offer is a good opportunity for an enterprising person in that line of business.

The New-York Safe Deposit Company.

To the Editor of the New-York Times:

The increasingly frequent robberies of safes of banks and individuals, and especially the recent million-dollar robbery of a Savings Bank in Philadelphia, may well excite alarm, although, as the latter case is stated, the wonder only is that it did not occur before.

To show where a really safe place can be found would seem, in the present excitement, a public benefaction.

The Safe Deposit Company of New-York, at the corner of Broadway (Nos. 142 and 146) and Liberty-street, being such a place, it seems opportune to invite the public, whether from business or curiosity, to visit and see the premises and the mode of business, that the security and convenience there offered may be still more widely known and appreciated. A separate business room is provided for ladies, of whom we have very many among our renters and depositors.

By the provision upon the premises of separate desks for our dealers, all risks to their securities are avoided, both of carrying them through the street and while at the places to which they would be taken.

The arrangements of the office preclude the possibility of any stealthy or sudden theft.

While there is great choice in safes generally as to security, a large element of safety against burglars or collusion is the number and character of the watch and the facilities for thoroughly watching not only the safes, but even the watchmen.

This Company has four watchmen of its own, picked men; at least two, armed, are always inside its premises, day and night, Sundays and holidays included, and prohibited going outside. Every half hour they mark a detector clock, as proof of watchfulness. They cannot lock or unlock any of the vaults; upon these there is neither key nor keyhole.

The iron window shutters are kept open all night, and the premises, being a basement corner, always brilliantly lighted, the vault, front and doors and all the room outside them can be seen from both streets by nine other watchmen constantly on duty outside, with an eye to these premises through the entire night, as well as by all passers on two of the greatest thoroughfares of the City. Two other private watchmen in the same building make up the number to fifteen. Opposite and open, and their employes about all night, are the Western Union Telegraph and the Associated Press, as well as one of four Police Stations, belonging to four Police Precincts, which corner upon the premises of this Company. There is constant passing and repassing the premises through the night to and from the Post Office, in the next block, and to and from the ferries.

These peculiar advantages of location, and especially of openness to outside surveillance, are justly considered as among the greatest of safeguards; the latter is indeed essential.

Every one knows the detection and advisement of anything at any time appearing suspicious about the premises would be liberally compensated by the Company. There is no other point in the City so thoroughly watched as this.

The Chief of the Metropolitan Police, in view of the great interests involved, has evinced his ready willingness to extend to the Company every facility, protection and advice in his power. The Company has the friendly counsels and watchful interest of the Chief of the Detective Police of the City, as well as of other Detective independent organizations, and has specially secured the counsel and supervisory services of the Chief Detective of the Sub-Treasury. We are thus kept well posted in what and against whom to guard.

The well-known fact that our deposits consist of the representatives of value in bonds, &c., and not of money, is in itself a protection.

The vault containing the deposits of bonds, &c., and the small rented safes, is a complete safe in itself, composed of iron and steel hardened to turn the edge of any drill. It lies on one side against an outside four-feet wall, and on the other against a two-feet partition cemented wall, close against the other side of which lies another of the Company's similar iron and steel vaults, and it backs against a three-feet granite wall, which forms one side of another vault.

No wood is used in the construction of the building, and no surrounding conflagration, however great, could affect its interior in the least.

The gentlemen of the office have been carefully selected, with sole reference to their character and adaptability to their duties.

In the handling of the many millions of deposits since the establishment of the Company, not a dollar has been in any way lost, or even temporarily mislaid.

We have just provided the increased accommodation of a large adjoining room.

The Company was gotten up for a special and exclusive business—to provide an absolutely safe place of deposit and thus meet a great public necessity, before unprovided for, and not as an incidental and outside interest, to make a rental for premises erected for other objects.

How far it has successfully met this purpose is best evinced in its many thousand dealers, and the generous confidence accorded to it by the banks and the community, and the fact that most of its new business comes through the recommendation of its dealers.

The entire time and attention of its President is given to the personal supervision of the business of the Company, and, having originated this system of Public Safe Keeping of Valuables, now being imitated in this country and in Europe, he cannot but feel an earnest interest and personal responsibility in the continued success of this Institution.

Appreciating the great trust confided to the Company, the Board of Directors have spared no expense to give absolute security to its dealers. It is the policy of the Company to secure a permanently certain, rather than a large dividend, and to extend the benefits of the Institution by a gradual reduction of even the present low rates, as an increasing income, and the permanent interest of the Institution and its dealers shall justify.

Respectfully yours,

FRANCIS H. JENKS,
President of the Safe Deposit Company of New-York.

MISCELLANEOUS.

ANOTHER POWERFUL ROMANCE
BY
MISS M. E. BRADDON.

Only a few weeks have elapsed since Miss Braddon's extraordinary story, entitled, "OSCAR BERTRAND," was brought to a conclusion in the columns of the SUNDAY MERCURY, and now the Proprietors of the GREAT SUNDAY NEWSPAPER have the pleasure of announcing another striking romance, by the same gifted author. It is entitled,

THE BLACK BAND;
OR,
THE MYSTERIES OF MIDNIGHT,

and is, in fact, intended as a companion to "OSCAR BERTRAND," the most conspicuous characters in that wonderful production figuring prominently in the new work.

The first installment of "The Black Band; or, The Mysteries of Midnight," will appear in the

SUNDAY MERCURY
OF

and the opening chapters are of such rare and fascinating interest that nothing which could be said of the details of the story in this advertisement would be likely to enhance the excitement which their perusal is sure to create.

The doings of the Oath-bound Secret Association, with whose objects the reader of "Oscar Bertrand" is already partially acquainted, form a leading feature of this wild and stormy narrative of passion, intrigue and revenge. The indomitable and unscrupulous leader of the "Black Band" is the master spirit of the drama, and the other dramatis personæ, while endeavoring to subserve their own purposes through his instrumentality, are in effect his puppets. No grander conception of a bold, bad man of powerful genius and unyielding tenacity of purpose, is to be found in the whole range of modern romance.

Truly Miss Braddon is a wonderful writer. Her mind is essentially masculine, and the versatility of her imagination is as astonishing as its vigor. No two of her stories are in the slightest degree alike. "The Black Band; or, The Mysteries of Midnight," although it purports to be, and is, a companion work to "Oscar Bertrand," presents a marked contrast to that romance in its scenes, incidents, and adventures. Of all the sensational productions of its author it is perhaps the most sensational, and certainly nothing from her pen heretofore published in the SUNDAY MERCURY, can be compared with it in this respect. "Nobody's Daughter" has been considered one of her most thrilling creations, but the lurid grandeur of the criminal history of the "Black Band" throws that tale of marvels completely into the shade. If she had actually been a member of the Carbonari or some other of the mysterious brotherhoods against whom the Governments of Continental Europe so long fulminated their decrees in vain, she could not have described the dark doings of those extra-judicial organizations with more terrible effect. It is said that these societies have not yet ceased to exist, and it is believed by many that an association not very dissimilar either in its objects or mode of operation to the brotherhood described by Miss Braddon, is now in being in this country, with its headquarters in a southwestern State, and ramifications extending over the entire Union. Be this as it may, there can be no doubt that the terrible "Black Band" had its counterpart in Italy a few years ago, and the Police, with all their sagacity, were baffled by the subtlety and secrecy with which its machinations were carried on.

In the early part of her career as a novelist, the SUNDAY MERCURY entered into an arrangement with Miss Braddon for the purchase of the proof sheets of her best serial romances, paying copyright prices for the privilege of publishing them in advance of any other American newspaper or magazine. The extraordinary popularity of the stories which have appeared in the MERCURY under this arrangement has fully justified the outlay.

Among them all, however, it is doubtful whether there has been one of superior interest to that which will be commenced in the columns of the GREAT SUNDAY NEWSPAPER to-morrow. From six to ten columns of the story will be given every week until it is completed.

It is satisfactory to know that the expense and labor employed to render the SUNDAY MERCURY acceptable to all classes of readers have not been bestowed in vain.

The wide scope and invariable accuracy of its local intelligence; its exhaustive special articles on the leading social features of metropolitan life; its carefully compiled commercial and financial reports and shipping intelligence; the humerous original articles in its Table Talk; its copious Theatrical and Show News—a department in which it is unequaled by any other newspaper in the world—together with its spicy editorials on all the live subjects of the day, have given the SUNDAY MERCURY a prestige never heretofore attained by an American journal.

The proof of this statement is documentary and official. The books of the United States Revenue Department show that the sum total in cash derived from the sale of each edition of the MERCURY exceeds the daily proceeds, from the same sources, of the most popular daily published in the Udited States. To compare its circulation with that of the so-called "Sunday newspapers" issued in New-York seems almost ridiculous. Take three joint issues and multiply the same by three, and the product will still be many thousands short of the habitual circulation of the PEOPLE'S SUNDAY JOURNAL.

The great Metropolis is the local point of interest to every intelligent man and woman in the United States, and the only paper that faithfully and fully reflects New-York life in all its phases is the SUNDAY MERCURY. Sunday without its leading journal would be like the play of "Hamlet" with its hero omitted. The closing of every church in the City to-morrow would not produce so profound a sensation as the failure of the SUNDAY MERCURY to make its wonted appearance on to-morrow morning.

Fortunately for the public, no such catastrophe is impending. Duly at the appointed time, the newspaper that everybody needs, reads and relishes, will be in the hands of scores of thousands of citizens, bringing to their breakfast tables the very latest intelligence that the lightning has borne from all parts of the compass to the commercial and intellectual centre of the Union. News that scarcely three hours before was flying over the wires will be found in its telegraphic column, together with a glorious feast for the imagination, covering the whole of one of its ample pages, in the first installment of

THE BLACK BAND; OR, THE
MYSTERIES OF MIDNIGHT,
by Miss M. E. BRADDON, author of "Lady Audley's Secret," "Nobody's Daughter," &c., &c.
AN EXTRA EDITION

will be issued to-morrow, to meet the extra demand which a new story by the queen of English novelists is sure to occasion.

III.—SPIELHAGEN.

PROBLEMATIC CHARACTERS. Author's edition. Translated by Professor SCHELE DE VERE. 12mo, cloth. $1 75.

"One of the best of modern German novelists."—Saturday Review.

"In Germany he is acknowledged to occupy the foremost rank among modern writers of fiction. As a delineator of individual characters, many of them types of different classes of society, as a painter of various situations, scenic and social, he appears to be unequaled by any other modern German writer of fiction."—Westminster Review.

IV.—TAINE.

ITALY, (Florence and Venice.) Translated by JOHN DURAND. 8vo., (uniform with Rome and Naples.) $2 50.

"One feels at moments as if before this writer there had been no critics, no travelers, observers or æsthetic inquisitors."—Nation.

"M. TAINE studies its (Italy's) art from its history, and not its history from its art, as Mr. RUSKIN does, for example, and we think he has by far the clearer idea of the time, its people and its works."

V.—MENTAL PHOTOGRAPHS.

AN ALBUM. 8vo., cloth, $1 50.

This album contains copies of a series of questions, with blanks for answers, the whole calculated to preserve the "mental photographs" of friends.

Some very brief and crude manuscript albums on this system have lately afforded much amusement in some circles, here and in Europe, and have never failed to entertain all, young or old, grave or gay, to whose attention they have been brought.

PUBLISHED THIS DAY:

MALBONE; AN OLDPORT ROMANCE.
BY THOMAS WENTWORTH HIGGINSON.
1 vol. 16mo. $1 50.

During its recent course of publication in the Atlantic Monthly, this Romance has elicited great commendation, as a more elaborate study of character than most American fictions. It is one of the few novels whose scene is laid among cultivated Americans—many of our fictions depicting rustic or frontier life. A critic distinguished for his wise discrimination, says that Philip Malbone is a character as original as Eugene Wrayburn, in "Our Mutual Friend." The scenes of the story are laid in Newport, and the Romance is full of exquisite descriptions of the well-known scenery of that celebrated watering-place.

I.
A GRAPHIC HISTORICAL TALE,
WATERLOO:
A Sequel to the "Conscript of 1813."
By ERCKMANN-CHATRIAN.

One vol. 12mo, uniform with "Madame Therese" and "The Conscript." With six full-page illustrations. Price.........$1 50

In this volume, Joseph, "the Conscript," continues the story so charmingly begun in the work to which this is the sequel. It is characterized by the same exquisite simplicity of style and fidelity to nature which distinguish all the productions of ERCKMANN-CHATRIAN, while its description of the battle of Waterloo, coming, as it pretends to do, from a soldier actually engaged in the great struggle, is one of the most vivid and graphic ever written.

FOREIGN MISSIONS:
THEIR RELATIONS AND CLAIMS.
By Rev. RUFUS ANDERSON, D. D., LL. D.,
Secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions. One vol. 12mo. Price $1 50.

Dr. ANDERSON'S life-long devotion to the cause of Foreign Missions, fits him, beyond any other writer, to discuss their relations and claims. From its broad and comprehensive views, and eloquent presentation of facts—many of them new to the large majority of readers—this volume is sure to excite renewed interest in the great work to the discussion of which it is devoted.

NEW AND IMPORTANT SCHOOL-BOOKS
PUBLISHED BY
WOOLWORTH, AINSWORTH & CO.,
No. 117 Washington-st., Boston,
No. 111 State-st., Chicago.

JUST ISSUED:
HAND-BOOK OF NATURAL PHILOSOPHY,
For School and Home Use. By W. J. ROLFE and J. A. GILLET, teachers in the High School, Cambridge, Mass. With 212 wood engravings and 3 colored maps, (illustrating Meteorology.) Price $1 25.

The body of the book contains only 229 pages in clear, open type, (with no fine print,) and treats of all the topics of Natural Philosophy. The more theoretical portions of the subject are treated briefly in an Appendix, and descriptions of apparatus and directions for performing experiments are added. Omitting the Appendix, the book is not too difficult for Grammar and District Schools. With the Appendix, it is exactly adapted to the wants of those High Schools and Academies which have not time for a larger book.

It is not an abridgment of the larger "Natural Philosophy" by the same authors, but it is wholly a new book. It is simple in style, and eminently a practical book, yet thoroughly scientific, and giving the results of the latest discovery and research. It is sure of a hearty welcome from all teachers who desire a book which shall be brief without being dry, and easy without being puerile.

BY THE SAME AUTHORS:
HAND-BOOK OF CHEMISTRY. Price $1 25.
HAND-BOOK OF THE STARS. Price $1 50.

These are brief elementary manuals of Chemistry and Astronomy, on the same plan as the "Hand-Book of Natural Philosophy."

These books are especially adapted to a brief course extending through a single term of school.

ALSO
THE CAMBRIDGE COURSE OF PHYSICS. In 3 vols. 1. Chemistry, $2; 2. Natural Philosophy, $2; 3. Astronomy, $2.

These are larger books, by the same authors, and are intended for more advanced classes, or for those devoting a longer time to these branches.

This course has already been officially adopted by the State Boards of Maryland and Minnesota, and is already used in more than fifty cities and large towns, and in nineteen different States of the Union.

FRENCH.—Magill's French Grammar. Key to Magill's French Grammar. Magill's Introductory French Reader. Magill's French Prose and Poetry.

SELECTIONS FROM OVID AND VIRGIL. A shorter Hand-book of Latin Poetry, by the same authors. An edition of this book, with a complete vocabulary, and references to Allen's and to Bullions' Latin Grammars, as well as to Andrews' and Stoddard's, and to Harkness', is in press, and will be ready in May.

GERMAN.—A New Elementary German Grammar. By GABRIEL CAMPBELL, Professor in State University of Minnesota.

A Practical and Complete German Grammar. By ADOLPHI DOUAH, Ph. D. 12mo.

DRAWING.—Bartholomew's Drawing Book. New Series.

This series of books—the most practical and thorough course of instruction in drawing ever published—will be completed in 12 numbers, each containing 12 plates, executed in the highest style of lithographic art, and 24 pages of drawing paper of a superior quality. Instruction accompanies each book. In connection with the first three books, a guide has been prepared for the use of teachers and more advanced pupils.

DRAWING SLATES.—Bartholomew's Primary School Slate, with a series of progressive lessons in writing and drawing. This is a new thing, and will prove the most admirable device for interesting and instructing young beginners in drawing.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

VALUABLE ESTATE IN NEWPORT, R. I.

In the Circuit Court.—Eustis vs. Baggett et al.—Pursuant to a decretal order in this case, I will offer at public outcry at the old Custom-house, in Charleston, S. C., at 11 o'clock A. M., on MONDAY, the 7th day of June next, all that lot of land, with the buildings thereon standing, situated in Kay-st., in the City of Newport and the State of Rhode Island, and known as the Eustis House, being the estate in said town of Newport of which Patience Wise B. Eustis was seized at the time of her death, to wit: Measuring on Kay-st. 89 2-12 feet; on land of Job A. Peckham 280 9-12 feet; on land of Pell 89 6-12 feet, and on land of R. S. Izard 279 8-12 feet. The house is a frame house of two stories and attic, with high stone basement, containing 16 rooms, with piazza in front.

The situation is well known to be one of the best in Newport for private residence, and is surrounded by first-class estates.

The conditions of sale will be one-half cash and the balance on a credit of one year, to be secured by bond of the purchaser and a mortgage of the premises, the buildings to be insured and the policy assigned, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser.

Purchaser to pay me for necessary papers and stamps.
J. P. M. EPPING, U. S. Marshal,
Charleston, S. C.

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION.

WILSON H. BLACKWELL, Auctioneer.

BY MALLORY & BLACKWELL,
No. 55 Liberty-st.

TUESDAY, JUNE 1,
At 12 M., at Exchange Salesroom,
No. 111 Broadway, New-York.

BELLEFIELD,
the country seat of the late
JAMES BOORMAN,
AT
HYDE PARK.

The mansion, a large frame house, with a frontage including wings of 95 feet, 45 feet deep, contains some 25 rooms, has just been painted and put in perfect order. Farm house of 8 rooms; stone cottage of 5 rooms, on the river bank, elegantly finished in black walnut; two other cottages with 3 or 4 rooms. Large barn, carriage house, stable, green-house, rosery, grapery, ice-house, &c.

The grounds comprise one hundred and thirty acres, running from the Albany Turnpike to the Hudson River; 600 yards of water front; water 80 feet deep, affording a fine anchorage for a yacht. Two beautiful lakes and very fine trout brooks adorn the grounds, and for practical uses a rare opportunity is offered for trout breeding; and a fall of water of 15 feet near the main barns gives sufficient power for all mechanical necessities pertaining to such a place.

A fine road leads from the turnpike to the stone cottage on the banks of the river, built in the best manner, affords a delightful drive, shaded nearly all the way by giant forest trees. Shrubbery, flowers, fine lawns, miles of hedges, and everything that goes to make a residence desirable for a gentleman of means, is here to be found.

The improvements on this property could not be put there for $100,000, yet it is possible that it will be bought on the day of sale for less than half of this amount.

Maps, photographs and particulars at the office of auctioneers.

ADRIAN H. MULLER, Auctioneer.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY given by the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund of the City of New-York, that pursuant to the provisions of the act entitled "An act to authorize the construction of a Railroad through 23d-st., in the City of New-York," passed May 10, 1869, they will sell at public auction in the "Governor's Room," of the City Hall Park, in said City, on WEDNESDAY, June 2, 1869, at 12 M., to the highest bidder for the same, the right, privilege and franchise to construct, operate, and use a railroad with a double track, and the necessary turnouts and switches for the proper working of the same, through, along, and upon 23d-st., in the City of New-York, from the North River to the East River, on the following terms and conditions:

First—The person or persons or corporation whose bid shall be accepted on such sale shall, within four months from the day of the sale, finish and complete said road and equip the same with the requisite number of cars and horses; but should he or they be restrained or prevented by any legal proceedings which are not collusive from constructing and completing the same, the time during which they are so restrained shall not be deemed or taken to be part of the time within which the same is to be completed. The said party or parties shall execute a bond in the sum of five hundred thousand dollars, in two good and sufficient securities, to be approved by the said Commissioners, conditioned for the completion and equipment of the said railroad as above provided, subject to the conditions, and with the authority as follows.

Second—Said railroad shall be constructed on the most approved plan for the construction of City railroads, and with the rail now used upon the street railroads in Philadelphia, commonly called Philadelphia rail, and shall be run as often as the convenience of passengers may require, and shall be subject to such reasonable rules and regulations in respect thereto as the Common Council of the City of New-York may from time to time by ordinance prescribe; and the said party or corporation will be authorized by law to charge the same rate of fare for the conveyance of passengers on said railroad as is now charged by other City railroads in said City.

Third—In the construction, operation, or use of such railroad upon the route above designated, should such person or corporation deem it necessary or proper to run upon, intersect, or use any portion of other railroad tracks now laid upon said street above named, he or they are authorized by the aforesaid act to run upon, intersect and use the same; and in case they cannot agree with the owner or owners thereof respecting the compensation or payment to be made therefor, then the amount of such compensation or payment shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided by subdivision six of the twenty-eighth section of the act entitled "An act to authorize the formation of railroad corporations, and to regulate the same," passed April second, eighteen hundred and fifty. And should any real estate or interest therein be required for the purpose of constructing said railroad, as above specified and authorized, for which the said person or corporation shall be unable to agree with the owner or owners for the use or purchase thereof, they may acquire the right to use or title to the same in the manner specified in the fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth and twenty-first sections of the said act of April second, eighteen hundred and fifty, except that in any of the proceedings for any of the purposes authorized by said act, it shall not be necessary that the petition to the Supreme Court shall make any allegations of, or reference to any incorporation, capital stock, surveys or maps, or of the filing of any certificate of location. But in all cases the use of said street for the purposes of said railroad, as authorized by said act, shall be considered a public use, consistent with the uses for which the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of said City hold said street. Nothing in the said act contained shall authorize or allow the existence of more than two tracks in any part of said street.

Fourth—The Legislature reserve the right to alter, amend, or repeal the act giving the authority to construct and operate such railroad.

Fifth—On payment into the City Treasury of the amount of the said bid, and on the execution and approval of the said bond, and the execution of an agreement to perform the conditions and stipulations herein expressed, the said Commissioners will deliver to the party or parties entitled to the same, as aforesaid, a certificate that he or they are entitled to such grant.

Sixth—The Commissioners reserve the right to reject any bid as being made fraudulently or collusively.

PUBLIC NOTICES.

OFFICE OF CLERK OF COMMON COUNCIL,
No. 8 CITY HALL,
NEW-YORK, May 20, 1869.

PUBLIC NOTICE.—THE UNDERSIGNED, having, by resolution of the Common Council, been directed to compile and superintend the publication of the Manual of the Corporation of the City of New-York for the year 1869, respectfully solicits from the Heads of Departments and the various Commissioners charged with executive business of the City and County Governments, and the officers of the several charitable, educational, religious, scientific and other institutions in this City, duly organized by any charter or act of incorporation, such information connected with the respective departments and institutions under their charge as may be of advantage to the public, or as may be appropriately contained in the "Corporation Manual" for 1869.

In compiling the work, it is absolutely necessary that the statistical and other information connected with the City and County Government and the almost innumerable public and private charitable and other institutions of this City should be strictly reliable and authentic. To secure this indispensable requisite, the kind coöperation and assistance of the City and County officials and the officers of such institutions is hereby respectfully solicited.

An early response is particularly desired.

AMUSEMENTS.

"LET US HAVE PEACE."

OFFICIAL PROGRAMME.

GREAT NATIONAL

PEACE JUBILEE!

(Projected by Mr. P. S. GILMORE,)

To be held in the

CITY OF BOSTON

JUNE 15, 16, 17, 18 AND 19, 1869,

To Commemorate the Restoration of

PEACE THROUGHOUT THE LAND.

This glorious event in our National History will be celebrated by the

GRANDEST MUSICAL FESTIVAL

Ever known in the History of the World.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES, Members of his Cabinet, Heads of Departments, Governors of all the States, and many other distinguished persons from all parts of the country, together with the Representatives of Foreign Governments at Washington, have been invited by the Mayor and City Council of Boston to become the guests of the city during the Festival.

AN IMMENSE COLISEUM,
the largest structure in America, capable of accommodating
FIFTY THOUSAND PERSONS,
has been erected especially for this occasion. The interior of the building will be magnificently decorated with emblems of NATIONAL PEACE AND HARMONY.

The extraordinary expense incurred in preparing for this great festival has been met with remarkable generosity by the public-spirited, art-loving citizens of Boston, and the Executive Committee take great pleasure in announcing the following
OFFICIAL PROGRAMME
For the five days of the festival:

THE PRESBYTERIANS.

Interesting Proceedings in Both Assemblies—A Joint Communion Service.

A REPLY TO THE POPE.

Resolutions and Comments on his Encyclical Letter.

The New School—Eighth Day.

At the opening of the morning session at the Church of the Covenant, yesterday, Rev. Dr. CROSBY, from the Committee on Devotional Exercises, announced the appointments of Ministers for to-morrow (Sunday.)

A communication was received from the other Assembly, officially informing this body that the Old School Convocation had passed a resolution recommending that on some Sunday, to be hereafter named, prayer be offered in all the Presbyterian Churches of the Union for the preservation of peace between the two great Protestant nations, Great Britain and the United States. Referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Rev. Dr. WILLIAM ADAMS, of New-York, then offered the following preamble and resolutions:

Whereas, The Pope of Rome, called PIUS the Ninth, did, on the 13th day of December, in the year of our Lord 1868, issue a certain letter or proclamation, addressed to "All Protestants and non-Catholics" throughout the world, the import of which is to invite and urge all persons and organizations thus designated, to "hasten to return to the only fold," meaning the Church of Rome; and,

Whereas, The said Pope, in the said letter, called "paternal and apostolic," has, in an unwonted manner, as if pleading at the bar of public opinion, assigned several and various reasons for its preparation and publication; and,

Whereas, Among the reasons so mentioned, is the assertion of his own supremacy over the human conscience, as "the vicar of Jesus Christ," the authority to govern the persuasions of the human intellect, and to direct the actions of men, both in private and social life; as also this, that the rejection of this authority and protest against it by so many, has "promoted and nourished these perturbations in human affairs, in this our day," which the said Pope pronounces "miserable and grievous," but which must be regarded by every friend of his species as universally hopeful and auspicious; and,

Whereas, All such claims and assertions on the part of the Pope of Rome are, to the last degree, unfounded in fact, contrary to truth, reason, Scripture and of the whole genius of Christianity, and if allowed would prove subversive of all human rights and liberties; and

Whereas, Recent movements, especially in Austria and Spain, nations long in subjection to these monstrous pretensions of the Papacy, command the prompt recognition, sympathy and support of all friends of humanity, freedom and religion throughout the world; therefore be it

Resolved, That the facts now received furnish and present a proper and fitting occasion for all Protestant Churches throughout Christendom, each in the mode which its own wisdom shall suggest, to prepare and set forth for general distribution through the same channels which the Pope himself has chosen, a suitable response to his letter, which response shall contain a statement of the reasons why his claims can in no wise be recognized, as being inconsistent with a Catholicity more Catholic than Rome, the authority of infallible scripture, and the glorious supremacy of Jesus Christ.

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by this Assembly, whose duty it shall be, in coöperation with a similar committee of three, to be appointed by the General Assembly now meeting in the Brick Church, to nominate and appoint at the earliest time a committee of ten, who, if they deem it wise, shall prepare and publish such a reply to the Pope as shall be regarded an expression of the sentiments of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America concerning the matters therein contained, as of vital importance to all civil and religious liberty throughout the world and to the salvation of the human race.

Rev. Mr. FORD, of Parsippanny, N. J., thought it was beneath the dignity of this Assembly to take any notice whatever of the Pope or his letter.

Rev. Dr. ADAMS said the matter had not received proper notice, such as might have been expected from a Protestant body, at the hands of the Episcopal Convention. Other Churches were assigning their reasons for non-compliance with the Pope's invitation, and he hoped the Presbyterian Church would do likewise.

Rev. Dr. J. F. STEARNS, of Newark, said that the Pope was a fact, and the Roman Catholic Church was a fact; they should be taken notice of, and their false pretensions exposed. He favored the adoption of the resolutions.

Rev. JOHN WAUGH, of St. Lawrence, also favored the resolutions. He thought the time exceedingly opportune for giving our Roman Catholic fellow-citizens ample reasons why the supremacy of the Pope should not be acknowledged, and he knew no better way to do that than in the manner proposed.

The resolutions were then adopted.

Rev. Dr. MUSGRAVE and Elder ROBT. CARTER, of the Old School body, were then introduced, and, in brief addresses, officially informed the Assembly of the adoption of the report of the Committee on Reunion, by their body yesterday. Dr. MUSGRAVE said that there were only two things which, in his view, imperilled the consummation of the work of reunion, so happily inaugurated by the Assemblies, pending the final action of the presbyteries: 1. The expression of ultra theological views on the one hand; and, 2. An inflated feeling as to success, on the other. Against these two dangers he warned his hearers. The Moderator replied to the addresses in a few pertinent remarks.

Rev. WM. E. MOORE, of Philadelphia, offered the following, which was referred to the Committee on Bills and Overtures.

Resolved, That the growing disposition of the members of the Church to attend the opera and theatre, and to participate in the social dance, at home and abroad, require some further remonstrance from the General Assembly, or an emphatic re-affirmation of its past action.

Rev. Dr. DARLING, from the Committee on Church Polity, reported in relation to ministers coming from foreign countries to assume pastoral duties here, that the General Assembly sees nothing to prevent, if the transfer be approved by the presbyteries on both sides. The report was adopted.

On motion of Rev. Dr. POOR, of Newark, the hour of 10 A. M. to-day was fixed for the reception of the representatives to this Assembly from the Protestant Church of Bohemia.

Rev. Dr. CHESTER, from the Committee on Bills and Overtures, reported a resolution to the effect that pastors be requested to impress on their congregations everywhere, to contribute something, no matter how small the amount, to each of the benevolent objects mentioned in the statistical report, viz.: Foreign Missions, Education, Home Missions, Publication, Church Erection, Sabbath Schools and Ministerial Relief. This report created some discussion, and it was finally recommitted.

The Moderator announced the following named gentlemen as the Committee provided for in the resolutions presented by Dr. ADAMS, concerning the Pope's invitation: Rev. Dr. WILLIAM ADAMS, of New-York; Professor CALEB MILLS, of Crawfordsville, Ind., and D. W. INGERSOLL, of Minnesota.

Rev. Dr. HUMPHREY, from the Special Committee appointed to confer with the Committee of Management of the Grand Army of the Republic, in relation to the decorating of soldiers' graves on Sunday, reported that no reply had been received as to the protest of this Assembly, transmitted by the Committee, but that official notification had been given to the Committee that the ceremony would be performed by the Kings County department of the Grand Army of the Republic, at Cypress Hills Cemetery, on Monday, the 31st inst., and the Committee recommended that as many delegates as could be spared, (leaving a quorum for the transaction of business,) attend the exercises on that day. The report was adopted.

Rev. Mr. MURPHY, pastor of the New-York Port Society's (Seamen's) Bethel, then, by invitation, addressed the Assembly, setting forth the claims of the seamen for spiritual aid on the hearts of all Evangelical churches.

On motion, the Joint Committee on Reunion, together with the Moderators of the two Assemblies, were requested to prepare a pastoral letter to the synods throughout the country, urging them to indorse the action of the Assemblies in adopting the plan of reunion.

After prayer by Rev. S. H. COX, D. D., of New-York, the Assembly adjourned till to-day at 9:45 A. M.

The prayer of Dr. COX was very energetic. He thanked God that we were not going back to the dark ages, but were advancing toward the millennium. After supplicating the Throne of Grace to remove all obstacles in the way of a reunion of the two branches of the Church, he prayed that the Holy Dove might constantly accompany our National Eagle, E Pluribus Unum, through all time, so that the whole land might be converted; that no Republic could stand except it were under the monarchy of God. He also desired that the greatest enemy of the Gospel in these modern times—the man of sin—might be disintegrated, dismantled, destroyed, so that he could no longer put forth his blasphemous pretensions to spiritual supremacy, but that on the ruins of his establishment there might ride the Sun of Righteousness to shed abroad its ray over a sinful world.

The Old School—Eighth Day.

At the reassembling yesterday morning, after prayer by Rev. Dr. MUSGRAVE, Moderator pro tem., it was announced that thirteen representatives who were absent on Thursday, had accepted the privilege of recording their vote on the report on reunion, making the total result 87, in favor of it to 9 against it.

The report of the Committee on Freedmen was introduced by Rev. B. C. CRITCHLAW, and was also adopted. The Committee reported 130 missionaries, 60 newly-organized churches and 38 schools, with 3,000 pupils. There was $1,908 91 in Treasury at the beginning of the year to meet the demands of the missions and missionaries. The total funds amount to $79,169 55; balance in Treasury May 1, 1869, $6,360 03; total funds expended during the year, $72,809 24. Total funds contributed to Committee, $30,836 93. The Committee employed 178 missionaries, who have performed up to May 1, 1869, eighty-four years and five months of labor, at a cost of $21,371 82. Of the missionaries and teachers, 126 were of the African race. The whole number of churches, 72; churches organized, 9; communicants added, 5,634; marriages among freedmen, 89; baptisms, 1,074; Sabbath Schools, 69; pupils in same, 4,723. During the four years the Committee has been organized it has received contributions to the amount of $108,078 02, and has expended $195,697 06. The estimated present value of buildings among the Freedmen is $166,680, nearly double their original cost. Rev. S. C. LOGAN, Secretary of the Committee, made a few remarks in connection with the report, showing the success of the work among the colored people in the South.

Rev. Dr. ADAMS and Hon. WILLIAM STRONG then came forward and gave official notice of the result of the proceedings of the New School body on the reunion. Both gentlemen made congratulatory addresses, which were responded to by the Moderator. Rev. Mr. O. JOHNSON, of Philadelphia, and Rev. Dr. REAVER, of Kansas, subsequently addressed the Assembly on the subject of the Freedmen. The latter gentleman said that the Catholic Church was making overtures to the colored residents of his State, knowing that they would soon become voters and be of influence. He trusted that the Presbyterian Church would endeavor to prevent their conversion to the Roman faith by counteracting the influences of that Church.

He was followed by Rev. JOSEPH WILLIAMS, a colored preacher in Georgia, who mentioned that the effect of the union of the two Schools would be highly beneficial at the South. Dr. MUSGRAVE then stated that Rev. Mr. JOHNSON disclaimed having uttered the remarks in the New School Convention which were attributed to him, after which the Assembly adjourned.

Partaking of the Communion.

The two Assemblies came together in the Brick Church in Fifth-avenue, and united in partaking of the sacramental communion, the ceremony being intended to express their gratitude at having settled upon a basis of reunion. The Moderators of both bodies jointly officiated on the occasion.

Nearly all the representatives of the Old and New Schools were present, and occupied the floor pews, while the galleries were compactly filled with spectators. The service was conducted in a subdued and solemn style. Rev. Dr. FOWLER selected the opening hymn, and Rev. Dr. JACOBUS read the Scriptures, taking a chapter from Corinthians. The venerable Dr. GARDINER SPRING asked a blessing on the elements, offering a very fervent consecration and eucharistic prayer. The service terminated with brief addresses by Rev. Mr. SWAN, of Rochester; Rev. Dr. C. W. ANDERSON, and Rev. Dr. THOMAS DEWITT of the Reformed Church.

THE STREETS OF BROOKLYN.

Report of the Water Board Committee on Street-cleaning and Repairing—Present Aspect of the Streets and the Prospect.

The Committee on Streets, of the Permanent Water and Sewerage Board, of Brooklyn, made a report yesterday, on the subject of cleaning and repairing the streets, from which it appears that the Board hesitates about adopting any settled plan for the cleaning of the streets until they shall have examined most thoroughly such systems as may be in practice elsewhere, and give the present system a fair trial under more favorable circumstances than it has obtained heretofore; that they are of opinion that the City is steadily growing, and if the rate of the expenditure of its government can be kept stationary for a few years, Brooklyn will be able to step so lightly under its obligations that they will not press upon the tax-payers as burdens; that if the ward contractors will pursue a course recommended by an intelligent self-interest and perform the stipulations of their contracts, no change need be contemplated at present; that it is confidently hoped that the Board will be able to present during the year such an improvement in the condition of the streets as to bear favorable comparison with the past; that they believe the sum of $25,000 will enable them to do a large amount of work, and give great satisfaction in repairing streets the forthcoming year; that, with the confidence of the people, they hope to decide upon the paving of certain main streets so as to preserve economy, endurance and advantages for cleaning; that with well-paved streets a great reduction, it is believed, can be effected in the cost of both street-repairing and street-cleaning; that a badly paved street is almost always dirty, while a well-paved street can be easily kept clean; that it is proposed that expenditure in these directions shall stand still, at all events up to 1871; that as the entire cost of street repairing is made a lien on the property directly benefited, and is to be repaid to the City promptly by local assessment, the Board will be justified in claiming that as a consequence of its creation, not a dollar will be added to the aggregate amount raised by the City for taxes for the support of its local Government, and that the amount required for all these purposes for the year ending Dec. 31, 1870, shall be the same as raised last year—for street cleaning, $85,000, and street repairing $25,000.

The foregoing report was adopted.

The Morgue.

The following are the reports of the Warden of the Morgue of the bodies exposed yesterday for identification:

Brought to the Morgue from Pier No. 27, East River, the body of an unknown man, age 45 years, five feet seven inches high, black hair and heavy brown whiskers, had on a light brown sack coat, gray pants, white cotton shirt, with Commissioners of Emigration and Ward's Island marked on it, blue socks and brogues. Body too much decomposed to be placed in the Morgue.

Brought to the Morgue from the foot of Whitehall-street, the body of an unknown woman, five feet high; had on black cloth sack, with black glass buttons and laced gaiter shoes. Body too much decomposed to be placed in the Morgue.

Brought to the Morgue from Pier No. 50, North River, the body of an unknown man, five feet eight inches high; had on black sack coat, striped pants, white muslin shirt and gaiter shoes. Body too much decomposed to be placed in the Morgue.

Brought to the Morgue from Thirty-fifth-street, East River, the body of an unknown man, five feet eight inches high; had on black frock coat, brown striped pants, brown plush vest, white cotton shirt and boots. Body too much decomposed to be placed in the Morgue.

DECORATION DAY.

The Ceremonies in this City To-Morrow—Programme of the Parade—The Services at Cypress Hills Cemetery and the Academy of Music—Observances Elsewhere.

The ceremony of decorating the graves of our fallen heroes, at Cypress Hills Cemetery, will take place to-morrow, in spite of the protest of that portion the community which would prefer to have the public parade, and the memorial meeting at the Academy of Music, on any other day than the Sabbath. The following is the ORDER OF THE DAY.

The Grand Marshal prescribes the following order to be observed in the formation of the line:

First Division.

The First Division consists of the various military and marine organizations, as follows: Marine Band; four companies United States Marines, commanded by Brevet Lieutenant-Colonel BROOME; National Guard of the City of New-York, under command of Major-General ALEXANDER SHALER, with full staff and cavalry escort.

Second Division.

The Second Disvision will be under the direction of Colonel JOHN W. MARSHALL, Assistant Marshal, and two aids. Band; Regiment National Guard; Memorial Executive Committee, Grand Army of the Republic; officers of the National and Department Encampments of the Grand Army of the Republic; orators of the day—Major-General DANIEL E. SICKLES, United States Minister to Spain, and Colonel EDWARD B. LANSING, V. G. C. G. A. R.; poet of the day—Colonel A. J. H. DUGANNE; catafalque used at obsequies of President LINCOLN, drawn by eight horses, furnished, by Mr. DODD, of Dodd's Express, decorated with flowers, arranged in monumental form, surrounded by a guard of honor, consisting of one-armed veterans, under command of Major J. T. CROSBY; seventy-five boys of the Union Home and School, orphans of deceased Union soldiers, in uniform, under command of one of their number; fifty girls of the same school; managers of the Ladies' Union Home and School; disabled soldiers in wagons; officers of the United States Army and Navy; Mayor and Common Council of the City of New-York; Board of Supervisors of the County of New-York; heads of Departments of City and County of New-York; civil officers of the United States Government; invited guests.

Third Division.

The Third Division will be under the direction of Major C. W. COWTAN, Assistant Marshal, and two aid-de-camps.

The Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, City of New-York, viz.: Post Phil Kearney, No. 8; Sedgwick, No. 11; Sumner, No. 24; Winthrop, No. 28; Koltes, No. 32; Isaac I. Stevens, No. 36; Ellsworth, No. 39; Smythe, No. 62; Miller, No. 76; Cameron, No. 79; which will be posted from right to left in the following order, according to seniority of Post Commanders: 1st, 6th, 4th, 9th, 3d, 8th, 5th, 10th, 7th, 2d.

Fourth Division.

The Fourth Division, under direction of Assistant Marshals and aids.

Civic organizations; ladies and citizens in carriages.

The several organizations intending to participate will form at 10 o'clock A. M., as follows: The First Division on north side Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, right on Fourth-avenue; Second Division on the north side Fourteenth-street, right on Broadway; Third Division on north side Fourteenth-street, right on Fourth-avenue; Fourth Division on Seventeenth-street, north of Union-square, right on Broadway.

The column will move at 10:30 o'clock A. M.

The route of march will be as follows:

Down Fourth-avenue to Tenth-street, to Broadway, to Fulton-street; thence by Fulton Ferry to Brooklyn. On arriving in Brooklyn, the procession will proceed to East New-York by Fulton and Atlantic avenue cars and other conveyances. At East New-York the columns will reform in the same order and march to Cypress Hills Cemetery, where the ceremonies will take place under the direction of the Memorial Executive Committee. On the sound of the assembly the column will again form, and after the benediction will march to East New-York, where it will be dismissed. The following aide-de-camps are hereby appointed, and will report to Major WM. H. CORSA, Chief of Staff, at No. 10 Union-square, at 10 o'clock A. M., Sunday, 30th inst., viz.: Colonel Alfred Wagstaff, Jr., Brevet Colonel Alexander D. Bailey, Major E. W. Brineninghausen, Captain John S. Dingwall, Captain S. G. Hayter, Lieutenant Louis Anderson. They will be obeyed and respected accordingly. All mounted officers will appear in regulation uniform, according to the rank they held in United States service, with side arms.

LEVIN CRANDALL, Grand Marshal.

The officers of the army and of the navy are requested to report at headquarters of the Memorial Executive Committee at No. 10 Union-square, at 10 o'clock A. M.

The bands in the column will each cease playing as the procession passes the different churches on the line of march. Large details of Police will be in attendance to preserve order on the march, and in the cemetery. It is requested that the flags on the shipping in the harbor, and the hotels and public buildings, and houses along the line of march, be placed at half-mast, in token of the solemnity and mournful nature of the occasion.

Minute guns will be fired from the batteries on Governor's Island from 11 o'clock A. M. until 1 o'clock P. M.

The invited guests and those desiring to take position in the line in carriages, are requested to report promptly at the hour specified, so that there may be no confusion after the march is commenced.

CEREMONIES IN BROOKLYN.

The several Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in Kings County have decided upon Monday for the observance of the decoration of the soldiers' graves.

The Board of Aldermen, the Board of Supervisors, and the Board of Education have accepted invitations to be present, and have declared the 31st inst. to be a general holiday, all the flags to be floated at half-mast, while the public schools are to be closed, and the children will have an opportunity of viewing the solemn performances of the occasion. The officers who are to conduct the ceremonies are as follows:

Grand Marshal, G. D. WEEKS; Marshal for the Western District, WM. B. PARISEN; Marshal for the Eastern District, JOHN P. SHORT; Adjutant General, J. HENRY STOREY; Quartermaster, THOMAS D. MOSSCROP.

In accordance with the order of General MCDOWELL, commanding the Department of the East, a national salute will be fired at 12 M., and half-hour guns from that time until sunset from the battery on Governor's Island, under direction of the officer commanding the post. The general rendezvous will be in the hall over the Post Office at 12 o'clock M.

The Committee have arranged that the ceremonies at Fort Hamilton will take place at 9 o'clock A. M.; at Green-Wood Cemetery, 10 o'clock; at the Naval Cemetery, also at 10 o'clock, and the principal ceremonies will take place at Cypress Hills Cemetery, where there are 3,000 soldiers' graves, at 3 o'clock P. M. The programme of services at Cypress Hills will be as follows:

1. Dirge, by the United States Fort Hamilton Band.
2. Anthem, by the Brooklyn Choral Union.
3. Prayer, by Rev. E. A. ANDREWS.
4. Reading of President LINCOLN'S Gettysburg Monument Address, by Captain E. C. PARKINSON.
5. Remarks by Dr. GEORGE S. LITTLE, introducing General STEWART L. WOODFORD, who will deliver an appropriate oration.
6. Address by Rev. SYLVESTER MALONE.
7. Benediction.
8. Floral decorations of the graves of soldiers and sailors.
9. Assembly and closing hymn.

The graves at Holy Cross and Evergreen Cemeteries will be decorated at 10 o'clock A. M. While the decorations are in progress, appropriate music will be performed by the bands of Fort Hamilton, Marine Barracks, Navy-yard, Governor's Island and the Fourteenth Regiment.

The ladies of the Union Relief Association, intending to participate with the Brooklyn Posts of the Grand Army of the Republic in the floral decoration of soldiers' graves on Monday, May 31, earnestly solicit donations of flowers from friends of the Association, which may be sent to the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, No. 161 Fifth-avenue, before 12 M. on Monday.

CEREMONIES AT FLUSHING, L. I.

At Flushing the citizens are preparing to decorate the soldiers' monument on Sunday. JAMES W. COVERT, Esq., is to deliver an address on the occasion. The ladies are engaged in the work of arranging the flowers at the Town Hall.

CEREMONIES ON STATEN ISLAND.

I accordance with orders from the Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, Post Shaw No. 71 will set apart Sunday, May 30, for decorating with flowers the graves of such of their comrades as may be buried on the island. All good citizens are invited to join in this work. The Post will meet at Engine-house No. 4, New-Brighton, at 1 o'clock P. M.

CEREMONIES ELSEWHERE.

The memorial ceremonies take place in Washington and many other cities to-day, and in many places where it was at first intended that they should take place on Sunday they have been postponed till Monday. New-York is rapidly gaining the reputation of the wickedest City in Christendom.

Bold Burglary on Long Island.

On Thursday night, or early on Friday morning, the extensive dry-goods store of Messrs. SMITH & BUNCE, at Babylon, Suffolk County, was entered by thieves, who carried away with them goods to the amount of $1,500. While the thieves were at work in the store, a gentleman residing next door was awakened by the continued barking of his dog, and fearing that something was wrong, he clothed himself lightly and descended to the yard, the dog all the time barking and growling, and at last proceeded to the front of the house, where he began to growl more fiercely than before. This attracted the gentleman's attention to the spot, and going thence, he discovered a horse and wagon standing opposite the store door of Messrs. SMITH & BUNCE, and a man keeping watch of it, and at the same time communicating with some one, whose voice sounded as if he might be in the store. The gentleman immediately proceeded to the house of Mr. SMITH and awoke that gentleman, when they returned to the store and saw three men driving off with a load of dry goods in their wagon. The two gentlemen gave chase to the party, but could not overtake them, and had to give it up. As the conveyance sped over the road, several articles of dry goods tumbled from it, which were gladly picked up by Mr. SMITH and his friend, and were worth about $200. The goods taken consisted of cloths, silks, calicoes, trimmings, &c., and the loss will amount to about $1,300. This store was robbed of a like quantity and quality of goods about a year ago, and probably by the same miscreants.

LOCAL NEWS IN BRIEF.

New-York.

Rev. Dr. HEDGE, author of "Reason in Religion," will conduct the free religious services in the large hall of Cooper Institute, to-morrow morning and evening.

To-morrow (Sunday) evening, Rev. GEO. LANSING TAYLOR will deliver a sermon on the "Present Duty of Temperance Men in this State."

Archbishop MCCLOSKEY will dedicate the buildings of the Ursuline Convent, East Morrisania, on Monday, May 31, at 10 A. M.

The steamboats C. Vibbard and Daniel Drew will resume their passages on the Day Line to Albany on Monday, May 31, landing at the principal points. They will leave Desbrosses-street at 7 A. M., and touch at Thirty-fourth-street for passengers. The Armenia will run to Poughkeepsie and back, leaving at 8:30, commencing about the 20th of June.

The barge F. Bonticou, flour loaded, careened over and filled with water at the Hudson River Railroad Depot, Thirty-first-street, North River; was pumped up and floated by the wrecking steamer John Fuller yesterday.

LESTER BAUN, aged 8 years, of No. 448 Pearl-street, was run over yesterday afternoon, at the corner of Catherine and Division streets, by a wagon driven by WILLIAM GRINNELL, who was arrested and locked up in the Seventh Precinct Station-house.

At 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning the ferry-boat Superior, in leaving her slip at the foot of Roosevelt-street, East River, collided with the schooner Chase. Fortunately, no one was injured, and the only harm resulting was a pecuniary damage of $100 to the rigging of the schooner.

Last evening, JANE HOWARD, aged 42, living at No. 263 Stanton-street, while in a fit of delirium tremens, made a determined effort to commit suicide by taking a dose of Paris green and by cutting a severe gash in her arm, but her design was frustrated by the prompt interference of friends, and she was removed to Bellevue Hospital. Her condition is not considered dangerous.

Brooklyn.

The new Fire Commissioners, in Executive Session yesterday, resolved that Engine Companies Nos. 4, 5, 11, 13, 16, 17 and 22; Hose Companies Nos. 1, 2, 5, 11 and 14, Western District; Hose No. 9, Eastern District, and Truck Company No. 1, Western District, be disbanded from June 1. This act has caused much uneasiness and displeasure among the "boys." The Commissioners have also issued an address to all the firemen in the Department, based on the law under which the new Board are operating.

The United States Circuit Court, Eastern District, before Judge BENEDICT, will be in session next month for the trial of criminal cases. The principal one on the calendar is that of the officers of the James Foster, Jr. During the last two weeks in June the Court will hear Admiralty cases.

Rev. THEODORE L. CUYLER, D. D., will preach on the relation of the Temperance movement to Church duty, in the New-England Congregational Church, Williamsburg, to-morrow evening.

New-Jersey.

GEORGE HOMAN, who claims to be the agent of a New-York wholesale liquor establishment, was brought before Justice MILLS, at Newark, yesterday, on a charge of having attempted to assassinate CARL HINDERER, a saloon-keeper. A row took place in HINDERER'S saloon, during which it is alleged HOMAN pulled out a pistol and fired at the saloon keeper. The prisoner was admitted to bail in the sum of $300.

On Tuesday next the hearing of criminal business in the Hudson County Court of Oyer and Terminer will be resumed.

SAMUEL COX, a bogus colored clergyman, was arrested in Newark on Thursday, for having defrauded a negro named JACKSON WATERS out of $50—the value of a check on an Elizabeth bank, the amount of which he was sent to collect. The prisoner has been identified as the perpetrator of a shocking outrage in Sussex County a few months since.

E. HOLMES, No. 7 Murray-st.—Dear Sir: I am inducing as many of my neighbors as possible to adopt your system of protection against burglarious attacks. The protection afforded by your Alarm is so nearly perfect as to leave nothing to be desired in that direction.

Yours, A. W. DIMOCK,
A. W. Dimock & Co., No. 26 Pine-st.

The great closing-out sale for thirty days at remarkably reduced prices, preparatory to alterations and building, at the world-renowned carpet store of HIRAM ANDERSON, No. 99 Bowery; an immense stock of English medallions and Brussels carpets, Lowell, three-ply and ingrain carpets, floor oil cloths, mattings, &c., at low figures.

Hattention is awakened in all directions by the elegance of the KNOX hat. It improves the appearance of the least comely, and adds grace and dignity to those to whom nature has been most lavish in her favors. We hold it to be the duty of every man to visit No. 212 Broadway, and procure a KNOX hat.

A suit at law is commenced against John H. Guest, for violating my Burglar-Alarm Telegraph patent. Using an infringement is also a violation of law, and will be treated accordingly. E. HOLMES, office removed to No. 7 Murray-st., two doors from Broadway.
